

The time is right to think about your lighter weight outer wear... The Cravenette Over and Raincoat is a combination for the sunny day as well as the rainy day... Are here at $3, $5 and $6.

Schau & Roosa Co. 711 Main St. Hornell, N. Y.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Winter lingoes. The big battle in Europe seems near. The high winds Monday night unroofed many buildings in this locality...

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Slocum were in Hornell Monday to bid good bye to the soldiers departing for Camp Upton. Charles Davenport, who has been working in the West, returned home this week.

Larry Hyland and James McGill, of Rexville, were business visitors in our city Tuesday. Miss Constance Rouse was in Hornell Monday.

German agents. They disbanded the Russian armies in the face of an invading force and dismantled their fortifications...

Citizens who observe wheatless and meatless days are doing but little in comparison with what the boys in the trenches are doing to save the country.

Not many investors will buy unadvertised property in this section this week.

ALL SOLDERS GARRY RED CROSS KIT

The Red Cross issues the following: Every American woman, who has helped to pack a Red Cross comfort kit for our boys...

CASSTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years. Always bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer.

Practical George Howard of the Young Men's company and a well-known actor in the government...

Frank S. Mohr, assistant manager of the Eastern Block company of Rochester, has been appointed...

The Rochester Spectator is offered for sale because its editor comes in the present draft.

David C. Vann, the new manager of the Monroe county farm bureau, has taken up his new work.

A board took up a case about an overcoat and a party which followed the dog saw the back.

The Post Van Democrat, the oldest paper in Yates county, is celebrating the 100th year of its existence.

The Livingston county thrashers held their annual meeting at Mt. Morris and decided to raise their rates.

The Rochester Union and Advertiser has been sold to Elmira parties who own the Elmira Star-Gazette.

Niagara Falls policemen made 206 arrests during January. Of these 129 were laborers. Only one was a backman.

The Commercial Iron works plant in Penn Yan, one of the oldest industries in Yates county, was destroyed by fire.

Putting school children in direct touch with real life is a plan to be furthered by the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

Indications are that Genesee valley farmers will raise an immense corn crop this year. Seed prices in the county have soared.

William M. Cox, a past chief patriarch of the New York state encampment of Odd Fellows, is dead at his home in Rensselaer.

Preparations are being made at Hornell for a battle between the Dairyman's league and the Newark Milk & Cream company.

T. C. Regan, connected with the Livingston Democrat at Genesee for many years, has disposed of his interests in that newspaper.

The plant of the Strong Vaseer company at Gerry, Chautauque county, burned to the ground. Loss, $50,000. Fifty men are thrown out of work.

Rochester's three afternoon newspapers, the Post-Express, Union and Advertiser and Evening Times, announced an increase in price to two cents.

Since the government took over the railroads over 1,200 violations of the child shipping law have been reported in the Michigan Central yards in Buffalo.

Soon after the legislature adjourns, Governor Whitman will go to Jamestown to address the Norden club, a Practical George Howard of the Young Men's company and a well-known actor in the government...

Frank S. Mohr, assistant manager of the Eastern Block company of Rochester, has been appointed...

The Rochester Spectator is offered for sale because its editor comes in the present draft.

David C. Vann, the new manager of the Monroe county farm bureau, has taken up his new work.

A board took up a case about an overcoat and a party which followed the dog saw the back.

The Post Van Democrat, the oldest paper in Yates county, is celebrating the 100th year of its existence.

The Livingston county thrashers held their annual meeting at Mt. Morris and decided to raise their rates.

The Rochester Union and Advertiser has been sold to Elmira parties who own the Elmira Star-Gazette.

Niagara Falls policemen made 206 arrests during January. Of these 129 were laborers. Only one was a backman.

The Commercial Iron works plant in Penn Yan, one of the oldest industries in Yates county, was destroyed by fire.

Putting school children in direct touch with real life is a plan to be furthered by the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

Indications are that Genesee valley farmers will raise an immense corn crop this year. Seed prices in the county have soared.

William M. Cox, a past chief patriarch of the New York state encampment of Odd Fellows, is dead at his home in Rensselaer.

Preparations are being made at Hornell for a battle between the Dairyman's league and the Newark Milk & Cream company.

T. C. Regan, connected with the Livingston Democrat at Genesee for many years, has disposed of his interests in that newspaper.

The plant of the Strong Vaseer company at Gerry, Chautauque county, burned to the ground. Loss, $50,000. Fifty men are thrown out of work.

Rochester's three afternoon newspapers, the Post-Express, Union and Advertiser and Evening Times, announced an increase in price to two cents.

Since the government took over the railroads over 1,200 violations of the child shipping law have been reported in the Michigan Central yards in Buffalo.

Soon after the legislature adjourns, Governor Whitman will go to Jamestown to address the Norden club, a Practical George Howard of the Young Men's company and a well-known actor in the government...

Frank S. Mohr, assistant manager of the Eastern Block company of Rochester, has been appointed...

The Rochester Spectator is offered for sale because its editor comes in the present draft.

David C. Vann, the new manager of the Monroe county farm bureau, has taken up his new work.

A board took up a case about an overcoat and a party which followed the dog saw the back.

The Post Van Democrat, the oldest paper in Yates county, is celebrating the 100th year of its existence.

The Livingston county thrashers held their annual meeting at Mt. Morris and decided to raise their rates.

The Rochester Union and Advertiser has been sold to Elmira parties who own the Elmira Star-Gazette.

Niagara Falls policemen made 206 arrests during January. Of these 129 were laborers. Only one was a backman.

The Commercial Iron works plant in Penn Yan, one of the oldest industries in Yates county, was destroyed by fire.

Putting school children in direct touch with real life is a plan to be furthered by the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

Indications are that Genesee valley farmers will raise an immense corn crop this year. Seed prices in the county have soared.

William M. Cox, a past chief patriarch of the New York state encampment of Odd Fellows, is dead at his home in Rensselaer.

Preparations are being made at Hornell for a battle between the Dairyman's league and the Newark Milk & Cream company.

T. C. Regan, connected with the Livingston Democrat at Genesee for many years, has disposed of his interests in that newspaper.

The plant of the Strong Vaseer company at Gerry, Chautauque county, burned to the ground. Loss, $50,000. Fifty men are thrown out of work.

Rochester's three afternoon newspapers, the Post-Express, Union and Advertiser and Evening Times, announced an increase in price to two cents.

Since the government took over the railroads over 1,200 violations of the child shipping law have been reported in the Michigan Central yards in Buffalo.

Soon after the legislature adjourns, Governor Whitman will go to Jamestown to address the Norden club, a Practical George Howard of the Young Men's company and a well-known actor in the government...

Frank S. Mohr, assistant manager of the Eastern Block company of Rochester, has been appointed...

The Rochester Spectator is offered for sale because its editor comes in the present draft.

David C. Vann, the new manager of the Monroe county farm bureau, has taken up his new work.

A board took up a case about an overcoat and a party which followed the dog saw the back.

The Post Van Democrat, the oldest paper in Yates county, is celebrating the 100th year of its existence.

The Livingston county thrashers held their annual meeting at Mt. Morris and decided to raise their rates.

The Rochester Union and Advertiser has been sold to Elmira parties who own the Elmira Star-Gazette.

Niagara Falls policemen made 206 arrests during January. Of these 129 were laborers. Only one was a backman.

The Commercial Iron works plant in Penn Yan, one of the oldest industries in Yates county, was destroyed by fire.

Putting school children in direct touch with real life is a plan to be furthered by the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences.

Indications are that Genesee valley farmers will raise an immense corn crop this year. Seed prices in the county have soared.

William M. Cox, a past chief patriarch of the New York state encampment of Odd Fellows, is dead at his home in Rensselaer.

Preparations are being made at Hornell for a battle between the Dairyman's league and the Newark Milk & Cream company.

T. C. Regan, connected with the Livingston Democrat at Genesee for many years, has disposed of his interests in that newspaper.

The plant of the Strong Vaseer company at Gerry, Chautauque county, burned to the ground. Loss, $50,000. Fifty men are thrown out of work.

Rochester's three afternoon newspapers, the Post-Express, Union and Advertiser and Evening Times, announced an increase in price to two cents.

Since the government took over the railroads over 1,200 violations of the child shipping law have been reported in the Michigan Central yards in Buffalo.

Soon after the legislature adjourns, Governor Whitman will go to Jamestown to address the Norden club, a Major F. S. Hutchinson, chief of the draft bureau of the adjutant general's office, has issued a warning to members of local boards in reference to classifying men skilled to do farm work.

Application for permission to construct a gas plant in Mayville, Chautauque county, and in the town of Chautauque, has been filed with the Second district public service commission by the South-Shore Natural Gas company, whose capital stock is owned by the Frost Gas company of Buffalo.

Major F. S. Hutchinson, chief of the draft bureau of the adjutant general's office, has issued a warning to members of local boards in reference to classifying men skilled to do farm work.

Application for permission to construct a gas plant in Mayville, Chautauque county, and in the town of Chautauque, has been filed with the Second district public service commission by the South-Shore Natural Gas company, whose capital stock is owned by the Frost Gas company of Buffalo.

Major F. S. Hutchinson, chief of the draft bureau of the adjutant general's office, has issued a warning to members of local boards in reference to classifying men skilled to do farm work.

Application for permission to construct a gas plant in Mayville, Chautauque county, and in the town of Chautauque, has been filed with the Second district public service commission by the South-Shore Natural Gas company, whose capital stock is owned by the Frost Gas company of Buffalo.

Major F. S. Hutchinson, chief of the draft bureau of the adjutant general's office, has issued a warning to members of local boards in reference to classifying men skilled to do farm work.

Application for permission to construct a gas plant in Mayville, Chautauque county, and in the town of Chautauque, has been filed with the Second district public service commission by the South-Shore Natural Gas company, whose capital stock is owned by the Frost Gas company of Buffalo.

Major F. S. Hutchinson, chief of the draft bureau of the adjutant general's office, has issued a warning to members of local boards in reference to classifying men skilled to do farm work.

Application for permission to construct a gas plant in Mayville, Chautauque county, and in the town of Chautauque, has been filed with the Second district public service commission by the South-Shore Natural Gas company, whose capital stock is owned by the Frost Gas company of Buffalo.

SAVE-A-LITTLE SERMONS By Wallace Irwin. Illustrations by Rea Irwin. TWO KINDS OF JOHN. John Simp was quite a wasteful lad. John Wise was of a sterner plan. United States Government War Savings Stamps On Sale Everywhere.

COUNTY COURT COUNTY OF ALLEGANY

Levi C. Van Fleet, Debra Van Fleet, John Milliken and Carrie Milliken, being the only heirs at law and next of kin, legal creditors and persons interested in the estates of Walter Milliken and deceased, and Eliza J. Milliken his wife, also deceased, names 'John Milliken' each being fictitious, the true names being unknown.

To The Above Named Defendants You Are Hereby Summoned to answer the complaint in this action and to serve a copy of your answer on the Plaintiff's Attorney within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Trial desired in the County of Allegany.

Dated this 31st day of January, 1918.

CRAYTON L. BARLEY, Plaintiff's Attorney, Office and P. O. Address, Andover, N. Y.

To John Milliken and Carrie Milliken, being the only heirs at law and next of kin, legal creditors and persons interested in the estates of Walter Milliken, deceased, and Eliza J. Milliken his wife, also deceased, names 'John Milliken' and 'Carrie Milliken' each being fictitious, the true names being unknown.

The foregoing summons is served upon you by publication, pursuant to an order of Hon. Elza Reynolds, Allegany County Judge, dated the 8th day of February, 1918, and filed with the complaint in the office of the Clerk of the County of Allegany, at Belmont, N. Y.

CRAYTON L. BARLEY, Plaintiff's Attorney, Office and P. O. Address, Andover, N. Y.

NOTICE TO PRESENT CLAIMS. NOTICE is hereby given to all persons having claims against Jacob Hand, late of the County of Allegany, deceased, pursuant to an order of Hon. Elza Reynolds, Surrogate of the County of Allegany, to present the same with vouchers therefor to the subscriber at the office of Jesse L. Grantier, Wellsville, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of May, 1918.

Dated, November 10, 1917. WILSON RA HAND, JACOB HAND JR., Administrators.

JESSE L. GRANTIER, Attorney for Administrators, Wellsville, New York.

HAVE YOU SEEN ACHIEVEMENT? One of the leading publishers of Washington says of ACHIEVEMENTS: 'This little publication is so well edited, helpful and interesting that it should have a large circulation.'

And to back up his judgment the aforementioned publisher sent along an annual subscription in his own name. Perhaps, you too, who have become familiar with Mr. Jones' correspondence, would like to see his monthly publication.

Why not write now for a sample copy? Address: J. E. Jones, Real Estate Trust Building, Washington, D. C.

Read our classified ads.

Many Other McDougall's are being placed right in your own home, to fully regular service.

Get a McDougall's. Here is an unusual opportunity will be placed right in your own home, to fully regular service.

And when satisfied paying for it on your own terms.

Many Other McDougall's are being placed right in your own home, to fully regular service.

And when satisfied paying for it on your own terms.

Many Other McDougall's are being placed right in your own home, to fully regular service.

And when satisfied paying for it on your own terms.

Many Other McDougall's are being placed right in your own home, to fully regular service.