Governor Smith Urges All In Buy War Savings Stamps.

Governor Smith yesterday issued a proclamation as an official impetus to the furtherance of the 1919 War Savings Stamp campaign, inaugurated on Benjamin Franklin's birthday, Jan. 17. The proclamation is a ringing appeal for patriotic stamp purchase within the borders of New York State and sets forth concisely and convincingly the reasons for States wide supports of the Federal Government's post-bellum necessities. The text of the proclamation reads:

STATE OF NEW YORK-EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

WHEREAS, The obligations of the Federal Government incldental to the great war in Europe have made it expedient to launch a new issue of War Savings Stamps as an aid to the prompt and honorable fulfillment of National promises, and,

WHEREAS, A costly duty still confronts the Government o. bringing back to home and kindred hundreds of thousands of Amer-'ican soldiers now in France as well as caring for the troops the Government may temporarily leave abroad, and

WHEREAB, The expense incidental to the readjustment of the domestic affairs of our Nation will be very great, requiring patient sacrifice on the part of our people;

THEREFORE, I, ALFRED E. SMITH, Governor of the State. of New York, have deemed it wise to appeal to our countrymen. within the boundaries of the State of New York to purchase the War Savings Stamps of this new issue to the consistent limit of their resources. These tokens of National obligation have been designated the Benjamin Franklin Issue, because of the peculiar appropriateness of associating their purchase with the prudent principle of thrift enunciated by that geat American whose 213th birtheay has been recently celebrated.

I enjoin upon all citizens and residents of this Commonwealth to follow the precepts of the great Franklin, the apostle of sensible spending and to usefully and liberally render individual and particular aid at a time when called for by the Nation.
