

The Federal Reserve System helps YOU

It was Created Primarily—

To help the business men and farmers;
To provide plenty of currency at all times;
To effect a steadier supply of credit.

The system merits the support of all good citizens; it must have yours in order to reach its full development.

You can secure the benefits of this great system and at the same time assist directly in developing it by depositing your money with us.

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

The Burrows National Bank

TABLE, JUNE 10, 1917.

WEST		EAST
Due	Mails Close	Due	Mails Close
7-11:16 a. m.	10:50 a. m.	26-1:47 p. m.	1:30 p. m.
5:41-6:35 p. m.	6:20 p. m.	8-8:52 p. m.	8:00 p. m.

R.F.D. mails close at 8:45 a. m.

rah for suffrage victory and our grand Old Empire State we have political freedom. We'll never forget the date.

are justly proud of Andover, the only won by two, stands for true democracy and our own Red, White and Blue.

liberty bell has sounded all over New York afloat, now my dear old Antis you too may go and vote.

—Valencia Slocum.

—Frank Davis lost a horse yesterday from acute indigestion.

—A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Mill of Whitesville.

—Mrs. Emogene Potter, of Red Station, and M. D. Westcott of Whitesville, were married Oct.

—The Masonic Convention of the 35th Masonic District will be held at Whitesville, Thursday, Nov. 15, afternoon and evening.

—Chas. Hammond returned Monday morning from Camp having been discharged from service on account of a diseased condition of his ear.

—T. J. Applebee died at his home in Belmont, Oct. 27th, at the age of 85 years. Mr. Applebee was a man of striking character, held in high esteem by acquaintances.

—Leonard Willetta died at his home in Belmont, Oct. 27th, at the age of 81 years. He was associated in oil and gas interests with his uncle, the late Isaac Willetta.

—Three births were reported last week from Andover to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Runkle, Oct. 25th, a daughter, Laura Irene, a son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Oct. 27th, and to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Case, on Oct. 28th, a daughter.

—There were fifty ladies in attendance at the knitting school at the Library, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Brown was the instructor. The ladies were given a copy of the letters received from the...

—Herman Vollrath died at his home in Whitesville, Wednesday, aged 50 years.

—Belfast Masons are to raise about $4,000 to complete their temple in that village.

—The R.F.D. carriers in several parts of the county are having additional mileage added to their routes.

—Howard Inskip has moved his family from Rochambeau Ave into the O'Boyle residence on Greenwood Street.

—Miss Veronica Hyland has entered the Bryant-Stratton Business College at Buffalo for an efficiency training course.

—Mrs. C. D. Reynolds, of Alfred, Mrs. Ora Layton and Mrs. Dennis, of Canisteo, started yesterday for Florida in Mrs. Layton's car.

—H. E. Austin, superintendent of Borden plant at Belmont, has gone to Carthage, Jefferson Co., where he will superintend a group of sixteen Borden condensories.

—Editor and Mrs. Frank A. Herrick of Bolivar, welcomed a little daughter, Frances Jane, at their home, Oct. 27th. This is the second little lady to grace their home. Congratulations.

—The body of O. L. Sherman was brought to Whitesville for interment last week Monday, from Johnson City, N. Y., where his death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mr. Sherman was sixty years of age.

—Bolivar is to have a Community Chautauqua next summer. This is Bolivar's first experience in this line and we hope that the 22 men signing guarantor's paper will fare better than a similar number of Andover men encountered for two seasons some time ago.

—The Union Sunday School meeting at the M. E. Church, Sunday, was a success in every way. George Rosa, of Whitesville gave a helpful address on the policies of the no license campaign. An interesting program was also given under the supervision of Mrs. Edith Thorne.

—Co-operating with the telephone companies having lines in Andover, Andover village officials have made it possible to eliminate most of the wires on Main Street. All telephone wires will be run into one cable, and placed on our new electric line poles, so there will be but one pole-line on Main Street.

—The man of New York State took out all the black lines in the woman suffrage map where New York is indicated last Tuesday of the polls. Hereafter this grand Old Empire State will appear as white as the driven snow, notwithstanding the fact that Tammany "come back" in the great metropolis.

—Robert Garwood, of Canisteo, who was on the ship Verdi when she was torpedoed recently, has joined the Royal Aviation Squadron and will go to Texas.

—Whether you spend all of a dollar or only a part of it for the next purchase you make may depend upon how closely you read...

—The Farmers Lights will meet with Mrs. Charles Lash, Monday evening, Nov. 12th.

—Sheep growing is again receiving the attention of many Allegany County farmers.

—Jesse Hills, formerly of this place, has enlisted in the aviation corps, and expects to enter training soon.

—Baptist Church Bazaar and Supper at Harmony Hall, Tuesday, Nov. 20th. Remember the date and help out the ladies of the church.

—Alvador Bracy, of Bolivar, died at the Willard State Hospital, Oct. 21st. Deceased was 85 years of age and had been a resident of Bolivar many years.

—Wellsville has its new bridge completed over Dyke Creek, doing away with the bad detour there. It's something of a pity that Andover must suffer the inconvenience of trailing between houses and zigzagging around gardens month after month while waiting for the bridge over the stream at this place.

—The greatest factor in promoting the landslide in favor of woman suffrage was the generous newspaper advertising done by the state association the past month. The leaders placed their issue before the public in the most business like manner. Page advertisements in nearly every city and country paper of the state faced the readers. It cost them money, but it brought results.

TAX ON TOLL MESSAGES.
Beginning November 1st, 1917, a tax of five cents is to be paid on every toll message, amounting to 15 cents and over.

W. C. T. U.
The Womans Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. A. C. Frisbey, Friday afternoon, Nov. 16th. Miss Emma Ross, of Whitesville, county president, will be present and give a report of the state convention.

Directors, Mrs. Frisbey, Mrs. Clarke.

D. A. R. HOLD ELECTION
The October meeting of Catherine Schuyler Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held in Whitesville, at the home of Mrs. William L. Norton, on Friday, October, the 25th.

The officers were then elected for the coming year as follows: Regent, Mrs. J. F. Rice; first vice regent, Mrs. Flora H. Pendleton; second vice regent, Mrs. W. J. Hoyt; secretary, Mrs. B. F. Drake; treasurer, Mrs. Elmer Spicer; registrar, Mrs. Isabelle E. Dudley; chaplain, Miss H. Annis Shafter; historian, Mrs. Frank Van Campen; assistant historian, Mrs. C. D. Reynolds; Librarian, Mrs. W. J. Penny.

JACOB HANN
Jacob Hann died Friday evening, November 2nd, at his home in Elm Valley, aged 77 years, following an illness of several weeks duration. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and three sons, namely, Mrs. Elva Burdick and Mrs. Lovina Osborne, Elm Valley; Mrs. Lizzie Yaeger, of South Carolina; Mrs. Pattie Wood, Andover; Eugene Hann, Oklahoma; William and Jacob Hann, Jr., of Whitesville. Deceased had been a life long resident of Elm Valley.

Mrs. Edw. Hyland accompanied her daughter, Miss Veronica, to Buffalo Sunday, returning Thursday.

Prof. Morell and wife and son, of Canisteo, Mrs. Alvuro Baker, of Canisteo, and Mrs. Sarah Thomas, of Hornell, were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. N. P. Brainard.

Mrs. M. S. Connors and daughter returned to their home in Columbus, Ohio, Saturday morning, after passing a few days guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. McDonough.

Attys. Dawson Dickson and E. A. Mapes, of Angelica, motored to Andover Sunday evening, where Mr. Dickson addressed an audience at the Auditorium, on no license issues.

Whether you spend all of a dollar or only a part of it for the next purchase you make may depend upon how closely you read...

—The body of John Wilcox was brought to Andover Saturday night from the Soldiers Home, at Bath, of which he had been an inmate for about a year, and where his death occurred after a short illness.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

JOHN WILCOX

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Proper, of Avon; Mrs. Gertrude Copeland, of York, Pa., and Mrs. Bertha Carr, of Moscow, who together with a brother were present at the burial services which were held at Hillside Cemetery, Sunday afternoon, members of Edward Seaman Post and Relief Corps accompanying the funeral party.

Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War and had been blind for more than twenty years, having lost his sight by an accident which occurred during the shooting of a cannon at the time of a presidential election. Although walking in darkness "Comrade Wilcox" traveled our streets with a dexterity that was wonderful, greeting his acquaintances with their names ready upon his tongue, seldom making a mistake in identity, so acute was his faculty for recognizing voices. Following the death of his wife he decided to enter the Soldiers Home at Bath returning to the home town for an occasional visit.

Prepare for Winter

We have the goods and will sell them just as low as it is possible. This week among the new things are New Scarf Sets, Sweaters, Bath Robes, Girls' Waists and Woolen Dresses.

Butter and Eggs Taken in Exchange for Goods

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE
MRS. S. J. FOWLER

The AUDITORIUM

THE FAMOUS JACK LYNN STOCK COMPANY

Three Days, Starting Thursday, Nov. 8

THE PLAYS

THURSDAY NIGHT
"Bought and Paid For"

FRIDAY NIGHT
"The World and a Woman"

SATURDAY MATINEE
"St. Elmo"

SATURDAY NIGHT
"The Spendthrift"

PICTURE WEDNESDAY
VIVIAN MARTIN
In "The Spirit of Romance"

These Cold Nights

we can furnish you with DELICIOUS HOT CHOCOLATE
Clam, Beef, Chicken and Tomato Bouillon
ICE CREAM AND SODAS
All the Year Round

Sugar Bowl
"The Crystal Palace of Sweets"

We Are Not Jugglers

Our goods are not deceptive in quality. The grocer who sells unreliable foods just for the sake of making a few cents more is not a safe man to trade with. Unreliable things cannot come into this store.

We know enough about these things to know when they are pure and when they are not. It isn't wholly a question of price with us. We get the best that money will buy and then sell it with just a fair percentage of profit added.

L. P. CRANDALL
Phone No. 6130

Try the News Printing House for All Your Commercial Printing. Try it now.

National Corn Flakes
10c

Washington Crisps
10c

Pancake Flour
15c per Sack

Karo Syrup
Fresh Eggs Wanted
50c per doz.

E. TRAINOR

F. C. MARTIN
CHIROPRACTIC

Visits Andover Mondays and Fridays from 9:00 to 12:00 a. m. Leave orders at News Office and I will call at your home

Andover Laundry

Will do a limited number of family washings hereafter in the Monday morning washing at 5c per pound--no ironing.

The Andover Laundry
FRANK GRAY, Prop.

BOWLING

As the cold weather is approaching we naturally turn our attention to indoor sports. With new balls and pins; with newly leveled, planed and polished alley, conditions are first-class. Prizes will be given for good bowling during winter. Tables also put in good shape, and will appreciate a call from you.

H. E. MINER & SON