GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Thirty degrees below zero Tuesday and no coal or gas. All local weather records broken. Many potatoes frozen in cellars. Patrons of hotels and restaurants are now on an allowance of two ounces of bread. A good way to relieve the shortage in food rations would be to produce more food. A good way to produce more food would be to remove all restrictions on the importation of foreign labor. A million men from Europe or Asia would relieve the situation if Congress would say the word. The Germans are getting a good smell of Yankee gun-powder. Hundenberg says he will be in Paris within two months. He does not say whether he will go as a prisoner of war or not. New York is freezing with ice-bound coal at sight. Camstedt is compelled by the cold to close her schools temporarily. A good opportunity for serving the country and at the same time of serving ourselves is offered in purchasing war saving stamps. They cost $5.13 each and draw 4 per cent interest compounded every three months, and if the holder wishes, will be paid principal and interest at anytime. Think of it; money in war stock drawing compound interest. Every body can help here. The lecture of Rev. Burnside Steen, of the Park M. E. Church of Hornell, given under the auspices of the M. E. Church of this place Friday evening, drew a big house and was highly commended. Abia Thompson, of Coby Creek, was in town Wednesday. Mrs. Clarence Witter, of West Greenwood, was a village visitor Wednesday. Fay Taylor, of Milwaukee, was in our city Tuesday. Michael Kieff and son Lagouri Kieff of West Union, were in this city Wednesday. William Hess, of East Greenwood, was a business caller in town Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stephens, Thursday. Mrs. John Case, son Leo Case, and daughter, Mrs. Alta Loop, were in our city Thursday. Geo. Case, of Jasper, was among the callers in town Wednesday. Bernard Barkenrider, of Highsp, was in Greenwood Thursday on business. Homer Donaldson was a city visitor Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Montese Berger were city visitors Saturday. Joseph Miligan is going to visit Bradford, Canada. Jesse Northrup, of West Hill, was a city visitor Saturday. Homer Streeter was a village caller Saturday. Misses Alta McCaragher and Agnes Fisher were among the Greenwood callers Tuesday. James McCormick, of West Greenwood, was in town Wednesday. Menzo Knight, of Bonnets, was greeting Greenwood friends Saturday.

command of a dictator. How does the idea take with the Germans here. M. McCaffrey, of West Hill, called on friends in town Saturday. Miss Florence Conkey, who has been recovering from an operation, is not improving as rapidly as has been hoped for by her friends. Floyd Sherman, of Jasper, was in Greenwood Wednesday on business. The fine sleighing is being improved by Greenwood shippers of produce by railroad from Canisatego. Potatoes were quoted as high as $3.03 per 100 lbs. in New York Tuesday. That would be over $1.00 per bushel. Buyers are paying $1.00 for the tubers, which would seem to afford a good profit. Does the lack of competition we had when the N. Y. & P. was in operation account for the difference between $1.00 tubers and $1.80 in New York. W. S. S.
