FIREMEN'S CONVENTION
 July 3 and 4 the Dates, Angelica the Place—Great Time being Arranged
 The Executive Committee of the Allegany County Firemen's Association met at Angelica, last Saturday night to make arrangements for the 1918 Firemen's convention. The dates chosen are July 3 and 4, and the place is Angelica, which will give the crowds an opportunity to once more visit the oldest town in the county.
 It was decided to hold the parade on the afternoon of the Ever Glorious Fourth. Just what will be the various attractions is not yet decided, but an effort will be made to induce the New York Guards from Wellsville, Friendship, Hornell, Angelica, Corning, Pom Van and Bath to attend and besides joining in the parade, unite in a grand Good day in which all shall take a part. This would make a record-breaking convention and one that would draw the crowds from all quarters, and it is none too early to get under motion.

You are cordially invited to be present at our introductory Exhibition Of SPRINGTIME FASHIONS

Thursday :: Friday :: Saturday
 With Easter only a few days away, it behooves one to take advantage of this first Spring showing. Every day now something new arrives in Millinery and Ready-to-Wear.
 Simple lines, charmingly modeled, strike the dominant note in this season's attire.
 While there is conservation of materials, the designing is so superbly done that this is not apparent.

These exhibition days are for you and we welcome the opportunity to show the many, many new arrivals.

SPRING CLOTHING
 Step in today. Slip on a new Spring Suit. Walk out satisfied-satisfied as to style, as to fit, as to comfort, as to price and satisfied that our assortment of these better clothes is the largest hereabouts.
 Many men are doing this to their entire satisfaction.
