Jan. 30.—Cheer up it may be warmer the 4th of July.

Mrs. Wm. Pardon and Miss Ruth Taylor called on Mrs. Homr Stearns last week Tuesday.

Mrs. Dell Clair visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Mead home of A. H. Ackers.

INDEPENDENCE BRANCHRED CROSS

of their disabilities. Let all with a problem attend at Rochester or later at Buffalo, whether it be a labor, livestock capital or other important subject. We must make it possible for the producers to do their best this year. We need the food.

The commission desires to know the condition of farmers;

What can be done to supplement labor;

How to stimulate co-operation

among farmers;

What lines of farming may be best suited;

Doubtless every thinking man has an idea which may be of value. Out of it all can be evolved a policy.

It is time for the farmers to outline what they need and ask the Legislature to enable them to work the more efficiently that we may quickly win the war.

Hearings will be held later at Hornell, Binghamton, Syracuse.

FARMERS' HEARINGSWant to Know Conditions of Farmers of State

The joint committee of the Senate and assembly to investigate the agricultural situation in the state will sit in Rochester at the Court House, at eleven a. m., Friday, February 1st, and Saturday, Feb. 2nd. All farmers and those interested in agriculture are invited.

Henry Horan is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Lou Snyder and family.

Mrs. Homer Stearns is still quite sick.

Here's hoping the ground-hog doesn't see his shadow Saturday, Feb. 2nd.

If you lost it, the finder wants to find you.

When one more housewife becomes a regular, systematic reader of the ads, one more home is added to the number of Wisely Armed Households in this city.

Sign Boards on the Up-Grade

By Hamilton B. Williams

HOW THE DEVIL TEMPTED ED DAN CRAWFORD

Leaves a verdant path, a gentle highway of life running along the knoll of the savage.

Read the Book, Friends,

And remember that when God sends His friends to be couriers of glad tidings He means that we go under the skin of the other fellow.

Faith, Hope, Love — There Three

They are the signboards of life, and these are the marks God graves upon His couriers how else should people know they were on God's business?

Many come saying Lord, Lord, Etc., but people know God's friends by the signs.

Faith's a pioneer always looking forward toward the unseen and trying to make substance out of dream, and does!

Hope's a rifer up with dawn and finding signs of sunrise everywhere and always does not woman on the square with God and fellowmen. Wonders why people strike and run and tear and tear. Wonders why the gates are shut, the windows bolted in so many God-made temples; and why the householder who should be furnishing his house for the Friend and friends is shy to the Self-Devil.

Love's a comfortable fellow with whom it is pleasant to walk the weary mile, and plot the upward road, and plan the straightening out of trouble.

Faith believes in to-morrow.

Hope does not believe in darkness.

Love knows that God is very close... and very good.

Let us not lose Our Smile Comrade.
