Among Our Churches

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST

Rev. V. L. Eggleston, Stated Supply.

Morning worship 10:30, "Christianity and the 20th Century." Last sermon in series. A large attendance desired.

Bible School at 11:30. Mid-week service Friday, 7:30, leader, Mrs. Edson Langworthy.

The churches will return to federated meeting, beginning with Sunday night at the Baptist Church, preacher announced later.

The ministers of the different churches propose to make the federated meetings more efficient, constructive, practical and helpful to the community by preaching a series of sermons on live topics and introducing new features. We ask the co-operation of the church people in helping to sustain these federated meetings.

The Bible School District Convention will be held in the Baptist Church the 22nd inst. Program announced later.

BAPTIST

Evening service at 7:30. Rev. Fenton Weller, Federated meetings will begin in this church tonight. All are asked to co-operate with the ministers in these federated efforts for the good of the churches, the community and the town. Special subjects will be discussed, new features introduced and everything will be done for the religious, economic and social uplift of the community possible. We solicit your co-operation.

Mid-week service Thursday at 7:30 in charge of the Barceas. Remember the Ladies Aid Bazaar and supper at Harmony Hall, the 20th.

Bible School District Convention will be held in this church, Nov. 22nd. Program announced later.

The Womans Missionary Circle will meet with Mrs. Bundy Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The Home Mission "Conquest Program" will be presented by Mrs. Burrows. This is an intensely interesting subject and there should be a large attendance. Come and bring someone not in the habit of attending our meetings.

PRESBYTERIAN

Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.

Sunday, Nov. 11, at 10:30

The meeting will begin very promptly with sermon constructed to fortify in spirit and give comfort.

Sunday School 11:45

A word is spoken in generous praise of the union of the Sunday Schools last Sunday in the M. E. Church. Mrs. Thorne is to be commended for the success of the meeting. Mr. Rosa gave an excellent talk.

Let our young folks and older ones make our Sunday School gathering a profitable and pleasant hour.

The Men of the Church

Are requested to be present at the Round Table Class at 11:45.

The Annual Church Meeting

Monday evening, Nov. 12. This meeting is for every member of the congregation young and old. A luncheon has been arranged with music and other social features. Come early and enjoy a delightful fellowship.

Federation for Service

The four congregations will unite their numbers for the evening meetings through the winter for more efficient service to the community. Every meeting will be a carefully arranged special meeting with a sermon upon some special line. The first meeting will be held in the Baptist Church next Sunday evening, at 7:30, with the visiting minister the preacher. Let the people of the town respond to our efforts for more efficient service.
