

SOUTH

Dec. 19.—Mrs. Ed. McAndrew returned from a trip to Michigan. His sister accompanied him home.

Mrs. Margaret Garvin has been spending the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. McAndrew, in Andover.

Mrs. M. T. Garvin and her family were guests at the home of A. Dean Monday.

Mrs. Herman Dean returned from her home on Vorbees Hill, Friday, leaving her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Holmes, and family in Andover visitors Saturday night.

Louis Dean spent Saturday in Wellsville.

Our people were deeply grieved in hearing of the death of Mrs. Anna Harrington at her home in Andover, Monday evening. She was well known on our hill, where before her marriage she had spent one year caring for her uncle, the late Patrick Riley, and his home. All were her friends, won by her cheery sympathetic ways, ever ready with a helping hand to neighbor or friend. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to her beloved children, now indeed orphans, and her mother and sister. Our new mail carrier, Robert

Use wood wherever possible to save coal.

Trees are a crop which can be kept growing year after year; coal when once used is gone forever.

To help save wool for soldiers' uniforms every effort should be made this year to make new clothes from old.

Now is a good time to plan for bees and to make arrangements to have colonies ready for work next summer.

Health is a national asset. Guard it as a patriotic duty because more is expected of each person in war times. The best ways to good health are plain nourishing food and plenty of fresh air.

Plan next year's garden now. Battles are fought out first on paper. Your share of the food campaign deserves as careful preparation.

A good windbreak of evergreen trees on the side of the barn toward the prevailing cold winter winds helps to save the feed bill. The stock will not need so much heat-producing feeds to keep them warm.

Tenants who pay promptly, and who take almost as good care of your property as tho it were their own, are to be found. It sounds like fiction—but it's "classified advertising fact."

BY A VOLUNTEER AT CAMP MOORELL

Why didn't I wait to be drafted, And led to the train by a band, And put in my claim for exemption—

Oh, why did I hold pu my hand!

Why didn't I wait for the banquet?

Why didn't I wait to be cheered?

For the drafted men get the credit

While I merely volunteered.

Nobody gave me a banquet; Nobody said a kind word, The puff of the engine, the grind of the wheel

Was all the good bye that I heard.

Then to the training camp hustled To be trained for the next half year,

And in the shuffle forgotten, I was merely a volunteer.

And perhaps some day in the future,

When my little boy sits on my knee

And asks what I did in the great war,

And his eyes look up at me,

I will have to blush as I answer To the eyes that so trustingly peer,

And tell him I missed being honored—

I was merely a volunteer.

The average person knows and notices good advertising—and assumes that the merchant who advertises well does all else well.

THE CORRECT TREATMENT FOR COLDS

Colds are contracted when strength is lowered and inflammation easily develops bronchitis or lung troubles, grippe and pneumonia frequently follow and any cold should have immediate treatment with which first builds up the forces by carrying rich nourishment to the blood streams and creates real body warmth. Its cod liver oil is the favorite of physicians for correcting bronchial disorders and chest troubles.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

The National Strength-Builder

The imported Norwegian cod liver oil always used in Scott's Emulsion is pure refined in our own American laboratories which guarantees it free from impurities.

Dress Silks

Now Proportionately Cheaper Than Wool Dress Goods

The enviable position Silk fabrics hold today is due to the great rise in wool values, caused largely by government buying orders and the great adaptability of silk fabrics to all conditions of service. Today your silk gown need be no more expensive than your wool, and you cannot help but acknowledge its far superior appearance as a dress material.

Realising, as far back as last Spring, that present conditions were coming, we began preparing against the tremendously larger demand for silk materials this Winter and the still greater that will exist in the Spring.

TAFFETAS

We stocked heavily on these as a material ultra popular for street wear. Thus the values we can give you are exceedingly attractive and the prices even more so.

No advance here.

CREPE DE CHINES

This Silk is in great demand also, and will be strongly featured for Spring. With a full line of colors we can serve you better as to assortment of colors and quality of material.
