W. F. O'CONNELL, P. M.
—WSS—
—Spring, at last!

—Friday, April 28th, is Bird Day in New York State.

—Thomas Farley will move from Elm Street into Jerome Huntington's house on First Street.

—Will the Huns change the name of Petrograd again? We would suggest "St. Wilhelmstadt."

—Bert Cummings and John Hoge have moved their families from farms east of this village to Canisteo.

—The Five Hundred Club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Margaret Bottinger, Tuesday evening.

—Regular meeting of Andover Bunkah Lodge, 303, Wednesday evening, March 20th, Program in charge of Miss Frances Beebe and Lara Sloyum.

—Marion Hazard, of Little Genesee, was killed last week Monday by a tree which he was helping cut falling upon him. He was 30 years old and a much respected resident.

—The New York Herald, the paper which enjoys an enviable reputation for accurate pre-election guessing, predicts that Hornell and Elmira will both vote Dry on the 16th of next month.

—Two sets of brothers—the Hinesh Brothers and Benson Brothers—went in the selective draft from Little Genesee.

—Isaac Tuller has moved from this village to the Geo. Beebe farm in East Valley, which he will work the coming season.

—Harold Green of Little Genesee, who went with the other drafted boys to Camp Upton, recently from this village, has returned home having been pronounced physically unfit for service.

—H. C. Wells, a retired business man of Ithaca, has improved his leisure time by knitting for the Red Cross. Since his September he has completed eleven pairs of socks of the most excellent workmanship.

—The Ladies Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist Church held their business meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon, March 15th. At 8:30 the same was held at the church.

—Mrs. W. J. Grenolds has purchased a new Ford runabout for use in his practice, and has sold his old one to Charles Kaple of Davis Hill.

—Following is the ticket nominated at a union caucus for the Village of Alfred: For President, P. E. Titsworth; Trustees, F. A. Shaw, F. H. Ellis; Treasurer and Collector, E. P. Sanders.

—Wm. Lloyd of Little Valley, has been engaged as inspector in the Cutlery Works and will move his family to this village.

—Peter Becker is moving from the Emery tenant house on Chestnut Street into the Jett Blodgett house on High Street.

—The next meeting of those studying lessons in citizenship will be held at the school house, Andover, Monday, March 18, 1918, at 4 o'clock. Any woman wishing to attend these meetings will be welcome.

—Income tax agents have resumed their offices to assist those who wish in the figuring out of the excess profit taxes. The income tax man for Allegany County may be found at the Wellsville postoffice.

—Dr. Lucy Babcock, whose death occurred at Alfred last Saturday night, at the age of 82 years, was for many years a practicing physician. The body was taken to Westley, R. I., her former home for interment.

—Fire recently destroyed a large barn on the Stanley C. Swift farm in Birdsall. Twenty-four cows, three horses, hay and farming tools were consumed. All were absent from the barn when the fire broke out. The cause is a mystery.

—Mr. and Mrs. Newman Woods of Rushford, came over losing their lives by the action of coal gas one night last week. Too great care cannot be exercised. I have proper ventilation in all rooms and especially sleeping apartments.

—Mrs. Mary V. and Ann Adams of Rushford, first time in the church, Wednesday, March 14th. At 8:30 the same was held at the church.

—Mrs. W. J. Grenolds has purchased a new Ford runabout for use in his practice, and has sold his old one to Charles Kaple of Davis Hill.

—The heavy storm Wednesday night caused the water in the streams of this vicinity to rise bank high and in many places overflow. Had the rain continued a few hours longer much damage would have resulted.

—Will March go out like a lion?

—Mrs. Eliza M. Potter died at her home in Cuba, March 4th, of heart trouble, aged 62 years.

—On or before the 20th pay gas bills and save discount. EMPIRE GAS & FUEL CO. Ltd.

She is a patient at the Howard Kelly private hospital, and will undergo an operation.

—A card to the editor from Harold Kemp says: "This is some place down here. I was in the infantry for eight days. I was transferred to the Field Artillery last Friday. I like it better in the F. A. All the Andover fellows are in the artillery now. H. Kemp, Bat. E. 305th P. A., Camp Upton, I. I."

—In a letter from the Food Administration to T. Joseph Lynch, in reply to his letter published in last week's News, and signed by 150 potato raisers, they offer no encouragement of any kind from the abominable method of potato sorting sprung on our farmers. In fact the letter tries to justify the present system.

—The following item has been going the round of the Allegany press: "There is being formed throughout the county what is known as the 'Buy the Limit' Club and already we have two members one at Cuba and one at Belmont." Andover has had for months a party who bought the limit of War Savings Stamps.

—Nothing said about it tho. S. G. Crandall, one of Andover's prosperous farmers, has been arrested recently with a large quantity of the right eye candy in the right eye.
