itor Wednesday.

Sunday in town.

the week in Belmont.

Wellsville Wednesday.

David Slocum was the guest

Hornell relatives Thursday.

ville, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Earley was in Hornell Mrs. Ethel Webb, of Cleveland.) cation visit with her parents,

A. O. Kemp was a Friendship vis-Leo Raufenbarth, of Hornell, spent er, Mrs. Annetta Taylor.

Postmaster and Mrs. W. F. O'Connell and Thomas Riley attended the funeral of Daniel Fagan, at Wellsville, Wednesday morning. John Dean was a business caller 1

Mrs. Madge Dawson went to Middleport, N. Y., Monday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Rose O'Brion, an aunt of her late husband.

Miss Mary Casey was a business Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Witter, son caller in Olean Wednesday. Mrs. W. S. Calhoun was a business Friendship Wednesday to attend the terested in knowing that science has pleasant caller in town Sunday.

Harry S. Boyd, of Batavia, passed

Mrs. John Strait is a guest of Mr. nen New York City on a legg laying. business callers in Hornell Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Broderick, of Hor--A warning has been sent out t vice, against accepting $50 federal which is sordicly selfish. cuit Co., was a business caller town Wednesday. from $20 to $50 denomination. The Feb. 13th. change is made by erasing the 2 and replacing it with a five.

Mrs. Anna Moquin, of Woodhull, is spending a few days with her sister, was in Andover Monday with "The Ers. Robert Brundage. Bostonians." He is the chairman the Red Cross Christmas Seal Sale, or's worst enemy. Prof. and Mrs. Levi Tubbs. per cent. of the proceeds for the sale weighs a bit over 81/2 pounds.

M. C. A. down here without the News temperature for summer .75 degrees Maybe running water in the kitchen and 45 for winter. Busy all the time, would have saved some of them.

Best regards to all." WHO GETS IT?

sat farmers to thinking. A farmer A postal card will do. not many miles from Wayne County, bought a suit of clothes for $40.00. care given it. he is wondering who got the other books, education, and equipment in Ninety per cent of the farmers are from the home. Americans, yet they are denied the privilege granted to foreign labor and ira, spent Sunday with her par- lective bargaining. The farmer feeds the food values of dipolished rice at Salad Bowl, Whipped Cream Set, Pin Tray; Fig. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raufen- theworld and is entitled to respect, 15 cents a pound or commeal at 7 Nut Bowl, Salt Set, Cheese Tray, Vase or Syrup but instead the city dwellers have a cents. The fireless cooker is best Pitcher.

Geo. Beebe, T. J. Gilbert and J. contempt for the farmer because we for these cereals. It takes litle fuel Harvey Backus attended a meeting have been too docile and let them get and needs no waching.

Take a half holiday each week-we and on letters during the holidays. Wm. and Dell Taylor, of Green-suggest Saturday afternoon—get to- While mail will be accepted even if wood, were summoned to Andover gether and talk over the farmer's sit-these stickers are on the address side, Sunday by the illness of their moth-uation and try to find a remedy for the request is made that the use of the News every week. While you music is the music of the youngsters Selecting the Daily Food?" Then send to the State College at Ithaca, received 65 cents a pound for it. Then chine is only surpassed by the abusehe bought some yarn and paid $4.00 fulness it will stand. Yet it apprecia pound, more than six times as much ates and pays, in prolonged service as he got for his wool. He then and greater ease in operation, for any $37.40. That is more than 15 times the home; the farm depends on the such stamps or stickers be confined other sides of the parcel or letter than the one on which the address is notices good advertising — and assumes that the merchant who adver-

> Science Produces Enormous New The average person knows and Fowl, Nearly as Big as a Turkey.

Good Reason for It After years of backsche suffering, have never failed to remove Days of misery, nights of unrest, tracs of this complaint. The distress of urinary troubles, When she finds freedom. barn Co., Migre, Buddale, Mc.

Ave., Andover, says: "I am a year your property for make"

Everybody's Store is a Store for Everybody.

Our line of goods suitable for gifts was never + so complete as now. Here are a few suggestions, a Cut Glass Bowl, Vase, Sugar and Cream Set, Bon 1 Bon Dish, Syrup Pitcher or Honey Dish.

HAND PAINTED CHINA

Then there are Books, Bibles, Testaments, Hos- I

Liery, Handkerchiefs, Statuary and Pictures. Here is a suggestion worth while. Start some friend in an 4 LOpen Stock dinner ware pattern, with a set of cups T and saucers, 1/2 Doz. Bread and Butter Plates, or

Gifts for the youngsters in the way of Toys, T both amusing and educational—the most complete Come shop with us

WELLSVILLE, N. Y.

Xmas Night, Thursday, Dec. 25

Special

Big Ones Jouglas

JANUARY 1, WILLIAM S. HART and FAITY ARBUKLE

These two shows will give your life surprise, as farm manager he described the man I you will not know what each mental be wanted in a letter "above all, if I you will not know what

At 7:30 o'clock the federated ser- will face anything but-ver' vice will be held in the Presbyterian blow." The people's mid-week service will and seemed to be counting.

minging and speaking their praises of "Doc" Donnelly. Killer. the hour. Come and see.

"A Merry Christmas." PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. H. B. Williams, Minister. Sunday Morning, Dec. 21. A Christmas sermon at the morn ing worship. Sunday Evening, 7:30 At this meeting before the federated congregation Mr. Williams bring a short Christmas message.

Sunday School, 11:45. Preparations for Christmas ere being made which promises to if great interest. Christmas Evet Dec. 24. the Sunday School will give a delightful program at the church. A Christ-

every member plan to be present A Neighborly Word mental is the Spirit of Friendliness. Let us all go to church.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. George A. Orton, Pastor.

a short but interesting program going toward Mesita? He fried Evening worship at 7:30. Notice of the Prayer Meetings for tig your family and friends. At the last business meeting of the

Acres Everett Clair Berreizry, Edna Yeomans Berretery, Dora Wagner Secretary, Rets Stearns

deputy, and Jem Burns, owner of the the men had to sit close in order to Then Reddy went on to explain the keep warm. In the rear of the cabin Jim Burns nervously paced the floor. Herrera sat humped against the fire-quit, Jack? I've got to get home t

Suddenly Burns stopped paging with heality and decorated with gifts, looking characters, but one seemed to her You may do as you please.

third was a heavily bearded man with for the X. L. ranch led by the little

No answer.

"Doc'-don't mind it. What do vuh 'see in the fire, anyhow?" To you it's just a source warmth, but hang the thing." With an oath Donnelly jumped t is feet and walked to the window after they had robbed the Cattle-were confronted by the three out-'men's Bank in Mesita, the storm had laws, and it was an easy matter to broken loose and they were forced to take refuge in the abandoned cabin. Let Reddy Brant had been hunting were frozen. Doc Donnelly had his ter of Whalen's cabin.

coat fer, Red?"

'I'm goin' home, NOW!" but Reddy was gone.

be given at the opening of the spur Paint but couldn't, Maybe he'd Every class is urged to have better get off and walk. As he fell in that awful storm.

"Jimmy Whalen's."

"What's Ed done now?" Ed. Bailey was Red's bunkie tector for Mrs. Burns and he's nigh Jack.

Did he get the doctor! Did he?" sgain. H I was you Jim Perns I'd Reddy was all excitement new. Me, he didn't. Doc went to Wes and have the doctor come out. You ley max days ago and sint back yet." fellers need an adviser all the time."

Burns and the sheriff looked at

, "Dee, I need you."

situation and begged of Donnelly to Reddy began to speak but his words were mixed up, but it was something about "Christmas tree

This changed Doc Donnelly's at titude. It was his first realization.

want to risk their freedom. Donnelly asked who the sick wobad man was. Reddy told him. "Can you lead me to her?" This angered his companions.

"None o' that, Doc," they snapped. "Boys, you must have had a mothllars on that bunk. Save my share door followed by Doc Donnelly. Bered headed boy, whom they could hardly see thru the swirling snow. The blizzard had spent itself and the sheriff, his deputy and the owner of the X. L. left their shelter and nade their way down the slippery paths toward the Burns ranch-house. They stopped in Mesita long enough; to learn what Reddy had done and then went on. Reddy was dear to Jack McGraw and he could not hold, | back the tears for it would not be Christmas without his little friend. They arrived at the X. L. and, went into the ranch-house. Here they

' (What's the matter with her?" "Appendicitis," Donnelly replied. "I don't understand. Where's the

"Give me three pair of handcuffs.

deserted cabin. The sheriff walked hand-cuffs handed them to Reddy. "We appreciate this folks," said and hurrah for the red-head! Adios." The outlaws went out, mounted | their horses and rode away. Reddy snuggled under his blanket.

No-o-o, and I guess I never will be get a woman to look after Mrs. Burns

Monday Night, Dec. 29

Concert 9:00 to 9:40

Tickets $2.00, Tax Included.

Dancing 9:40 to 2:00 Extra Ladies and Spectators 50c

OF BUFFALO

MARIMBA BAND

They Will Play on the Stage Where Everyone in the Theatre Can See Them

Lunch Will be Served at 11:30 by the Rebekah Ladies in Their New Banquet Hall

准海洋海洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋洋

In spite of the scarcity of sugar we have succeeded by diligent efforts to secure enough to enable us to supply our patrons with the usual Christmas Can-

HOME-MADE CANDIES

Commencing to-day and running until Christmas, we will offer the public, the following bargains in Home-made Candies

Mixed Chocolates, 55c lb. 2 lbs. for $1.00 40c lb. 2 lbs. for 75c. 35c lb. 3 lbs. for $1.00 35c lb. 3 lbs. for $1.00 Ribbon Candy

BOX CANDIES

The Ladies' Christmas is not complete without a Box of Carry. We are offering a fine line of Boothe, Lovell and Covell, and Nobelly Caralle, this year for prices ranging from 65 cents to $3.50.

CANDY CANES FOR THE CHUDES

BOXES OF CLAIM

Boxes of 25 Standard Brand Sc Cinn Boxes of 50 Standard Brand 8c. Boxes of 50 Standard Brand Land

All Brands of Cigarettes Leave your Christmas Day or Brick Ic

Mrs. Archic Bloss was in Hornell of Past Grands I. O. O. F. at Wells- the advantage of us. They are getting the cream of our hard labor and PLACE YOUR XMAS [we are getting the poorest kind of] hard work and mere head work, they would come out better in the end. Christmas seals on their gift parcels Fruit Saucers.

AT LAST, A "SUPER-HEN!"

With eggs at their present high tises well does all else well. prices everybody—both the people

As it is nearly as big as a ... ost of eggs and poultry.

In next Sunday's New York Amer-

Better go over the root crops and abbage in the cellar an throw out all dust tie for first place as the tract-

Cutting poor hay and feeding it to a poor cow will make both land and owner poorer. Plays under the pear ance of candle light at lifermer. When he once needed a 1