Among one of the most important purchases of the season we find this charming Queen Anne suite, which is indeed a model of the furniture craftman's art. Its dining table is of a generous size; the china cabinet is handsomely decorated on its side panels and in the center; and the buffet is something to be marvelled at with its full-length mirror and panel ornamentations. There are five side chairs and one arm chair, all with padded leather seats. In walnut.

President Wilson's

Washington, Nov. 5-The President's proclamation follows; "By the President of the United States of America.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

A proclamation. The season of the year has again arrived when the people of the United States are accustomed to unite in giving thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which he has conferred upon our country during the twelve months that have passed.. A year ago our people poured out their hearts in praise and thanksgiving that thru divine aid the right was victorious and peace had come to the nations which had so courageously struggled in defense of human liberty and justice.. Now that the stern task is ended and the fruits of achievement are ours we look forward with confidence to the dawn of an era where the sacrifice of the nations will find recompense in a world at

"But to attain the consummation of the great work to which the American people devoted their manhood and the vast resources o. their country they should, as they give thanks to God, reconsecrate themselves to those principles of right which triumphed thru His merciful goodness. Our gratitude can find no more perfect expression than to bulwark with loyalty and patriotism those principles for which the free people on earth fought and died.

"During the past year we have had much to make us grateful. ' In spite of the confusion in our economic life resulting from the war we have prospered. Our harvests have been plentiful and of our abundance we have been able to render succor to less favored nations. Our democracy remains unshaken in a world torn with political and socal unrest.. Our traditional ideals are still our guides in the path of progress and civilization.

"These great blessings vouchsafed to us, for which we devotely give thanks, should arouse us to a fuller sense of our duty to our-'selves and to mankind to see to it that nothing we may do shall mar... the completness of the victory which we helped to win. No selfish purpose animated us in becoming participants in the world war, and with a like spirit of unselfishness we should strive to aid by our example and by our co-operation in realizing the enduring welfare of all peoples and in bringing into being a world ruled by friendship and

"Therefore, I Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, hereby designate Thursday, the 27th day of November next, for observance as a day of thanksgiving and prayer by my fellow countrymen, inviting them to cease on that day from their ordinary tasks and to unite in their homes and in their several places or worship in ascribing praise and thanksgiving to God, the author of all blessings and the master of our destinies. "In witness wherof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. "Done in the District of Columbia this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and
