Start the New Year With a Christmas Holiday Fund

EVERYBODY WANTS MONEY at Christmas time, but not everybody has as much to spend as they would like. Those who started a Christmas Holiday Fund a year ago and kept it up had plenty of money this Christmas. Those who didn't wish they had.

THE BEST TIME to begin saving is right now. Deposit what is left from your Christmas buying in this bank and keep adding to it each week until next Christmas. It is good advice, the advice that guides you along the road to wealth and happiness.

An exchange says: "The ice-man has his crop harvested, the plumbers are rich enough, and we have had enough winter to last all next summer." Allegany County has the reputation for having but three seasons instead of four, i.e., July, August, and Winter, but July and August were omitted last summer. So here's hoping!

A prominent editor of the country is out with a long editorial purporting to be an analysis of the female nature. The editor is either a fraud or the most foolish man alive. We contend that the female nature can't be analyzed. But if it can, and this editor has succeeded, then he will be a haunted man the balance of his days for telling on the women.

Chas. Dodge, of Elm Valley, had two head of cattle killed by the cars recently.

Director McAdoo, or, who ever is responsible for all of the late passenger trains being unusually late, has put a crime into the New's system of obtaining personal mention for our columns. It has been our custom to have a reporter at nearly all the trains coming to Andover from Monday to Thursday night. But if we undertook so to do now we would have to maintain a special reporter for the work day and night, as no one knows when a train will come along. This week train No. 8, due at about 9 p. m., came creeping into the station the next morning at about 7. Andover people will have to help us out by telephoning in their personal items until things become more reliable than the railroad passenger trains are now.

108th BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Samantha Nellis, of Naples, a Real Daughter of the Revolution, Was Born in 1810.

Pen Yan, Jan. 5.—To-day Mrs. Samantha S. Nellis, of Naples, near here, is celebrating her 108th birthday at the home of her granddaughter with whom she lives. Mrs. Nellis is the daughter of Elijah Stanton, a Revolutionary War soldier, who was a body guard of General George Washington, is one of the few real D. A. R.'s in America today and as a result her picture has been placed in the D. A. R. Hall in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Nellis was born in Hancock County, Jan. 5, 1810, and in 1830 married John D. Nellis and then moved to this section, living in the western part of Yates County many years, until her husband died. Since then she has made her home in Naples. Altho she is said to be the oldest woman in the state, she can read and write without the aid of glasses; enjoys conversing about topics of the day, especially the war, and when the weather permits she enjoys taking short walks.

A. O. Tucker, Samuel Waffle and Jesse Baker visited Mrs. Nellis last summer, at her home in Naples, as told in the News at that time.

doesn't mean as much as the quality. You'd better pay a fair price for a high quality than a little price for a low quality. There are all sorts of ways of cheapening groceries without showing where it is done. We are not saying these things to frighten anybody. We merely repeat what may be seen in the newspapers every day. If you want pure, high grade groceries of tested quality we have them.
