

laurent one night I discovered he was from the East and considered himself a New York City man and I could hardly name a city or town that he was not familiar with. In the talk I mentioned a country seat town, Little Valley, south of Buffalo.

"Little Valley? Hoff, I have been in jail there," and he told a story of some minor trouble years under the Leever food act, other ago, and when he had to serve a 30-day sentence. That he told the truth I am convinced; for he said that the name of the town was the same as his of the vast majority of consumers own, Hughes; and W. B. Hughes and a full cooperation of the sheriff of Cattaraugus County about 20 years ago.

I became acquainted with a missionary in a town thru the fact that some one had tipped him off that I was a newspaper man. Then he camped on my trail, stalked me, waylaid me. I could not go for a walk that he did not join me and he told me so much and so many times about the natives, and the great need of the missionaries that I could almost sing it.

And one day I cut loose on him by asking why his denunciation did not give the natives a rest and devote a little time to the saving of the white women of Alaska, and when he expressed ignorance of my drift, I told him of the drunks, the hell holes, almost every town in Alaska, joints run by women, so vicious, so abandoned that by comparison they would make the old "Barry Coast" of San Francisco appear like a Sunday School.

The indignant uplift disciple protested there could not be the conditions I had described in Alaska, or anywhere else, and he said one should not make such statements or connect them with neglected missionary work unless fully prepared to substantiate them.

I told him to get his hat and I would show him, right in his own town, show him joints of drunkenness, robbery and debauchery that would shame a Market Street drive in San Francisco.

He didn't care to be shown; He was a missionary, not a politician, he said, and it was not in his province to stop such conditions; they existed.

The "red light" places in Alaskan towns are the limit of pollution. They are hell holes of drunkenness and prostitution. Drunken men are robbed of their money night after night. They are all or nearly all, conducted by women—prostitutes run out of the States and who have found Alaska a rich field.

These places are operated outside the towns, usually hidden in the brush and so far as I could determine if they kept their government licenses in good standing they were not molested. The towns where marshals and jails were located were not so bad, out on the whole Alaska is a splendid field for slum missionaries, not with the Eskimos and Indians but with the white women and negroes.

However, Alaska goes dry January 1, and this will have a great influence in reducing these conditions for booze and debauchery seldom travel alone.

"Don't talk war in this place. If you want to fight, join the Army and get paid for it," was a big display card on the wall of a saloon restaurant. The bartender told me that the minute a man started war talk he was started for the door. There is almost every nationality in the world in these river towns and the most of them are roughnecks. Once let a man start war and he is liable to start something he can't stop. So we just don't let him start.

And from my observation I concluded he was a sagacious bartender. A river town is ever looking for an argument when he gets down a few drinks of the "fighting" booze, and war furnishes one too soon.

But over in Alaska I noted that Uncle Sam had his ears open. At St. Michael a machinist made some derisive remark about this country's part in the war and the next day he was summoned to appear before the post-commander and explain. However I noted general loyalty in nearly all Americans.

The next letter will close the Alaska series and it will cover the decidedly interesting 14 days ocean voyage from St. Michael to Seattle. The little stories of dangers, jokes, fogs, seasickness, other cereals containing wheat, whole and the many happenings would be used. The only exception to this is such small amounts of flour, as may be needed for thickening soups or gravies or a binder in yeast bread or other cereal breads.

Seventh—On wheatless days, and at wheatless meals, the food administration urges that bread baked in the home be other than wheat bread. Where bread is bought either for use in public places or in the home, Victory bread should be used, if no wheat substitutes can be found.

The Federal food administration in each state will recommend the meal to be observed as wheat meal in his state. If no meal is designated, the United States food administration prefers that the evening meal be wheatless.

Eighth—It is further desired, in order that meat and pork products be conserved that one meatless day (Tuesday) in every week and one meatless meal in every day, be observed, and in addition, two porkless days (Tuesday and Saturday), in every week, be strictly kept. By meatless is meant without hog, cattle or sheep products. On other days use mutton and lamb in preference to beef or pork. By porkless is meant without pork, bacon, ham, lard or pork products, fresh or preserved. Use fish, poultry and eggs.

Ninth—For local situations where exceptions are necessary application should be made to the state food administrators.

—W. S. S.—

That make up an interesting chapter of a cosmopolitan history for two weeks.

YOUR PART IN FOOD SAVING

(Continued from First Page)

Part of the Levers will be enforced under the Leever food act, other ago, and when he had to serve a 30-day sentence. That he told the truth I am convinced; for he said that the name of the town was the same as his of the vast majority of consumers own, Hughes; and W. B. Hughes and a full cooperation of the sheriff of Cattaraugus County about 20 years ago.

I became acquainted with a missionary in a town thru the fact that some one had tipped him off that I was a newspaper man. Then he camped on my trail, stalked me, waylaid me. I could not go for a walk that he did not join me and he told me so much and so many times about the natives, and the great need of the missionaries that I could almost sing it.

And one day I cut loose on him by asking why his denunciation did not give the natives a rest and devote a little time to the saving of the white women of Alaska, and when he expressed ignorance of my drift, I told him of the drunks, the hell holes, almost every town in Alaska, joints run by women, so vicious, so abandoned that by comparison they would make the old "Barry Coast" of San Francisco appear like a Sunday School.

The indignant uplift disciple protested there could not be the conditions I had described in Alaska, or anywhere else, and he said one should not make such statements or connect them with neglected missionary work unless fully prepared to substantiate them.

I told him to get his hat and I would show him, right in his own town, show him joints of drunkenness, robbery and debauchery that would shame a Market Street drive in San Francisco.

He didn't care to be shown; He was a missionary, not a politician, he said, and it was not in his province to stop such conditions; they existed.

The "red light" places in Alaskan towns are the limit of pollution. They are hell holes of drunkenness and prostitution. Drunken men are robbed of their money night after night. They are all or nearly all, conducted by women—prostitutes run out of the States and who have found Alaska a rich field.

These places are operated outside the towns, usually hidden in the brush and so far as I could determine if they kept their government licenses in good standing they were not molested. The towns where marshals and jails were located were not so bad, out on the whole Alaska is a splendid field for slum missionaries, not with the Eskimos and Indians but with the white women and negroes.

However, Alaska goes dry January 1, and this will have a great influence in reducing these conditions for booze and debauchery seldom travel alone.

"Don't talk war in this place. If you want to fight, join the Army and get paid for it," was a big display card on the wall of a saloon restaurant. The bartender told me that the minute a man started war talk he was started for the door. There is almost every nationality in the world in these river towns and the most of them are roughnecks. Once let a man start war and he is liable to start something he can't stop. So we just don't let him start.

And from my observation I concluded he was a sagacious bartender. A river town is ever looking for an argument when he gets down a few drinks of the "fighting" booze, and war furnishes one too soon.

But over in Alaska I noted that Uncle Sam had his ears open. At St. Michael a machinist made some derisive remark about this country's part in the war and the next day he was summoned to appear before the post-commander and explain. However I noted general loyalty in nearly all Americans.

The next letter will close the Alaska series and it will cover the decidedly interesting 14 days ocean voyage from St. Michael to Seattle. The little stories of dangers, jokes, fogs, seasickness, other cereals containing wheat, whole and the many happenings would be used. The only excep-

HOW ARE YOU?

Phelan Fyne

IN THE

New York Herald

DAILY

Yes, Thank You!

IT IS AWFULLY FUNNY

Order your copy today—either from your newsdealer or from the Circulation Department.

THE NEW YORK HERALD

SAYS WAR STAMPS WILL TEACH PUBLIC THRIFT

Purchasers Are Benefited, Says E. J. Outerbridge of Chamber of Commerce.

Engine H. Outerbridge, president of the New York City Chamber of Commerce, made an urgent appeal to the public to invest in War Savings Stamps and to so investing acquire the habit of thrift. He stated that the Government is devoting a great deal of its time the last few months in raising the government in the sale of Liberty bonds and more recently in the selling campaign being carried on by the War Savings Committee.

Aside from the practical help the people are rendering their country by investing in the savings, Mr. Outerbridge believes that the greatest good to be accomplished by the War Savings Stamps will be derived by the public itself.

"To sacrifice some of one's natural desires and lay aside a reasonable proportion of the product of one's labors is a sound business proposition for any one," said Mr. Outerbridge. "The habit of thrift has never been any too highly developed in this country, and because it hasn't the nation remained for years in the debtor class."

—W. S. S.—

BAD WATER BRINGS ON KIDNEY TROUBLES

Are your kidneys giving out? Back feels lame and achy? Suffer kidney irregularities? Passage painful or too frequent?

Hard water is hard on the kidneys. Alkaline water is especially bad. Help to overcome the effects of bad water.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can depend on Doan's. Andover-people recommend them. Read this Andover woman's experience:

Mrs. J. A. Swink, Second St., says: "I think the bad drinking water I used when living on a farm affected my kidneys and caused lame back. At times, I felt worn out and lacked energy. The chief trouble, however, was with my kidneys acting irregularly and that caused me considerable annoyance. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from the Brundage Drug Co. and they cured me of the attack and I felt like a different woman. Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Swink had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y."

buy W. S. S. and bye-bye Bill.

McAdoo Circularizes Country in Appeal for War Savings Campaign.

In an effort to further stimulate the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps and to impress upon all people the necessity for supporting the government in the war savings campaign, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is sending broadcast through the nation an official folder addressed "To the Head of the House." In this folder he calls upon his fellow citizens to help the country and explains how they can do so by purchasing stamps.

The folder also sets forth the fact that upon request a letter carrier will bring stamps in any quantity required to the subscriber's door. The folder is so made that a section can be cut off, and this form an official postcard to be filled out by the householder and dropped in the nearest mail box. It is this card which will bring the postman to the door with Thrift and War Savings Stamps.

Someone has said: "A store's advertising space in a newspaper, compared with the space used by other stores, should define its comparative importance in the community. Does your store's advertising space do that?"

Read our classified ads.

A Soldier's Strength

Every enlisted man would stand up stronger during his first year's service if he could have the benefits of

SCOTT'S EMULSION

because it fortifies the lungs and throat, creates strength to avoid gripe and pneumonia and makes rich blood to avoid rheumatic tendencies.

Send a bottle of SCOTT'S to a relative or friend in the service.

One of the leading publishers of Washington says of SCOTT'S EMULSION: "This little book is so well edited, helpful and interesting, that it should have a large circulation." And to back up his judgment the addressed publisher sent along an annual subscription in his own name.

Perhaps, you too, who have become familiar with Mr. Jones' correspondence would like to see his monthly publication. If so, why not write now for a sample copy. Address: J. E. Jones, Real Estate Trust Building, Washington, D. C.

Read our classified ads.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

YOU'LL enjoy this real Burley cigarette. It's full of flavor—just as good as a pipe.

IT'S TOASTED

The Burley tobacco is toasted; makes the taste delicious. You know how toasting improves the flavor of bread. And it's the same with tobacco exactly.

10¢

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

"GOOD-BYE, DEAR"

"Don't worry about the coal. The Perfection Oil Heater keeps me warm wherever I am. I can carry it to any room, so that I'm always comfortable."

With coal at present prices the Perfection Oil Heater is a greater saving than ever.

A gallon of kerosene gives warm, cheering heat for eight hours.

The new No. 500 Perfection Heater Wick comes trimmed and burned off, all ready for use. Makes re-wicking easy.

Use So-Co-Ky Kerosene for best results.

STANDARD OIL CO. OF NEW YORK

New York Buffalo Principal Office Albany Boston

WE BURN SO-CO-KY KEROSENE OIL

STANDARD OIL CO. N. Y.

Andover Lodge, No. 358. F. & A. M. First and Third Mouday of each month. W. S. BRUNDAGE, W. M. H. D. SMITH, Secretary. Members always welcome.

WALTER J. GRENOLDS, M. D. will answer all country calls. (8-10 A. M. Office Hours) (1-3 P. M. (7-9 P. M. Office Hours) and Center Andover, N. Y.

W. O'DONNELL, M. D. Physician and Surgeon. Office and Residence, Church St. ANDOVER, N. Y.

LOUGHEEN, M. D. GENERAL PRACTITIONER. Office and Residence, Center St. Andover, N. Y.

DR. DANIEL LEWIS ALFRED, NEW YORK. Hours 2-4 and by Appointment.

BERTHA HARMAN CRONK CHIROPRACTOR. McLaughlin Building Andover, N. Y.

E. C. DAVIE Veterinary Surgeon. AT LEVER'S LIVERY. Monday of Each Week.

TERRY STEPHENS. FIRE INSURANCE LIFE. Office at residence, 61 Main St. Andover, N. Y.

RAYTON L. EARLEY, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Money Loaned on Good Real Estate Security. ALL LEGAL BUSINESS RECEIVED. PROMPT ATTENTION. Andover, N. Y.

THE SANFORD HOUSE. 230 Main St., Hornell, N. Y. Furnished rooms by day or week. New furnished. Modern conveniences. Reservation by mail. Mrs. Sanford-Burdick, Prop.

WHEN IN HORNELL STOP AT Hotel York. H. A. York & Son, Prop. Near Erie Station. Everything First Class.

SEE RICHMOND AND YOU'LL SEE. Andover, Wednesday, Feb. 13. Wellsville, Every Day Except Wednesdays.

400 TYPEWRITERS! REMINGTON'S $12. SMITH-PREMIER'S $15. For Your Children Learn Typewriting at Home. Home Instruction Book FREE. A. H. BURTON, TYPEWRITER, BUFFALO, N. Y.

C. E. BROWN Undertaker and Embalmer. Finest Equipment. Skilled Service. Calls attended to day or night. Main Street, Andover, N. Y.

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS. PENNER'S DESIGNS. A SPECIALTY.

WETTLIN, The Florist. Hornell, N. Y. Both Phones.

News Bu