Wear Clothes That Do You Credit

Strangers must rate you by your dress and general appearance -- they cannot know who you are or what your ability is. So be particular to wear the clothes that do you the most credit. If they cost a little more, what of it? They will more than repay the difference in wear and style because there is nothing better in fabric, fit and workmanship. What you gain through appearing able and alert in the eyes of others is extra value that the price does not cover. Do your clothes do you credit? If not, we have the kind that will. THANKSGIVING LINENS

Here Are Values And Assortment Few Houses Can Offer

When you say Linen these days there's an added charm to it. The scarcity now and the increasing scarcity that we know will follow as the weeks pass, should make this announcement of Linen Week and the rare values offered of great interest. Last year a this time our Linen Week was such a great success and so far exceeded even our optimistic hopes, that this year's Linen Sale should even be greater. All Linen Damask and Napkins are exceedingly scarce, the first so much so that the line we show is wonderful.

Union Linen Damask are nearly as scarce, but we have an excellent assortment.

Mercerized Damasks we show in a very large variety.
