

THOSE RESPONDING TO THE ROLL CALL

Following are Those From Andover Who Answered "Here" at the Annual Red Cross Roll Call. Others Will Follow.

The annual Roll Call for the Red Cross was held last week and a fine response by Andover people was the result. We publish herewith the first installment of the names. The others will follow in a later issue. Meanwhile there is opportunity for all who have not connected themselves with the Red Cross to do so.

- O. E. Vars, Floyd Scott, Miss Radeh Scott, D. M. Green, Mrs. D. M. Green, W. F. Snyder, Mrs. Chas. Driscoll, Mrs. Henry Gill, Sr.; Mable Gill, Jesse Snyder, Mrs. Edith Snyder, Frank Gray.
- Mrs. Raymond Williams, Mrs. Robert Brundage, James D. Chesman, Grace Fowler, Floyd Scott, Harold Dawson, Mrs. Frank Bloss, James Karenes, Mrs. Florence Bullard, Mrs. Archie Bloss, Mrs. Harry Joyce, W. F. O'Connell, Mrs. W. F. O'Connell.
- Mrs. Milke Calkoun, J. Harvey Backus, Mrs. Guy S. Wood, Esther Northrup, Miss Mary Raufenbarth, Miss Regina Raufenbarth, Mrs. Arthur Brillon, John Trainor, Miss Esther Volk, John E. Cannon, Mrs. Catherine McGinty, Mrs. George Hunt, Miss Lottie Williams, Ligouri Lynch.
- M. Hoyer, B. B. Hann, Floyd C. Vars, Mrs. Floyd C. Vars, Lawrence Cocoman, Guy S. Wood, M. G. Caruso, Mrs. M. A. Fowler, Don Clark, Mrs. Don Clark, A. R. Baker, E. D. Baker, M. J. Gray, Mrs. M. J. Gray, Mrs. Warren A. Perry, Mrs. N. B. Proper, Mrs. E. H. Howe, E. F. Stearns, Mrs. E. F. Stearns.
- Mrs. Alice Rogers, Mrs. Chas. Richardson, J. M. Hartum, Mrs. J. M. Hartum, Miss Reta Stearns, David Slocum, Mrs. Eugenia Swink, Mrs. Myrtle Trowbridge, Mrs. Flora Mosher, S. H. Watson, Fred Potter, Mrs. Fred Potter, C. H. Watson, Sr.; Mrs. Wm. Dean, Miss Nora McAndrew, A. M. Mingus, Frank Holmes.
- James M. Dean, Michael Casey, Edward Lynch, Wm. Lynch, Augustus Lynch, P. A. Dean, Mrs. P. A. Dean, John P. Dean, Robert Dean, Pat. Dougherty, Wm. Dean, Mrs. Henry Eggert, Henry Eggert, Elmer Coats, Mr. Cornelius, Miss Mary Dean, John Dean, Louis Dean, Edw. Livermore, Mrs. Edw. Livermore, Lealand Livermore.
- Mrs. Will Green, Mrs. Dell Clair, Mrs. Wm. Pardop, Mrs. A. M. Wood, A. M. Wood, Mrs. Lou Snyder, John Clair, John Noonan, James Lynch, Miss Celia D. Riley, Mrs. Frank Emery, Frank Emery, Lee Pomeroy, Mrs. Lee Pomeroy, Mrs. R. B. Burrows, Mrs. Julia Joyce.
- Mrs. Margaret Garvin, Mrs. Eliza Sherwood, Chas. Lynch, Mrs. Chas. Lynch, L. H. Thompson, Mrs. Della Wyckoff, Mrs. Billings Hall, Miss Nellie Horan, Henry Horan, Leo Horan, John Joyce, Mrs. Mita Pingrey, Mike Padden, Alice McGluckin, Miss Lizzie Hyland, Harry Baker.
- Mrs. Henry Baker, Leonard Snyder, Mrs. John Will, John Will, Sr.; John Will, Jr.; Mrs. John Guinn, John Guinn, Francis Guinn, George Guinn, James Dunagan, Mrs. James Dunagan, Herve Thorne, Mrs. Herve Thorne, Raymond Thorne, Mrs. Emma Robins, Mrs. LaRue Crandall, Arthur Jones.
- Mrs. E. A. Mullen, E. A. Mullen, Mrs. Michael Cannon, Mrs. Dell Hawkins, C. E. Brown, Mrs. John Dodge, John Dodge, Mrs. Alois Kellenberger, Miss Julia Lynch, Mrs. Sara Hunt, Miss Helen Folsing, Miss Emma Folsing, John Cook, Mrs. Rodolpho Howland, Rodolpho Howland, Rev. H. B. Williams, Mrs. H. B. Williams, Jennie Crandall.
- Thos. McTighe, Mrs. Emma Harder, Guy Harder, Mrs. Floy Lloyd, Mrs. Laura Bowen, Mrs. Hyland, F. T. Quigg.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Backus on Friday afternoon, January 3.

LETTERS FROM OUR MEN IN SERVICE

Lawrence Teribury Not So Badly Injured - But That He Can Write His Mother an Interesting Letter.

Following is a short letter from Lawrence Teribury, which gave much comfort to his family, being received a day or so after the official government notification that he was severely wounded, Red Cross Hut, Dec. 8th, 1918. Dear Mother and all at home: I am going to write a few lines to let you know I am still alive. I had a little misfortune so I am in the hospital at present. I hope you are all well and getting along all right. I got a bad thumb, so I can't write very good. I got all your letters, but this is the first chance I have had to answer them. I also received the picture of you and dad. Well, the war is over, so I guess the boys will be coming home before long. I know I will. I am sorry that Tom Lynch got killed. It was sure bad luck. You wanted me to write to Mr. Backus. I can't write very handy now on account of my thumb being sore. So you will have to give them my best regards for now and I will try to explain matters when I get back home. I hope Mineard is all right and also Alina. You had better not try to answer this as I may not be here long. I suppose the old town is pretty dull, but it will be alive again when we get home. Take good care of yourself and don't worry about me as I am getting along fine. You want to have lots of pies and fried cakes baked for me when I get here and also some pan-cakes along with them. I will close for this thumb of mine is getting tired. Don't worry about me, as I am perfectly all right. I am going over to the Red Cross hut and mail this before it gets too late in the day. With love and kisses to all, from your son, LAWRENCE TERIBURY.

- Elizabeth Hann, Mrs. E. J. Loughlin, Mrs. Ella Bundy, Dr. E. J. Loughlin, Mrs. Henry Gill, Jr.; Henry Gill, Jr.; C. W. Williams, P. A. Moore, Mrs. S. J. Mourhess, Mrs. D. D. Remington, Mrs. M. J. Atwood, Mrs. Flora Deming, Mrs. Alice Yeisley, Mrs. Adelia Jenkins, Mrs. Mae Greene, Oliver Rosebush, Mrs. B. S. Brundage, B. S. Brundage, Mrs. E. M. Bess, Mrs. Augusta Hucher, Miss Carolyn Hucher.
- Frank Raufenbarth, Mrs. Frank Raufenbarth, Bessie Comd, Addie Taylor, Miss Ruth Taylor, John Mitchell, Mrs. Anna Mitchell, Miss Leah Whitecomb, Clarence Slaight, Mrs. Libbie Bundy, Isabella Cronk, Belle Slaight, Will Childs, Mrs. Clara Childs, Fred Marvin, Mrs. Bernice Nobles, Mrs. Nora Scott, Mrs. Mary Warfield, Mrs. Frances Bloss, Wm. Joyce, Elery Updyke, Mrs. Emma Whitcomb, Zedie Smith, R. J. Cook, Mrs. R. J. Cook, Ames L. Rogers, Mrs. Clara E. Rogers, E. F. Rogers, Mrs. Wade Theetge, Mrs. J. H. Paisant, John H. Paisant, Jett Blodgett.
- Mrs. John Holt, Mrs. Mark Kemp, Paul Blank, Hildred S. Rogers, Frank Graves, Mrs. Elizabeth Howland, Mrs. Julia Flynn, Reed Cooper, Clayton Burger, Robert Mingus, Cecile Hoard, George H. Beebe, Miss Frances B. Beebe, Mrs. Frances Beebe, Ralph Temple, Mrs. Effie Burband, Mrs. Rose Flynn, M. F. Flynn, Thos. Flynn, A. B. Cook, Miss Thos. Flynn, Mrs. P. Hyland, P. Lloyd, Mrs. Laura Bowen, Mrs. Hyland, F. T. Quigg.

A Happy New Year

Is there anyone in this town who does not wish happiness to all other folks? To wish people happiness is good, human. But we must make wishes come true. Happiness is the one thing that never happens. To dance with Happiness one must pay for the piping. To be happy one must be deserving of it. Service is the Sower. The formulas for happiness have struck the right road when Service opens the gate. The best people in all ages followed that road. There are unexplored heavens in the folks we live with, to be discovered by service. Try kindness when all other keys fail. Love never fails. We're here so short a time that to miss the way to the Garden of Joy is tragic. The path is Service. Faith, which is adventure, and Hope, which is optimism, and Love, which is . . . God, are the life-guides. So guided we shall be at home anywhere in the universe.

Let Us Be Glad.

Let us be glad. One is not desolate or walks alone if he has a friend, Who is glad to share the comfort of his hearth at journey's end. And lacking pleasant house, there's house of dream somewhere, Flower-gemmed, tree-nestled, set by singing waters. One may share That house with folk who have the right to enter in; and they Who follow the flame of the torch of love shall find the way. Let us be glad. Hard toil's and trouble's shuttles weave --- it's true --- a golden web. The tide that takes our hopes turns home again at lowest ebb. Behind the door of Silence dangers and pipers await. Dawn's laden hands, light-ringed, are on the latch of darkest gate. Let us be glad. Arouse the laggard soul to rise and climb the hills with Dawn, And leave gray ghosts of ranking blunders far behind; and --- on! Let us be glad. The only gate that is fast-barred is the gate one has not tried; Oh Soul pitch tent upon the highroad where God's couriers ride. Life's always forward. Hear the skirling winds o' the hills, and rise; The Joyous God is partner in every high enterprise. Let us be glad. How much a cheering word may speed the day the weary know; A merry heart's good medicine with which the road to go. And a cup of kindness, friends, love-sweet of the Master's Grail, Gives heart to folk to lift the pack and try anew Life's Trail. Why then be troubled, oh my Soul? cast down? disquiet? Believe in God and Man and Self. Face forward and be glad.

MRS. FANNIE B. DODGE. Mrs. Fannie Burdick Dodge died at her home in Elm Valley, St. N. Y., December 29th, 1918, at 4 p. m. of influenza. The deceased was a life-long resident of Elm Valley and was about 33 years of age. She was a daughter of the late Lester Burdick and Harriet Hand Burdick. Her marriage occurred Dec. 25, 1909, to Charles Dodge, who survives. She also leaves four children: Lester, 8 years of age; Dorothy, 6 years of GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hann Entertain in Honor of Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brown.

A company of friends were entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hann Tuesday evening, in honor of Mrs. Hann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ethelbert Brown. The occasion was a very pleasant one, the parlors and tables being especially attractive with decorations of gold and green. An elaborate luncheon was served the guests. The bride and groom of fifty years, in the best of spirits, received the congratulations and kindly wishes of their friends in a most happy mood.

Fifty years ago, Dec. 31st, 1868, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Updyke of Greenwood, occurred a triple wedding, when the Rev. A. N. Fillmore, pastor of the Methodist Church of this village, performed the ceremony which united in marriage the following young people: Miss Martha Updyke of Greenwood and George Ethelbert Brown of Independence, Miss Sarah Updyke and David Rogers, and Miss Betsy Rogers and Joseph Updyke, all of Greenwood. Of these six young people three have answered the call to the beyond: Mrs. Sarah Rogers, who survives, was among the guests present on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown began house-keeping on a farm in West Union, remaining there for some years. In 1876 he purchased of Justin Robinson & Canfield, the cheese factory in this village. Two years later this property was sold to Clark & Snyder and Mr. Brown purchased of Bundy & O'Connell the grist mill which he has operated since, with the exception of five years which was passed on the farm.

Three children were born of this union—Lottie Brown Hann, Frank and Edward, all now living in Andover.

Numerous and beautiful gifts expressed the appreciation of the event and hearty good wishes of friends to Mr. and Mrs. Brown for continued health and prosperity.

COASTING ACCIDENT.

A serious accident, which occurred on Chestnut street Sunday, resulted in a broken leg for Master Robert, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, and injuries to George Kotsones, a neighbor boy. The lads were trying out a new sled on the steep hill back of the street and dashed across the state road just in time to collide with John Lever's automobile which was passing. The older boy escaped with a badly cut head and minor bruises.

Although an unfortunate affair, no one was in any way to blame. The town lads have coasted on this hill for generations and Mr. Lever had no chance whatever to stop his car in time to avert the accident.

A SAD CHRISTMAS IN HYLAND HOME

Death of a Loving Husband and Father Who Passed Away at Bradford, Pa., Christmas Week Had Relatives in Andover.

The sudden bereavement of a loving husband and father yesterday casts a shadow of sorrow over the Christmas season for the family of James Hyland of No. 70 Bank street, who dropped dead while at work at 11 a. m. yesterday, from heart failure.

Mr. Hyland's unexpected passing came as a severe shock to members of his family, who were totally unprepared for such a contingency. He apparently enjoying good health and never before having complained of heart trouble.

The late Mr. Hyland, who was 60 years of age, was a carpenter by trade and while engaged at his duties at the home of Nathan Nichols, No. 177 South avenue, was suddenly stricken and collapsed, expiring almost immediately. Deceased was a member of St. Bernard's church and of the Holy Name society of that church. He also was a member of the Maccabees and of the Carpenter's Union. He was a man of industrious habits, whose sterling worth and upright character makes regret at his loss the more genuine. Thirty years ago the late Mr. Hyland was united in marriage to Miss Fannie Burke and since coming to this city from Andover, N. Y., about that time, had made his residence here.

Surviving besides his wife are two daughters, Miss Kathleen, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Romaine of Bradford; two sons, Charles and William, and a nephew, Howard Burke, all of Bradford; three brothers, Tim Hyland of Angelica, N. Y., Patrick and Edward of Andover, N. Y., and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Driscoll and Mrs. Edward Padden, also of Andover, N. Y.

Funeral services were held from St. Bernard's Church on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock—Bradford Era.

ALICE LUCILE PERRY.

Alice Lucile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Perry of this village, died Sunday morning, Dec. 29th. The little one would have been 3 years old had she lived until January 17, the date of her birth. Her death followed an attack of influenza.

A prayer service was conducted at the home Tuesday morning and the body taken to Potter Brook, Pa., for interment.

To watch the Want Ads is to "know values" in real estate.

NUTS

California Soft Shell Walnuts, No. 1, crop of 1918. These are fully as good as budded walnuts usually run. Price 30c.

Mixed nuts, all fresh and our own mixture. 35c pound.

Half-bats of good size and quality, this season's crop, 25c pound.

C. W. WILLIAMS
GROCERIES CROCKERY FEED