L. N. Corwin is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home on Second Street.

That salt scare didn't work. It appears everybody can have all they may desire.

After Dec. 1st milk will be 9c a quart at the Andover Condensory. W. F. SNYDER, Manager.

We are informed that the home talent play "Me an' Otis" was produced very successfully at Scio recently.

The annual Presbyterian dinner will be held Wednesday, Dec. 5th at the church parlors, from 5:30 'till all are served, 35 cents.

The street-car fares of the Hornell Traction Company have been increased by an order from the Public Service Commission so permitting.

Go to the patriotic rally at the Auditorium, Sunday evening, and hear what the Y. M. C. A. are doing for the soldier boys.

It is said that Loren McCosline, of West Almond, who was called in the second contingent to war service, has deserted from Camp Dix.

The patriarchal degree was conferred Monday evening at Union Encampment, I. O. O. F., of this village. Six of the Wellsville members were in attendance.

Leo Ryan, a popular Wellsville boy, has passed the civil service examination and secured a lucrative position in the war department at Washington. His many Wellsville friends are all pleased.—Democrat.

William Hunter, of Bath, thinking he was purchasing a twenty-acre farm, at a tax sale, bid in one of Corning's principal cemeteries. It was a huge mistake. It is said the assessors, thru an error, made the blunder.

The N. Y. & Pa. has embargoed all freight and will run the last train over the road to-day. The deal to purchase the road by the patrons to keep it running for the good of the people living along the line has seemingly failed because the property owners did not co-operate sufficiently.

At the regular communion of Anna W. McArthur Chapter O. E. S. held last Monday night, a variety shower was given Miss Avis Mead. The gifts were all very useful and among them a beautiful cut glass set. The committee in charge served a luncheon in two courses at the close.

Starting from the first to the last of December the under-... will start a milk route in the village of Andover. We have been working for three years to create a milk plant that is sanitary and convenient and will give you the best of service. The public is invited to inspect our plant.

ROGERS BROTHERS.

Arthur Hartwell, of Alfred, died suddenly Nov. 19th. Mr. Hartwell had made several purchases in one of the stores, came and placed the articles in his cart and had just gathered up the things to start his horse for home when he was near to church and fell.

After many hindrances Highway Superintendent Howland has completed the abutments for the new bridge on South Main Street, and has a temporary wooden structure over the stream. One very praiseworthy fact in connection with this work is the cost was much less than the lowest bidder on the work estimated. The new abutments cost just about an even $1,000.00. The lowest bid the Town Board had on the work was $2,800.00.

Wishing to send a package to your soldier boy in France weighing over seven pounds you must address it, "Name of Soldier," Company and Regiment to which he belongs, care of Commanding General, Port of Embarkation, Pier No. 1, Hoboken, N. J. All parcels post for foreign delivery must be encased in wood boxes, with hinged or screw tops. No perishable food products, other than those enclosed in cans or glass jars may be received.

PASSES EXAMINATION FOR STATE FIELD INSPECTOR

O. B. Trowbridge, Vice-Principal of Pulaski School, Qualifies for Vocational Work.

Pulaski, Nov. 12.—Oliver Bert Trowbridge, vice-principal of the Pulaski High School, and also at the head of the agricultural department of that institution since its establishment several years ago, is among the Oswego County men who passed the recent state competitive civil service examination for the position of field inspector under the Military Training Commission in its bureau of vocational training. The annual salary is $1,800.

Mr. Trowbridge took the written examinations at Oswego and the oral examinations at Syracuse. He is among the conscripts who have been accepted by the local draft board for military duty, but has not yet been called. Should he receive an appointment as field inspector before being called to the colors it is quite probable that he might be exempted from the latter. In addition to his school work Professor Trowbridge is in charge of the military training of students, assisted by Dwight C. Plummer, who was at the Peekskill camp for boys last summer and is acting as captain.

TRAINOR

Francis M. Bassett was born in Independence, N. Y., Nov. 28th, 1835 and passed away at his home in this village, Friday night Nov. 23rd, from a complication of troubles. Several years ago he had a stroke of paralysis from which he never recovered. September 1862 he married Miss Marcella Crandall and to them were born eight children, four of whom are living, Mrs. Geo. Bloss, Mrs. Park Rogers, and Mrs. Wau Bines all of Andover, and one son, Louis S. Bassett, of Independence, also one sister, Mrs. Betsy Kingsbury, Rushford, N. Y.

In early life Mr. Bassett united with the Seventh-day Church at Independence and was a faithful, consistent member of that church up to the time of his departure. The greater part of his life was spent on the farm at Independence until a few years ago he retired and moved to Andover. He served his country in the Civil War for three years and was a member of Seaman Post G. A. R.

He leaves to mourn his loss three daughters and one son, several grandchildren and many relatives, neighbors and friends. Quiet and unassuming he lived the "simple life" but was always ready and willing to do his part. The funeral was held at the home on Pleasant Ave., Monday, at 11 a. m.; interment at Independence, Rev. V. L. Eggleston officiating.
