The grandfather of seventy as well as the little man of three years, each find a welcome best told by the regularity of their visits.

We attribute this wide popularity to the care used in the selection of merchandise in our different departments.

Mothers have found that clothing purchased here for husband as the little man gives a full measure of service.

This is one of the reasons why all ages meet at this store for Men, Young Men and Little Fellows.

Prices as reasonable as good qualities.
