

SOUTH HILLS

16.—Hats off to the man, who rings in the weather and are the chief of conversation in this part of the woods.

drafted men have now attended their questionnaires. Mary Horan and Miss Nellie spent Thursday and Friday in East Valley, guests of Mr. Mrs. L. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Deane were over for the week-end at her home here, and returned Monday on account of severe weather of Sunday.

Miss Mary O'Leary, of Andover, is this week the guest of her uncle, Wm. Dean and family.

Ed. McAndrew was doing business in Wellsville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hulbert were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lymemore.

Eugene Eggert, of Hornell, spent Sunday and Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert.

Miss Nellie Horan was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lou Snyder, of East Valley, a few days last week.

Our residents will now get busy with that income tax gentleman in Wellsville, to determine whether or not they have any thing coming that looks like income.

Michael Dougherty and Miss Ella Lynch of our hill were united in marriage Tuesday at the Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover, by Rev. J. J. Sheehy. The happy couple will visit New York and other eastern points on

Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl, of Elm Valley, spent Wednesday with the Horan family.

Louis Dean was a Wellsville visitor Wednesday.

Late again, put it on the mail service, as Mr. Church was not able to cover his whole route every day last week. He is a welcome visitor as "mail" is the only stimulus we have, in a winter like this.

Jan. 29.—No break in the winter as yet. Our annual thaw must have been side-tracked.

"Long threatening comes at last," as with those wedding bells.

Michael Dougherty and Miss Ella Lynch of our hill were united in marriage Tuesday at the Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover, by Rev. J. J. Sheehy. The happy couple will visit New York and other eastern points on a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Andover, where the groom has purchased the Rogers property on Barney St. We are sorry to lose them as residents, but they carry with them the best wishes of our people for their future happiness and prosperity. Congratulations are in order.

This may prove contagious on the hill, where there are others, whom "Mike" has set a good example.

Another pleasing event was the news received by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dean on Saturday, of the arrival in Philadelphia, of their first grand-child, a son, born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Dean, Jr., of that city, the 18th. The grandparents are receiving the congratulations of their many friends which also extend to the happy parents in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dean were Vorhees Hill visitors Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Holmes and little daughters were guests of Andover relatives Saturday night.

Miss Margaret Dougherty, of Andover, is spending the week with her father at the Dougherty homestead.

EAST VALLEY

Jan. 22, 1918.—Thanks to the weather man for the warmer weather which is appreciated by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell returned from their wedding trip last week Thursday, and it did not take long for the news to spread around and about a dozen neighbor boys and "men" proceeded to serenade them about 12 p. m. Of course that wasn't enough so on Friday night the ladies took a hand in the fun too. All the neighbors around went up in sleigh loads and went in for a good time, and surely had it. We found both Mr. and Mrs. Bell to be royal entertainers, and we are glad to welcome another lively one into our midst. Dancing, card playing and a general good time was had until into the morning hours. Congratulations with all its trimmings we extend to both bride and groom.

Mrs. Will Green is improved so as to be able to attend the funeral of Will Dodge to-day.

Several in the valley are ailing with colds.

Mrs. Homer Stearns does not improve as rapidly as hoped for.

Not much news in the valley, only lots of snow and cold weather.

Did any of your potatoes freeze?

If you are offering a buying opportunity at your store—just now that is really notable—make your advertising of it really notable, too.

THRIFT STAMPS IN EVERY DAY TERMS.

By JAMES F. HERRICK, of the Vigilantes.

One Thrift Stamp Each Week Equals—
One-half pound of butter saved.
Nearly a pound of lard saved for the Allies.

Two and a half pounds of sugar more for France.
One twenty-five cent movie less each week.

Walking to the office five times, thus avoiding the crowded trolleys, and getting beneficial exercise.

One good cigar less. Spend half on much tobacco money and put the balance into Thrift Stamps. They will be good for something five years hence. Smoke 'em!

One box less of face powder will give the complexion a rest, and pay for powder that is good for something.

Part of a Christmas present you give because—well, why?
Two copies of Stumpy Stories, or Society Snapshots.

You know your little wasteful extravagances. Now is a good time to shake them off and not be accused of stinginess. Uncle Sam needs your money and needs it badly. You may need it just as badly five years from now. Salt it away by lending it to Uncle Sam to help the boys in France and those that are going there!

Advertising so good as to appeal to usually indifferent folks will make any store take a sudden "jump" into prosperity.

LOOKING AHEAD

It is not permitted us to see very clearly into the future, but, if we remember or recall what has gone before and what has come to pass, we can surely profit much by preparing for what is surely to come.

We have been used to going easily. Taking but little thought of the morrow, but the rapidly following events of this past year should make us at last stop and think.

We are not thinking of the person who hoarded the necessities, but of the person who put in his coal last summer, the woman who canned some, and the others who took thought of tomorrow in many ways, when we ask you: What Have You Done About Your Future Needs of Clothes—Especially Wools? Have you any idea how the world's great supply has been strained to the utmost; how, that while the use of wool has multiplied, the supply has not?

How is this effecting values and prices?

How is this condition going to effect your pocketbook?

We can help you very largely to keep this same pocketbook from becoming lean if you take our advice. Don't hoard, but make reasonable purchases of your WOOLEN WANTS for NEXT FALL, NOW.

ITEM I.

Wool Serges

Always the big staples in Dress Goods, have risen over 100 per cent since 1914. It's as near a surety as can possibly be, that they will be worth at least an additional 50 per cent more by Fall of 1918, and the supply will fall far short of the demand. We haven't hoarded, but we have made large purchases the past year for this very condition that is coming. We offer you this opportunity of conserving against your future needs. Take advantage is our advice now.

- Serges worth $1.00, still 68 cents.
- Serges worth $1.25, still 98 cents.
- Serges worth $1.75, still $1.35.
- Serges worth $2.25, still $1.75.
- Serges worth $2.50, still $2.00.
- Serges worth $3.00, still $2.25.
- Serges worth $3.25, still $2.50.

ITEM II.

Poplins and Gabardines

We bought heavily in these lines in Spring of 1917 and the values are very attractive. Indeed, to the wise purchaser who has ahead. These are all wide widths and the prices are lower than the narrower ones being shown today.

Wool Poplin, 42 inches wide, that is worth $2.00 today, now $1.50.
Gabardine, 52 inches wide, worth today $3.00 yard, still $2.50.
Wool, 56 inches wide, whose present value is $3.95, still $2.35.
These are equally good propositions.

ITEM VI.

Crepe de Chene

We are in an especially strong position to serve you and save you money. Crepes if constructed well, and ours are, will launder a large stock and more on the way. No advance in price here yet owing to placing orders six months in advance. A very large business will be done in these for Spring. Get the grade you want and pay will find the price you want, too.

ITEM III.

Silk and Wool Poplins

The yarn that goes into this material, manufacturers tell us, is not only greatly advanced in price, but it getting very scarce. Our present large stock is pleasant to consider with the range of colors and present values. Poplin will hold an enviable place in Spring and Fall merchandising. A good one is durable, rich in appearance and practical. Ours are the good ones, tested in 15 years acquaintance. Prices have not changed. We offer you this opportunity.

ITEM IV.

Fancy Wool Skirtings

Plaids, Check Stripes, Self Colored designs in all combinations of colors—a very large collection for this city. There will be a big demand for the odd skirt, perhaps you will want one. Here the price saving is the largest yet, because of our past larger stock and those recently received. Fine grades still, all the way from $1.00 yard to $2.50 yard.

ITEM V.

Taffetas

Silk is a natural Spring fabric and Taffeta will, we believe, play a very prominent part in Spring business. Practical, dressy, a typical silk for street wear, it will look very large this season among silk materials. We had an offer made us last Fall to take immediate delivery at a saving of 15 per cent from existing prices. This proves a great boom to us and a great saving for you for this season. Taffetas are leaders for Spring. Get yours now.
