SUIT VALUES that Are Real Values

SHIRTS AT $1.50 AND SHIRTS AT $1.15 These shirts which we are offering to you at $1.50 are made of exceptional values in Madras and Percale cloths. A case of 45 desen in the Government shirts came to us too late for our Holiday showing and as those were this country, is carrying itself. It is bought at the time when cotton was at the lowest ebb we are selling inot paying any attention to its public A them as bought. To duplicate these shirts at the present time would business; I am not paying any atwaried, new and up-to-date. Plain neckband with soft French turn- august body; nobody else is. Old over cuffs.

Shirts at $1.15. Manufacturer's imperfection shirts. On 99 per Cent. of these shirts the imperfections are hardly noticeable but as the manufacturer is very particular regarding every deal that makes to the heighth A a shirt werfect they were thrown out of the regular stock and we were the abolition of the United States Senat A lucky example to buy them as imperfect ones at a great reduction in E because the United price. While they last those shirts are marked for your choice at does not function; it does not operate, club," A $1.15. All sizes 14 to 17.

117 Main Street

water and

By J. E. Jones hem as to whether they wish the re-

"Watered Railroad Stock"

Washington, D. C., Jan. 17. — In Samuel Rea, the head of the Pen-Flanders field the remains of Amer- nsylvania Railroad System, which ican heroes lie. Their graves are ranks as the biggest transportation marked and every attention and care system in the world, seems to have is exercised in making the resting thoroly exploded the popular deplaces fitting memorials to the deeds says that it is conservative to state of our boys who died for their coun- that the actual cash investment in the try.. The mother or father whose son railroads exceeds, by at least $3,000,lies in that hallowed spot has every 000,000, the issued bonds and stock. reason to feel that it is fitting and He points to the Pennsylvania System which has put more than $500,000,proper that the remains should rest 000 in the upbuilding of its lines in forever with the comrades who died excess of the securities that have with them in battle. A little reason-been issued. That, he says, is the ing, and an acquaintance with the result of seventy-five years of prugrewsome facts, ought to convince dent financing. Mr. Rea also points any relative that it would be little to the fact that more than one-third short of ghoulish to. disturb these of the capital stock of the railroads graves in France. For the fact can- of the country, or $3,250,000,000 not be evaded that men who died in does not pay any dividends at all and battle were often dismembered and that in addition there is a considerparts of their bodies were scattered, able amount of bonds upon which no and often entirely missing. The identi- interest is being paid.

fication tags served their valuable Since 1907 the railroad accounts purposes, and quite commonly a num. have been very thoroly scrutinized by ber of bodies were placed in the same he Interstate Commerce Commission grave. To exhume one body for ship- and during this time $6,500,000,000 ment to the United States would of new capital has been devoted to the mean that it would be necessary to development and extension of the raildisturb the remains of all of these. roads of the country. No one, Mr. Miss Myrtle Stinson of Washing- Rea says, can have any doubt as to ton, who spent eighteen months in the actual investment of this cash, volunteer war service with the Pol. dollar for dollar. Any doubt as to ish and French, as well as the Amer- the assets behind railroad securities, ican armies and who was wounded in Mr. Rea points out, must refer to the action, and decorated for gallant ser- $13,000,000,000 of property invest. vice, throws light on this important ment on the books of the companies subject. She recalls her experiences in 1907. But that sum represents an at a hospital in the South of France average per mile of $39,730. A mile where boys were sent to recuperate of track, he says, requires right of after having worked among the way, grading, track, switches, signals, graves of their comrades, and in ex-bridges, etc., but the investment also huming the bodies. Miss Stinson includes all the big terminals, station talked with thousands of these boys and yard structures, locomotives, who did this work, and she says that freight cars and passenger cars. He in every one of their countenances calls attention to the fact that $39,there lingered expressions of horror, 730 to-day would purchase only about and their eyes were windows of suf- one-half of a modern locomotive. ferings of the anguished souls. A Including the capital expenditures! great many of them had lost their which have been made by the Govminds, while others were prematurely ernment in the past two years the aged by their experiences. Miss Stin- average capitalization of all Amerson says that she knows from her own ican railroads to-day per mile of finexperience that if the dead soldiers ished line, including everything from buried in the fields of Flanders could the big terminal to the last spike, E bright sunshine of France 'smg the spots where our heroes! The Senate as a Club ave any other final resting places. removal of bodies from the ington from Mississippi in the days; & Senators. He came to Washin France cannot be accom-when the Stars and Stripes were still! with any degree of absolute distasteful to his Confederate views. The Arn'v and the Gov. But like multitudes of others of the cas used every precaution to Southland he has come to be so inthe graves, and it is tensely loyal to the Union, and its inat the remains of our heroes stitutions, that the decline of any feat in the spots that are indi-iture of our Government is painful to ... however, him. The Honorable John Sharp was rted overseas with any positive for rears, and then he came to the remains Senate at ter a brief spell spent on his e delivered.

if these bodies has been institute ordinary machin ery of poliy the undertakers of the Unit- tics." To make his point clear he tes, and their trade journals are says: "I condemn and despite it." or the man in that profession on an important occasion wifen the eat yelnine of business that later power measure was under conare becought overseas attention of the Senate to the fact and fathers who will allow that eleven Senators had listened sway to their sentimental the argument, and he commented:

United States Senate of the peo-1 ple of the United States. Eleven See A store, flys on one side, represent the A two great parties here who are mail ditional Republican Senators come in

Do you know Mr. President.

culty in urinating, often mean Aland he called attention to their pres-GOLD MEDAL

Sugar and Politics

when politics gets into mear it is the ouncement of a policy of non-interference by the Government during

Expense is not

That is the kind of week? and the kind of man Jse More Printed

Old Friends are Irue Triends

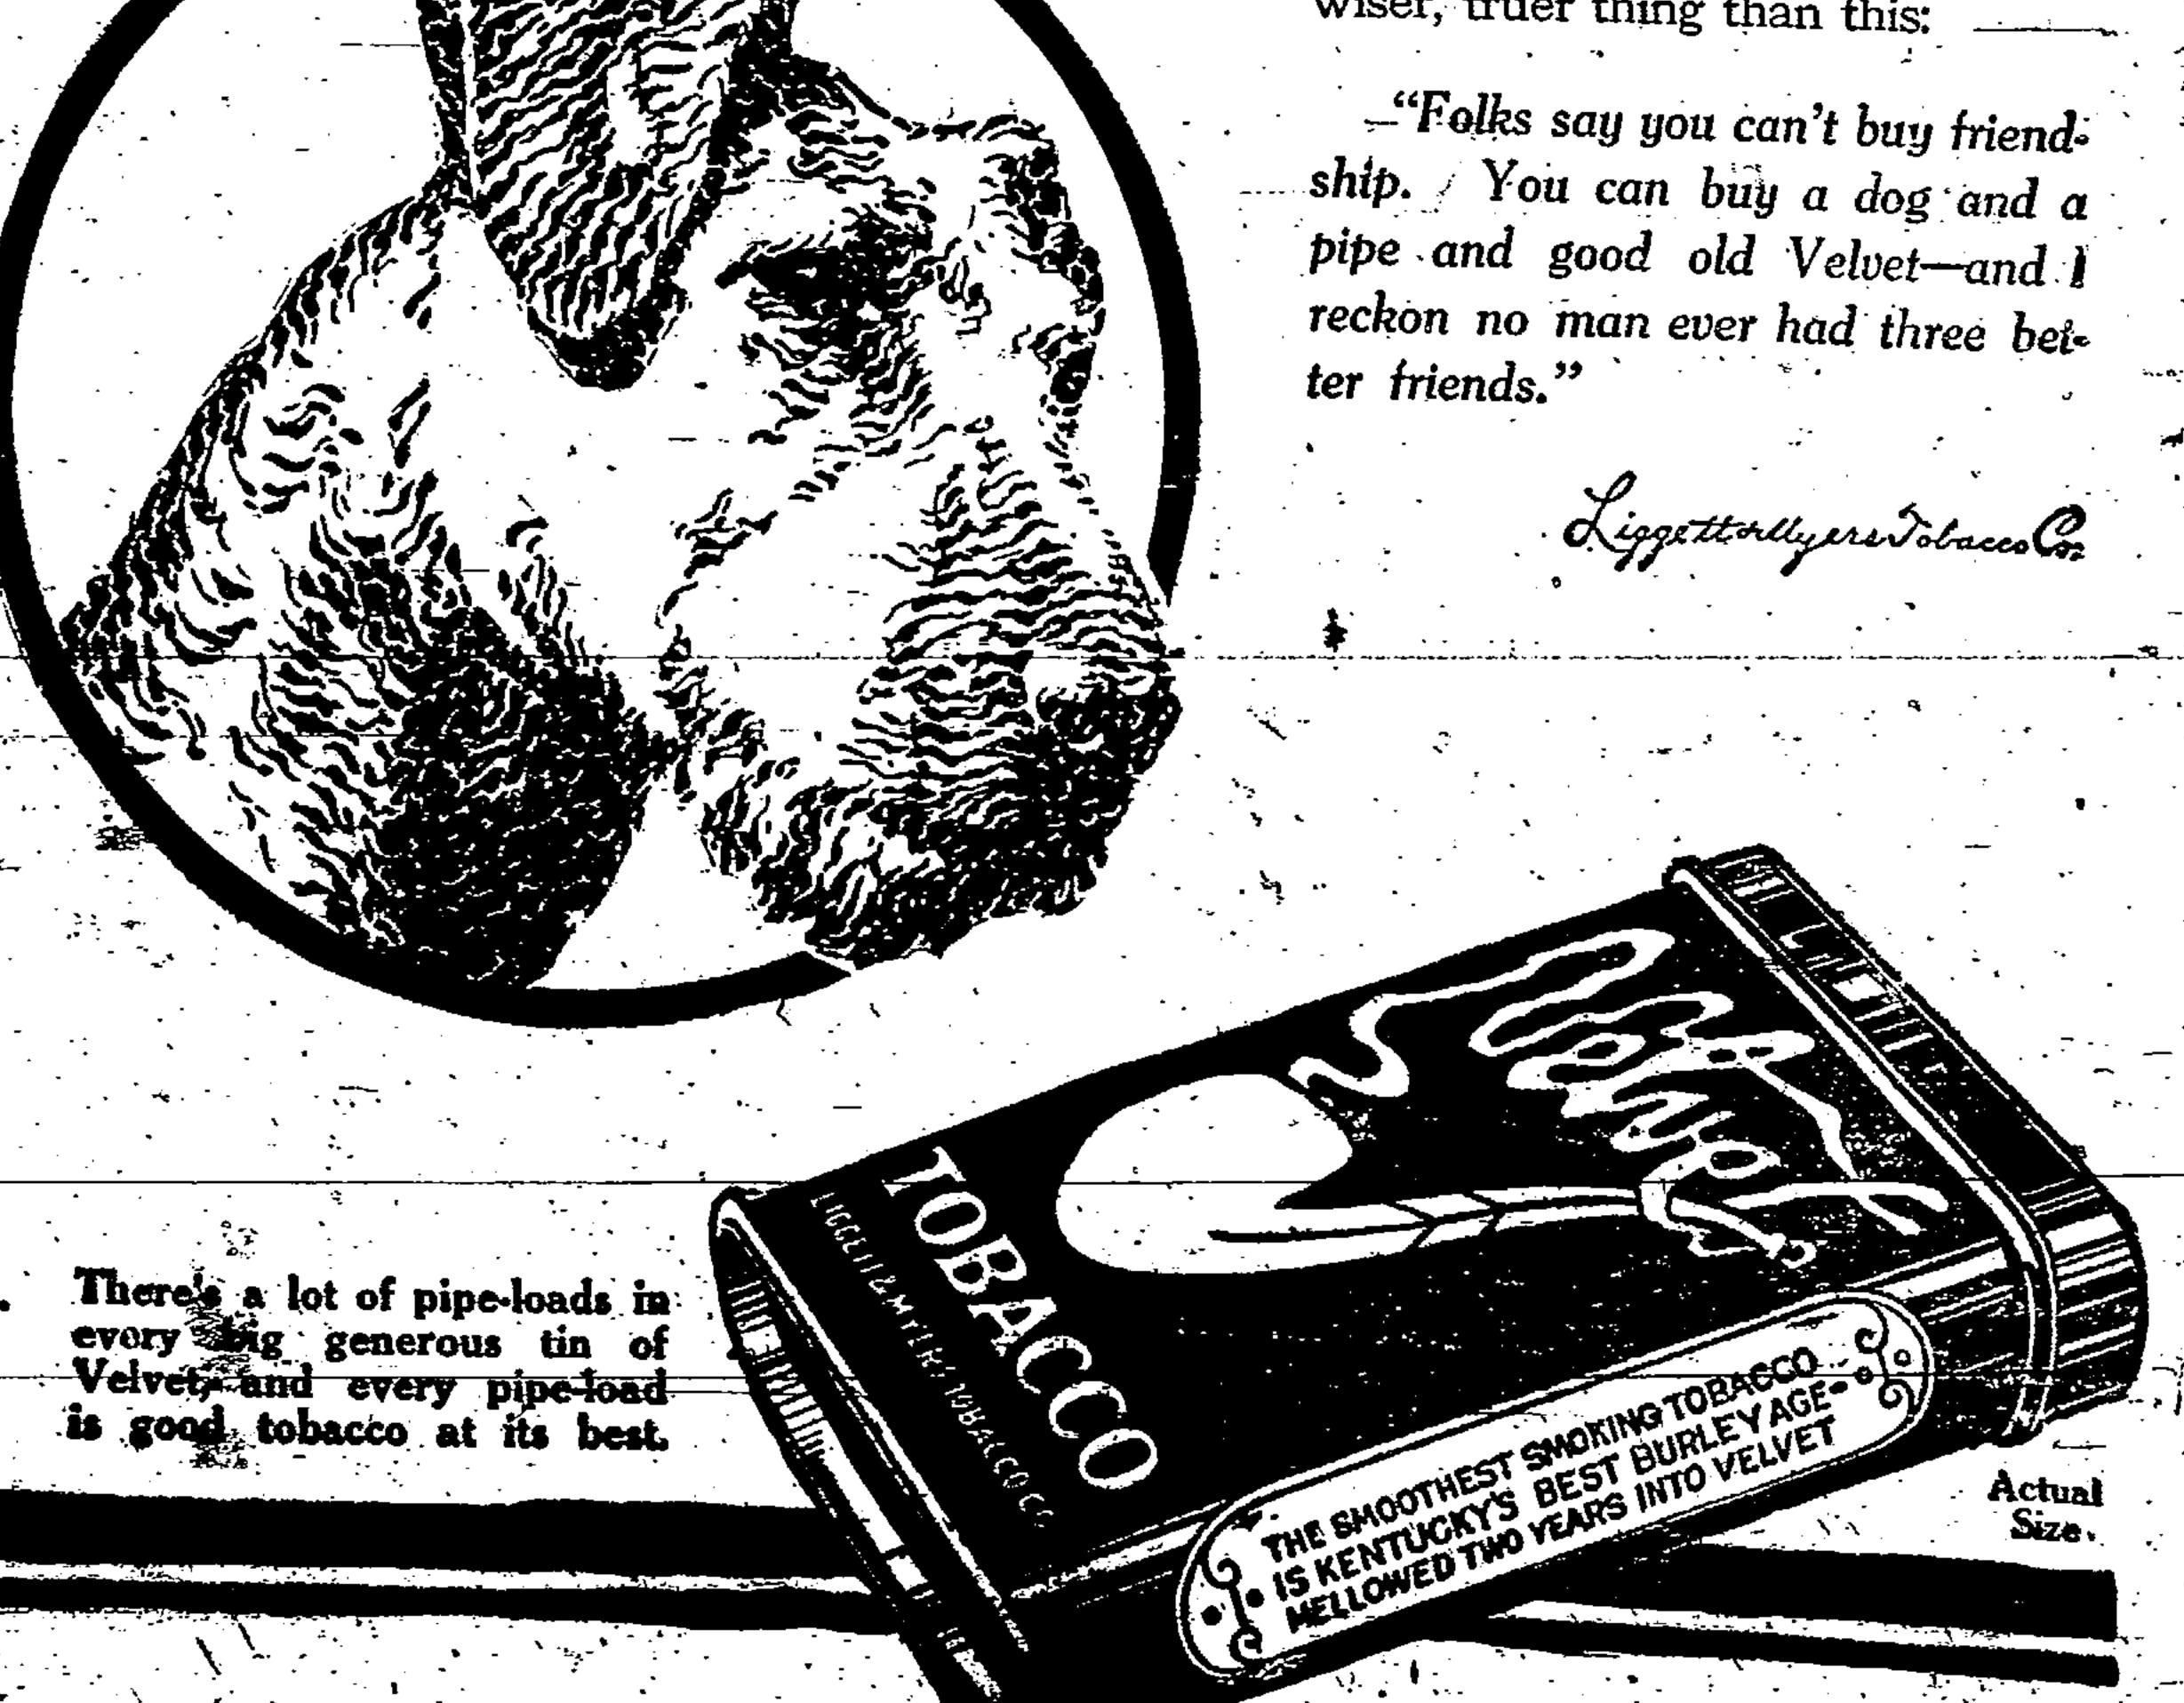

-The man, who loves a dog and a pipe, has two staunch friends that never fail him in good luck or in bad. They give all and ask nothing in return. Day by day they become nearer and dearer to him. The man who has not a dog. and a pipe has missed two of the greatest things this good old world can give.

Every man who loves his pipe should know Velvet, the one tobacco that brings out all of a pipe's best and sweetest qualities. Your pipe takes on an added friendliness from Velvet's choice Kentucky leaf aged in the wood to a mellowness that's rich and smooth as

Your pipe takes on a mild sweetness that Jelvet's natural tobacco sweetness. And 1 you hovers the real tobacco fragrance that all good pipe smokers

> Never did Velvet Joe say a wiser, truer thing than this:

We are observing thrift week Menday.

but would say to the prospec. Has Morers was a furnities caller in home buyer:" Go South, young Wallsville Menday.
So South. Vivine Matteson sailed at Delber

Ed. Mcandrew and family were!

A party was given last Friday

n Wellsville.

No main again Monday... who are attending High School.

A big saving is offered in every one of them. The sale will continue all this week.

Marin Marin

NECKWEAR

HALF PRICE

buy how at last week?

HALF-PRICE

to purchase at once. This is a genuine thrift opportunity.

no present or near future need of them.

DRESS TRIMMING

HALF PRICE

HALF PRICE

Saurday evening several days at A. L. Robbins', in old summer time when it comes. nell, are spending a few days with. The tameness of the animals has i' This kind of weather makes it bad R. E. Spicer and family.

Babcock & Davidson

114-118 Main Street & Davidson

(Hornell, New York)

To dispose of various lines of standard articles in which there are but one or two items left of a kind,

tire line is offered for just

To illustrate:

NOVELTIES

HALF PRICE

etc., on sale this week at

HALF PRICE

shelves and thus this drastic price cutting.

Entire table of $4.95 Hats now $2.47.

prompt for the assortment is limited.

NEE DESKS

HALF.PRICE

headwear, you should | the pair, but we offer them spe-

We propose to start the coming season with clean

All others at like reduction. You will need to be-

KNIT GOODS

broken lines these are offered a special mid-winter bargain a

HALF PRICE

This week only

Lot of Skates in one piece with

25c PER PAIR

Scarfs, etc. To close our

GAS MANTLES

HALF PRICE

we have arranged several lots and marked them at half of the prices at which we have regularly sold them.

In keeping with the spirit of National Thrift Week we do not urge you to buy these articles :

We do offer them as exceptional bargains, which our customers who do need them will find

Mrs. Eugene Marvin'is on the sick Monday in Alfred.

Dan Bump was a saller to White Contract of the sales

Friday and Saturday on business. Geo. Pritchard, who has been ser-\ Doesn't it seem good not to have George Fuller, of Michigan, visited daries. iously ill, is improving at this writ- the wind blowing such a gale as it did his sister. Mrs. Linford Potter or day last week.

Our classified ads get results.

Search of Grab

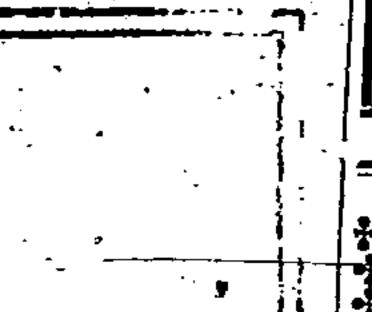

the boundaries of the various national tendent of Yellowstone National Park or one of the doughnuts, and when I gave it to him he trotted off."

It is no unusual sight, declared Al-, to see deer entering and lawying a house in Yellowstone. Small nildren feed them from their hands and beggar bears, he declared, have come to be one of the biggest attracextend their front paws for contri-

|drawbacks as well, because it makes ' Earl Swort is spending a few days for the young people in the country - Clarence Vickery was in Wellsville them easy for pot hunters if they happen to stray beyond the park boun-

Boot Beauties Now on Display

irresistible. – The woman who wears this footwear can rest assured that she is correctly shod, sprightly models now ready.

Burdette & McNamara

Wearpledge Uvercoats and Mackinaws

miles and the workmanship just shows what wonders can be done A when the bess isn't afraid of expense. The fabrics are week-ware and worthy, and so altogether unlike any other Boys Gvercoats to a shame that they have to be mentioned in the same breeth.

Try the News Printing House for all kinds of up-to-dat

The Mandeville Real Estate Agency, Inc. have thousands of prospective purchasers on their mailing list. Inquiries are being received at the rate of from three hundred to five hundred per month. High-rents are forcing these men to eastern farms. If you wish to sell your farm list it with This Agency at

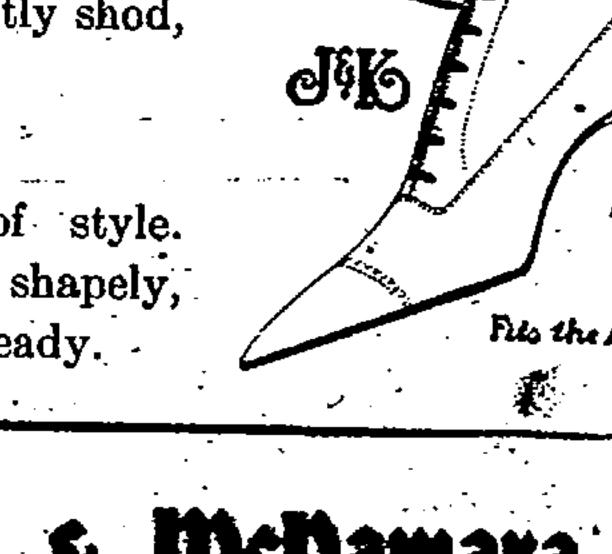

Local Representative

Andover, N. Y.

and note how well they fit. The

. is the very essence of style. Your choice of many shapely,

121 Main Street

HORNELL, N.Y.

WEARPLEDGE Overcoats put it all over any other costs w have ever had in the store for the money.. The style is better by Like WEARPLEDGE Suits-the Overcoats are insured of A same way and they are made by the same hands, in the came that turned out the finest Boys' Suits since suits began.

(incorporated)

Comperial Printing