In all the wide world anywhere.

If a flower had sprung up of every step Every house would be set in a garden fair In all the wide world everywhere,

If our mother's prayers were turned into kindly deeds, and sent afar on the roads of need, No soul uncheered, no hurt unbalmed would be.

The wide world round from sea to sea. If hopes and wishes had flowered and the dreams and prayers of our mothers had come true,

Earth would be happy as it is fair For Love and Joy would gleath everywhere.
