Wednesday evening the Grange members to their three newly subscribed samples, and after a bountiful luncheon, each couple was presented with a very beautiful and useful present.
 Thursday evening the Sunday School class, of which Mrs. Harvey has been a faithful member with about thirty other friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Harvey at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Strait. The evening was passed in social intercourse, music, etc. Fine refreshments were served after which U. A. Robinson spoke very highly of the work Mrs. Harvey had done in the Sunday School and presented the worthy couple with a beautiful rocking chair. They go to their new home followed by the best wishes of a host of friends for a long life of happiness and prosperity.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harvey returned to their home at Almond Friday morning after spending a few days in Andover.

CONCERNING MAPLE SYRUP
 The Food Administration are recommending that every sugar bush in the state be worked to its capacity this season. A report that the price is fixed or limited is not warranted. The Administration hope that the farmers will produce a liberal amount of syrup for market in addition to caring for their home use.
 Yours very truly,
 GEO. C. ROSA, Deputy.
