YOUR DOLLAR TODAY AND TOMORROW

Your dollar today buys about forty cents as much; as in 1896. But there is a bright side to the dollars you SAVE today. The time is certainly coming when the purchasing power of a dollar will be lar greater than it is today.

Every dollar you save now will carry a premium with it in the future. Deposit your dollars in a Savings Account. In the mean time they will i rearn compound interest for you.

A. C. Frisbey, Pres.

Frank S. Clark, Vice Pres. Esther C. Northrup, Asst. Cash., J. M. Brûndage, Cash.

Andover State Bank

Andover Monday afternoon.

· Mrs. Alice Rogers was called to.

Whitesville, Monday, on account o.

(Monday visitors at F. S. Potter's.

illness in the home or her son.

'S. Potter Saturday.

friends in town Thursday.

E. J. Atwood was an Olean visitor Tuesday. Mrs. T. K. Regan, was in Hornell Wednesday. E. J. Atwood was a business visitor in Buffalo Friday. John Lever, was a business caller, in Wellsville, Wednesday. Charles Bossard is visiting niece, Mrs. Emma Robbins. Miss Hazel Perkins, was a week end guest of Alfred friends. Earl O'Connors, of Wellsville, was l a business caller in town Tuesday. ing business in Andover Wednesday.

Mrs. Flije of Antonomy in Andrew Control of Parketter of Par

Mrs. Michael Dougherty, was the weeks.

was a pleasant caller in town Mon-B. Burrows attended the county Miss Sarah Ingrahm of Wellsville. federation of Woman's Clubs at A. W. S. Poter and Carroll Richmond !

yea, N. Y., are visiting her father Wm. Corey, and other Andover rel-. Miss Anita Feeley, of Hornell, was a business caller in town Wednesday nell Wednesday.

her mother Mrs. Ellen Walsh. caller in Isabella Loughhead of Eldred, Pa.

town Wednesday. Jack Allen, representing the Na-Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. Backus. tional Drug Co., was a business call-Detroit, were among those visiting W. N. Rice Saturday and Sunday. Andover Wednesday.

Jamestown, N. Y., were doing busi-Roulette, Pa., were guests at the home of Mrs. B. C. Cole Sunday.

PARKER GARAGE

and have them properly tuned up. We have recently installed a Battery Charging Outfit that will soon get your old battery working like new.

Now is the time to purchase your Automobile Chains before the price advances, which is bound to come.

and Mrs. Fern Smith of Elmira, were !

worth Stores were Burgiarizer . When the following item is read 1 by Andover people, taken from the taken when it becomes known that

The Long Island City poilce are Mrs. Emma Volk, State Inspecter seeking men who Wednesday night for W. R. C. was a guest at the home got away with $578 from the safe of the Corp president, Mrs. D. M. the Liggett drug store at No. 304 T Thursday afternnon and Steinway Avenue and $600 in Liberty bonds from the safe of the Woolworth 5 and 10 Cent Store next door. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Lewis, Mrs. The bonds belonged to employees. James English, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Iron bars had been ripped from rear

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John | Miss Reinhart writes:-The robbers are getting to be a nuisance here A. M. Gilbert of Philadelphia, stop- in New York. The manager of the .of his brother and family, Mr. and bend and $25 in cash. Several hundred dollars which was in the inner Frank O'Leary of Sugar Grove, burglar proof safe was not reached. Ohio, is visting at the home of his The Drug store next door lost all cash

Lewis, all of Harrison Valley were windows of both places."

was done by expert safe crackers. FOR SALE—Six years old horse, Mrs. Ward B. Mead and Fred Os- sister Mrs. O. G. Whitcomb, of Belborne, of Wellsville, were calling on mont, enjoyed a motor trip to Gen-Andover. eva, Ithaca, Newfield and Spencer, N. | | Rev. Chas. Collins and family left | Y., visiting friends and relatives, re-W. R. C. ENTERTAIN INSPECTOR Andover, Thursday for their new turning home Friday. Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Brundage and Mrs. Emma Volk, of Buffalo,

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams returned came to Andover Thursday, and at a law Miss Saunders of Hornell were in Sunday from a weeks motor trip to special meeting called Thursday even-New York. On their return trip ing, for that purpose, inspected the they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. books and work of Edward Seaman Bassett at Albany, over night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harvey and Mrs. Volk expressed herself babe of Almond visited her parents highly pleased with both. Following and last week. Mrs. Harvey remaining the work, pice cream and cake were daughter Clara May of Bolivar were for a few days when she was accom- served, and a social hour enjoyed. panied home by Mrs. Richard Smith. Certainly you will go to the Audi-1-C. A. Robinson taking the party in torium Wednesday evening. President Jas. D. Cheesman and

Manager W. S. Calhoun were busi-1 ness visitors in Belmont Tuesday. lattendance at the funeral of Mrs. S. G. Waffle and John Horton Thomas Courtney last Sunday were and family, motored to Hornell Sun- Adelbert Howland of Elkland, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burdick of Wellsday and took dinner with friends. Leo Snyder was home over the ville, Mrs. Julia Hayes and Mr. San-G. H. Weber, of Hornell, was do- week end, from Elmira, guest of his ter of Hornell, Mr. and Mrs. Vern a business visitor in town Tuesday. home of Mrs. M. A. Fowler and ex- funeral of Mrs. Marie Corwin were, pects to remain with them some Daniel Blackman, Warren, Pa., Mrs. H. M. Eldridge, York, Pa., and Capt. guest or friends in Hornell Tuesday. Miss Esther Northrup was sum- George Blackman, Miss Sarah Black-George DeBarbari, of Wellsville, monded to Corning Sunday morning man, Mrs. W. T. Gridley, Mrs. Horwas a business caller in town Satur-by the death of her sister, Miss Har-ace_ Highee, Mrs. H. M. Browning, Mrs. Loren Dewey, Oak Duke, Mrs. Mrs. Valencia Slocum and Mrs. R. Florence Duke, Thomas Ingrahm and

> WINTER'LL BE DARN MILD 1 Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan of Son-

So and Gives His Reasons "Nuts are thicker'n woodticks in the big woods, but the squirrels are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Richmond storin' way less of 'em than yo Mrs. Eliza Gallagher and daughter his sister and family M- and Man in storm way less of em than you Anna, were pleasant callers in Horjust bet all thé bearskins you fellers Miss Nellie Walsh, who has been ain't goin' to get that the winter'll John Shine of Wellsville is visiting attending the Ithaca Conservatory be a darn mild one,"said hermit Joe at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank of Music, spent Saturday guest of of the Big Kinzua to hunters in that

The old man, who predicts the win-Mr. Marsh, Misses Shepland and "Iter every year, explained further his 1. "I reasons for risking his reputation on 1 a mild winter. The bears this year were Sunday guests at the home oare mostly scrawny and light furred, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moody and Mr. according to Joe, and they are not in and Mrs. C. H. Ackley of Newark a hurry to get into their winter R. B. Helsie and L. G. Betletier of Valley were guests of Mr. and Mrs. homes, while the fur on smaller an-Mr and Mrs. Clyde Yentzner and winter will be light. Old neighbors of Ruth, Grace and William Corwin of say his predictions never fail.

ENTERTAINED AT SHOWER . Mrs. Raymond Snyder, entertained at her home, Monday afternoon, in. honor of her sister in law, Mrs. Gates Saunders of Hornell. -About twentyfive friends were present, surprising. Mrs. Saunders, nee Ruby Snyder Dainty refreshments were served and many beautiful gifts were left remembrance of the occasion.

CARD OF THANKS

To all the friends and neighbors who showed us such kindness during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Maria Corwin, The Womans Christain Temperance Union, those who brought the floral offerings, the choir furnishing the music, Rev. Collins for his words of comfort, and those who denated the use of automobiles for the funeral service we feel deeply grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Corwin Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew

Mrs. Oliver Beimer of Gillette, Pt. CARRIE BEINHART COMPE

Bring your Buckwheat, Wheat and Rye.

Wheat Flour, * $13.00 per bbl. GUAR-ANTED!

The Miller SCIO, NEW YORK

PHONOGRAPHS Play All Makes of Records

Get the Broadway Hits First on PATHE RECORDS

Some Advantages

The full, clear tone of each individually toned instrument is produced by the all-wood violin famous Pathe Sapphire Ball. The music flows from the records; isn't scratched off.

The Pathe Controlla enables you to play any record loudly or softly with the same Sapphire

Always ready to play as soon as you slip on a Brown's Furniture Store b.

SERMONETTE OF TODAY

C. W. WILLIAMS

Williams, last Saturday morning, of weeks, and over work is generally tion in the Andover Figh School..'

When a young man he began work in the E. J. Atwood hardware store,

About twenty years ago he joined

H. Williams & Co. This firm partnership with his uncle, H. F g desired it for his own use.

About seven years ago Mr. Will-than any other man in town, as every one purchased more or less groceries

Clayton Williams was a man wh made friends easily and they re-was broad-minded, open-hearted as

'Andover realizes full well that she has lost one of her foremost citlzens

Mr. Williams was a member of the Andover Baptist Church, prominent,

in fraternal circles, being affilated,

with Andover lodge No. 558 F & A.M.

land was a Past District Deputy o.

lit was he who gave them their first lodge room, and the charge he then they live, not only because of what.

Besides his wife he is survived by four children Harriet, Francs, Ma N. C. Williams, of Wellsville and for sisters, Mrs, Raymond Hardy of Al-.

mond, Helen and Winifred Williams of Wellsville and Mrs. Earl Howe o.

Funeral services were held at the

"JUST MARRIED"

Mrs. Jesse Pingrey and Bert Packard, both of Horrell, were united in marriage at the home of a Sayre, Pa.

Clergyman, Saturday October, 2

they will make their home.

village hall at 7 o'clock.

"them at the door of the I. O. O F gave will be remembered as long .

cerity of the man giving it.

C. W. Williams received his educa-cerebral apoplexy, aged 41 years.

Harshly for not Putting the highway between the village

indover and the Rollins farm is stil.

and village of Andover. It is, this pool over which one-half of the farmers trading in Andover are obliged

This piece of road was "improved"

but a few-seasons ago, and if a good

top had been placed on the foundathis highway. Some of them were un-rather than spend it for the benefit!

Upon investigation the News finds) this a very unjust criticism. The crushed stone all ready to place upon ble to have obtained the help necessary to draw it there. Potato dig-1 ging took every available man. He now planning to complete the road year

The Village of Andover is not a together without fault in this matter,

as they have about ten rods of this;

However this must be said of them.

the material to complete their part of :

been able to get the goods, owing t gave us last spring, when it was near ly impossible to draw an empty wagon thru the mud, must not be repeat-

Both town and village should al-

Miss Penelopy Rozakis of Urbana,

Mr. Karcanes is associated with his uncle, in the Sugar Bowl, a business

MICKIE SAYS

IF YOU'VE GOTTA FRIEND SOME

AYEAR? NOTHIN' YA KIN DOL

WILL PLEASE EM MORE !

WHERE WHO USTA LIVE HERE, WHY

DONCHA BEND EN YH' PAPER FER

long before this if it had been poss.

farmers, who have to

Board has funds in their hands that He has given good service to Andover' carry the money in a bank balance had been an eye-sore to the commu

the road, and would have had it there had a congenial personal manner

The first of last August they ordered an Andover man will remember that low nothing to prevent this road be- jory and Ralph, also his mother Mrs.

Ohio were united in marriage, Thurs- family residence on Pleasant Avenue over Friday night, where they are ton, assisted by Rev. N. M. Longe-

. Main street which the groom had The interment was in the fantly day Oct. 23rd, and arrived in And- Monday afternoon, Rev. Geo. A.

located in their pleasant home on necker of Almond, officiating.

newly furnished in readiness for his plot in Hillside cemetery.

tulations to the genial proprietor and week's News was painted.

this road, and up-to-date have not lesson in fraternity, when he met to have their produce to market and

It in Condition

their supplies back home.

The book of life is never so bright but that a man may turn over a new leaf with advantage to others as well as to himself.

It is so with me.

Their tomorrow is my legitimate care of today and ly my acts they

"has not penetrated their infant brains?

delibly stamped upon their budding memories, to accompany then thru life and into the shadows beyond?

the treatment I accord to them?

kind enough to say that the Town of this popular young business man. their own home? Do I remember that while their destinies must be carved out b

> the paths into whrich I lead them today?-Do I make myself a beacon light which they may follow in confi-

> Am I to them at all times and in all things the kind and loving pa-

Do I give to them such tender that and care that they may see the hour when daddy comes home again?

youth to maturity should I be to them a companion, a comrade, loyal friend, as well as parent?

' forgotten—and to forget is to neglect.

should also bear, as well as their's.

for as I am to them today, so will they be to their children in their own time—for heredity is strong and may not easily be cast aside.

time, and I have passed on to-my-reward, I would that they might some day think back over the years that have flown and write of me that epitaph which is more lasting than granite, more precious t.

"MY FATHER WAS A GOOD MAN"

THE MEDITATIONS OF A MAN

I will forge it today.

will judge me.

Do I remeber that as they become older their conceptions of right their own hands, yet their future will be principally determinned l dence and in the knowledge that it will lead them thru the intricate perils of youth into the safe harbor of maturity?

rent whom little children delight to fondle and to caress?

and drink in always the sunshine of their home? Is my daily treatment of them such that they long each night for

And as the years lead them slowly from infancy to youth and from

Alas! My shortcomings have been many and great. Always I have

The burden of their care has fallen principally upon the frail

BUT I WILL MAKE AMENDS!

I will remember all of these things and I will do all of these things,

And when their own heads have become silvered by the lapse of nd the News extends hearty congra"just married" sign mentioned in last LONE MAN.

the bridal Paid $3000,000 Ransom for which party drove to the Rathborne House 'in Elmira and enjoyed a wedding din-Jenkins, United States much of his experiences in the mounon their way to Hornell, where.

DAIRYMAN'S LEAGUE

BARACA OFFICERS

dreleased and on the arm of Senor of the Sunset" scenes at Eagle Pass, Tex. The only drawback was getpanied for some distance by Cordova ting up at 6 a. m. Otherwise, all she gas a day was completed last week by FACED RANDITS panied for some distance by Cordova had to do was make up in her room the Gray Chentical Company of Rouand were conveyed to Puebla by step out to the front of the hostelry, the mouth of Fisk Hollow, ten miles Saturday, Oet. 1st, 1919. The Release of William O week of captivity have been learned, Our classified ads get results.

Mexico City, Oct. 28-The release prisoner with every consideration A meeting of the Andover branch of William O. Jenkins, United States possible, however, it is said. the Dairyman's League is called consular agent at Puebia who was Forced to sleep on the wet ground for Saturday night Nov. 1st at the held captive by bandits in the mounduring a week of daily rains, Mr. Jenktains south of that city, and who re- ins suffered a recurrence of rheuthat turned to Puebia yesterday, was ef- matic attacks. which rendered him every member be present as busi-fected by one lone man, Senor Mestre, almost helpless. He is now in the ness of much importance will be con- the personal attorney of Mr. Jenkins, American hospital at Puebla, only a according_to a dispatch received few investigating officials being ad-

At the beginning of the negotia-Secretary Elting Hanna, of the tions for the ransom of Mr. Jenkins, American embassy here, who directed The following officers were elected Frederico Cordova, leader of the ban-negotiations for the release of Mr. by the Baraca Class of the Baptist dits, stipulated that any effort on the Jenkins, on the part of the United part of the consular agent's friends States, will not return from Puebla ent, to appear in force at the bandit ren- until Monday. Upon his arrival, it sec'ry., T. J. Gilbert; dezvous would result in the death of is expected an official report will be Frank Graves; teacher, Mr. Jenkins. Senor Mestre, there- made.

> e arra, which is situated about 2 hours run by automobile south of Puebla.

where he found Mr. Jenkins lying on Wednesday evening, Nov. 5th, from som money, $300,008, Mexican was quainted with the Rev. W. P. Trow-

BOYS MUST HAVE Mrs. Philena Crandall Remington ENROLLMENT CARD was born September, 12th 1836 Independence, daughter of Mr. Mrs. Barney Crandall, and died at her home on Pleasant Avenue this

MRS. DELOS REMINGTON

an illness of one weeks duration from a stroke of paralysis. March 10,186.

she was united in marriage with Delos D. Remington, who survives

Their married life was passed in the

tiful and higher values of life.

Deceased was a member of the

RESOLUTIONS

itéd and helpful member of this cham-ture death, Therefore, be it

the Andover Yews.

AUDITORIUM

village, Sunday October, 26th after Those Who Are Not Registered ForMilitary Training Cannot Accept Any Employment

CERMS $1.50 the Year

town of Andover, having been residents of the village for the past the Boys above the age of 16 and not over 19, who do not possess a certifi-Mrs. Remington was a woman h cate showing he is enrolled for miliin high esteem by all who knew her. tary training, must not be employed selfish and appreciative of the beaustructor W. C. Whitford, from the military training commission, the subhome was her kingdom" where she stance of which follows. found her deepest enjoyment. There, "A boy above the age of sixteen the aged parents, her mother.

and not over the age of nineteen who Barney Crandall, and her husband's father, Daniel Rmington, were tenprovided showing that he is enderly cared for in their declining rolled for military training and is meeting the requirements of the mili-Tose who have enjoyed the hospitality of the Remington home tesmilitary training, shall not beemploytify to the quiet, ideal life within the) d by any person, firm or corpora-'family circle, and the sympathy of. tion within this state, or by any offi-' our townspeople is extended to the Seventh Day Baptist Church of to vices were conducted, Monday after: "In order that the registration or noon. Rev. Walter Green, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. W. L. all boys between the above ages may he accomplished without causing any Trowbridge, of the M. E. Church. quartette consisting of Miss Minnie inconvenience on the part of either Clair, Mrs. Ella Bundy, Mrs. Archie the employer of the boy you are re-Bloss and Mrs. Margaret Bettinger guested to furnish this office at your | selections. The O. E. S. of which de-|earliest convenience with a list which sang, most sweetly, two appropriate will indicate the name, age and ad- 1914 ceased was a member attended in a ress of all such boys, that are employed by you or your firm at this time. The boys will then be communiicated with individually and arrangements made for registration and training. Training units will begin drill 'on or about October 1, 1919" Whereas; The Andover Chamber,

' Copies of this letter have been sent I pon to suffer the loss of one of our to the various employers throughout most faithful members, a public-spir-the district.

_____ FLINT—LUTHER

ber, in the death of Clayton W. Will-1 and realizing not only our own loss, but the loss to Andover and On Saturday evening, Oct. 25th at this whole community in his premathe home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Floyd Davis of Andover, was solem-Resolved: That in the death of our nized the marriage of Joseph B. Flint esteemed brother, we have suffered and Cora A. Luther both of Gas the loss of one of our foremost busi- Springs, N. Y. ness men, a gentleman who was al-! The officiating clergyman was Rev. ways ready with words or deeds to do Geo. A. Orton, of the Baptist Church. his share in the upbuilding of his The couple were attended by Leland Flint, nephew of the groom and Miss Resolved; That the sincere and Gladys Trowbridge, cousin of the heartfelt sympathy of the Andover bride. The bride was tastefully attired in the sorrowing family in their loss. grey silk poplin and the groom wore Resolved; That a copy of these res- a grey suit. The bride's table was The evening was pleasantly spent secretary deliver to the family a copy in dodging rice and listening to the hereof and that they be published in beautiful music by the Maple Street The best wishes of all are extended.

to the happy couple. Anna Q. Milson had an easy time STRUCK MILLION FOOT GAS WELL it during the filming of "Heart A well good for a milloin feet of at the Terrell Wells Hotel and then lete, Pa., on the George Fisk farm at as all the Eagle Pass scenes were south of Shinglehouse. The company, it is said, paid $1,000 bonus for the lease and agreed to pay Mr. Fisk $500 each for the first three wells completed.

> RS. C. W. WILLIAMS will continue the business of her late husband at patrons of the store the same courteous treatment for which this store is noted. We ask a continuance of your trade the old stand and will endeavor to give the

and wiff give you prompt service.

MRS. C. W. WILLIAMS