BANK BOOK is a constant remoder of good judgment: a daily help in administering funds wisely and conveniently.

As a Bank Book Owner you have a place to deposit cash, checks and drafts, where the funds are better protected than in your own custody, and you can withdraw funds at will or transfer them to others by means of your personal check.

These benefits and safeguards cost you nothing and you have the privileges that an Andover State Bank acquaintance has for all its patrons.

A. C. Frisbey, Pres. Frank S. Clark, Vice Pres.

J. M. Brundage, Cash.

Andover State Bank

nell visitor yesterday.

Hornell on business Friday.

B. W. Conley, Sunday.

Jas: Dagon was a pleasant caller in town Sunday.

W. C. Gleason was home from John Strait's. Roulette, Pa., over Sunday. visitor in Hornell last Friday. (Addie Coleman. Mrs. George Broderick was the W. B. Bundy, of Dansville, was Smith. guest of relatives in Andover Sun-shaking hands with old friends in Mrs. Frank D. Burrows and

. Hobart Mitchell, of Hornell, Mrs. M. G. Stout, of Penn Yan, over this week.

a week's vacation. Mrs. C. S. Parker and Mrs. Agnes with her sister, Mrs. Sara Blodgett. Mrs. Floyd Mattison started Hamell were in Fulmer Valley Thursday, the 15th. Mrs. Leo Dugan, at the St. James town.

Mercy Hospital yesterday. Mrs. Anna Wafer and Mrs. Giles Edith, of Independence, are visiting Mrs. Manda Fanton of Fords Brook, Grantier, of Hornell, were Monday Mrs. Potter's mother, Mrs. Orpha were Sunday guests at the home of guests at the Frisbey home.

Comstock.

Mrs. Fanton's sister, Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Gates Saunders, of Hornell, Miss Kathryn Doran, of Canisteo, Frank Nobles.

Kenneth Blackman and the Davis- " . Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lever starton brothers, of Scio, passed Sunday guests at the home of Frank Nobles, ed for Boston, Mass., Wednesday, for a visit with his cousin, Floyd Mrs. Chas. A. Davis and daughter Lever, for a few days. Edythe and son Arthur, of Rutherford, N. J., are guests of Mrs. F. A.

Mrs. J. Thorn Smith, of New ing her daughter, Mrs. Dugan, at Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker and York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. S. the St. James Mercy Hospital. Potter. Mrs. Smith was formerly Mrs. J. Harvey Backus was in Wednesday where they will attend Miss Celia Sullivan. Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Rogers, assisting in the care of her mother, outing the rest of this week. son and daughter, and Mrs. Alice Mrs. Addie Coleman, who has been Rogers were week-end guests of seriously ill. relatives at Rough-and-Ready, Fred Mix and wife, Mrs. Mary son, Raymond, returned Wednesday Margaret Nold, of Wayland, were Kaple, Mrs. Leon Bassett and Mrs. evening from a two weeks vacation guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bassett were Sunday vititors passed in New York City, Philadel-Frank Raufenbarth yesterday. of Andover friends.-Belmont Dis- phia and Minatola, N. J.

Mrs. Mark Wilson and daughter, and Mrs. F. E. McGinnes and Miss visited Mrs. Florence McGinty at R. Marion, of Whitesville, came Tues- Ellen Downs, of Wellsville, and Fish's, yesterday. — Whitesville day to pass a few days guests of James Welch, of Olean, were callers News. her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George at the home of Edw. Cable Thurs- Miss Elizabeth Mathern, of

TALCUM POWDERS

The Only Toilet Preparation that is Needed by Everyone Men, Women and Children All Need Talcums There are special talcums for baby, for the man who shaves, for use in a bath, for insect bites, as a deodorant, and for general toilet use.

We specially recommend the following talcums, which we know are made from the finest, purest with her sister when the body of talcums, and to insure their softness and fineness. Her son was brought home from a are sifted thru very fine silk and are never touched cemetery in France where he lost by hands. Prepared in the most scientific way in Mrs. M. A. Fowler was in Wells-America's finest, most compelte labaratories. Rex- ville Sunday to call on Mrs. Addie all Baby Talcum will protect baby from the heat, Coleman who has been ill with neuperspiration and chafing, also adds a delicate frag- ritis the past two weeks, at the Rexall Violet, Violet Dulce Talcum, and Talc Jon- Fay, on Brooklyn Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Robinson teel perfumed with the costly odor of twenty-six and sons, of Niagara Falls, accomflowers, and many others, any of which we are cer-, panied by his sister, Mrs. John Has-I tain to have your favorite talcum.

J. D. CHEESMAN,

The Reall Store Andover, New York

Mr. Simms, of Hornell, was said Andover visitor Sunday. 1 Mrs. Nellie Gilder was a business if Alfred Martin, of Belmont, was calling on Andever friends Wednes-Charles Hammand of Assession was a Sunday guest of relatives in!

Floyd Tuller left Monday for Port Jervis where he will be engaged in work. Loyd Robinon was in Wellsville Wednesday evening to play with the Wellsville Band. Att'y, John Dickson, of Wells-

Andover Thursday. Mrs. George Vickers went to Silver Lake Wednesday with a party on a picnic excursion. Mrs. Mary Kelley, of Cleveland, Ohio, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McDonough. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farwell, of Scio, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Far.

Mrs. D. M. Green is passing a few days visiting her old home town, Alfred and friends and acquaintances Miss Helen Baker, of New York, is the guest at the home of her brothers, A. R. and E. D. Baker, for A. B. Richardson left Friday for is home at Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Benj. W. Conley was in Mrs. Richardson remained to care for Mrs. Eliza Sillman. Mrs. Ostrander, of Hornell, was a M. C. Houghtling and son, of guest of Mrs. Leo Dugan last Fri. Rochester, were Andover visitors the last of last week and were pleas-

Mrs. Ina Reed, of Hornell, has ant callers on the News force. been a recent guest of Andover rela- Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson, of Niagara Falls, returned home Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harvey Friday after spending a week at the and baby were Sunday guests at home of Mr. and Mrs. Jett Blodgett. Mrs. Franklin J. Herrick and son Mrs. Claire Backus is in Wells- John, of Binghamton, have returned Mrs. Frank Gilder was a business ville assisting in the care of Mrs. home after two weeks past at the home of his grandfather, Isaac son John, of New York, came Tues-Mr. and Mrs. Scott Prest, of day to spend the summer with her was a celler at F. S. Potter's, Mon-Bath, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Donnigan.-Friendship Register. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sluyter and Miss Anna Farley were at Almond, son, of Beech Hill, and Mr. and Misses Emma Folsing and Mary Tuesday at the cherry orchard. Mrs. Ross Cornell, of Whitesville. Boyd have gone to Chautauqua for Mrs. Wm. Robinson, of Niagara were Sunday guests at Richard Falls, is spending several weeks Smith's.

Messrs. Francis Purcell and Jack Thursday morning for Johnsonburg, Anderider, of Corning, spent Thurs- Pa., where Mr. Mattison has located Charles Gleason visited his sister, day and Friday guests of frends in being employed in the large paper Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fanton and Mrs. Linford Potter and daughter-was the guest of her parents, Mr. is passing a vacation at the home of Mary Margaret McLoughlin reand Mrs. W. F. Snyder, Tuesday. her mother, Mrs. Eliza Doran, on turned to her home in Wellsville Tuesday evening after passing a week as guest of her aunt, Miss El-Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edgecombe, daughter Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. 5 Russel Gee, of Knoxville, Pa., were Mrs. W. C. Gleason was in Hor- guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claire C. nell Monday and Wednesday visit Backus Sunday.

Wellsville Wednesday and Thursday the Assembly sessions and enjoy an Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buxton, of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Thorne and Rochester, and the Misses Lena and Mrs. Ellen Casey, Patrick Casey Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chamberlin Mrs. James Pardon, of New York, > Rochester, stopped in Andover as guest of Mrs. M. A. Fowler the first of the week, on her way to Jamesflown where she is to take a course !!

in dermatology. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nichols, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cochrane, of Wellsville, mot-Cochrane Sunday.

Mrs.Mark Fish was summoned to Cattaraugus, N. Y., Saturday to be home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas.

Ling and son, Kenneth, of LaSalle, N. Y., motored here and are guests Mrs. Franc Teasdale and daughter. Rebekah, and Mrs. Mary - Warfield / motored to Fillmore Friday and vis-

666. Dargains

Cash and Carry Specials for Friday & Saturday

Girls' 50e Gauze Knit Bloomers	39
Five cakes Mascot Soap	25
All 49c Percales	39
$2.50 Heavy Silk Gloves, elbow length, pair
50c Morningside Coffee
One piece 50c pink and white Romper Cloth	33
Two packages Fancy Mince Meat for
5 Oc Underwear Cambrics	39
Bungalow Aprons, light colors	• .
Ladies' 39c White Gauze Hose	·
Children's "Leader" Black Hose	25
All Girls' White Dresses	One-fourth O
Ladies' Gingham Dresses, worth $3.75	Special $2.7
Four sizes Pearl Buttons, three dozen for	25
Babies' Black Cat Cotton Hose, pink or blue, pair.	15
Georgette Waists	$2,9
All Suits Half Original Prices
All Coats Half Original Prices	· •
Ladies' Pure Silk Hose, black, brown or white	•
Ladies' 75c fine ribbed Union Suits	_
Dollar Muslin Petticoats
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

JOHN E. CANNON AND CO.

(The Burrows Store) Store Open Monday, Wednesday and Saturday Evenings

Groceries.

Are You Getting All the Enjoyment Out of Your Porch?

UUCOr PORCH SHADES

When you use VUDOR Ventilating Porch Shades you can have any degree of privacy you like, protection from the sun and perfect ventilation through the patented Ventilator woven in the top of every VUDOR shade.

Let us show you the "Romelink Swinging" Couch Hammocks.

THE REPORT

PAMILY NEWSPAPER, FOR ALLEGANY COUNTY PEOPLE, IN POLITICS INDEPENDENT, BUT NEVER NEUTRAL

VOL XXXIV. NO. 31.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING JULY 30, 1920.

FILLUVICI CILLIUVICITION

the past. It was a serious question ruined. was enough left of many places to building on his beautiful farm pay for cleaning them up.

whole generation to efface. Houses was occupied by Earl Burnside. were demolished, barns torn down.

Plate glass fronts were smashed in as the house came crashing in upon | De and windows broken out with hail the family gathered in the sittingstones. But when we consider the room, and was dead before he could damage done in the rural section, be rescued. He evidently stood on Pingrey Hill, the Vandermark near a bookcase, and as the house Elm Valley, Shovel Hollow, Railroad came crushing in was caught under no Valley and East Valley the damage the case. Before he could extricate in the village is comparatively noth-himself the chimney piled up on the tr

The Vandermark

and contents water-soaked. The P. G. Thomas farm one-half and house badly damaged.

house and barns ruined. Grope are a total loss all up the there are but three now standing. away by the high water.

At the Doan farm, where George ing rain which followed the awful aged. Rossman lives, the roof is taken off cyclone. ried four feet; all the windows are the state than those of William Hess iously. mashed. One barn is a complete in Elm Valley. Every one is gone John Mitchell's big barn was com- that crashed on every side.

THE TH' HOUSE TOWN PADER AUNT THUNGS ON A BROOKE SCALE!

and charming hetnes is a thing of An automobile and farm tools were Barrett farm, had his big cow barn escaping, however, with only slight wealth of large rock mable trees, is Lever on West Greenwood. Stree Saturday morning whether there At the Elmer Black farm every roof to his house taken off.

home is entirely demolished. Valu house was badly damaged. The first, and we sincerely hone able stock was crushed to death un- Will Pingrey, barn unroofed and are twisted from their foundations tangled brush. the last, cyclone that ever visited der the barns and farm machinery back part of his house badly dam- Irreparable damage has been done this community struck us a full is a total loss. All household goods aged. at are scattered all over the farm. A about 10 o'clock, and lasted nearly valuable piano was carried twenty his house badly damaged. Elm Valley the roots and were lying across the away and is ruined. Elm Valley down. bookcase, and it was impossible get him out. It is said he lived sevwhere near fittingly describing the er members of the family miracuscene witnessed by those who have lously escaped death. Mr. Will was roads are filled with fallen trees. The Fairbanks house and barn ing him as it collapsed, his life Scio is not much damaged, com- to the roof. The damage to buildings, stock and across the road from the Will farm would have been crushed out. As it paratively, wrecked buildings, clothing and per- blown over and Mr. and Mrs. Fairsonal property are strewn all over banks pinned into the debries. They the hundreds of thousands of dol-lire to the lumber. They could not new house. are completely demolished. A new blast of the tornado removed the aged. Fairbanks was burned.

Doran Brothers lost a big barn, household furniture until it was While the Village of Andover ladies' and gents' shoes were saved of the barn was taken and the house another, barn unroofed, grainery un- about ruined. He is left without a seemed to lay nearer the route of the from utter destruction. roofedy soaking several hundred building. A large 10x10 timber, cyclone than any Allegany County Baker Brothers Hardware lost a foundation. Roof is off the Charles Coats bushels of grain, garage destroyed, over 20 feet long, was lifted and village, we, too, were just a little few glass from the front of their Burnard Murray had a new barn but left automobile uninjured. All the way up the valley every- Beebe house, some 80 rods away. | storm. It is simply impossible for a | Three-quarters of the roof was | And so it goes. #Ee have only thing was destroyed in the way of George Beebe lost two harns and newspaper story to give in detail all taken off the American House and touched the high spots in telling the The roof was taken off the Kitner crops and barns. In a radius of a part of the porches of the property loss and damage the hotel flooded from attic to cel-story. Much of it we cannot defew miles out of a total of 44 barns from his house. East Valley valley to the Eimer Black place, They were nearly all filled with the James Lynch had his house un tempest looking very little like its er part of their hotel and barn to not more or less damaged, and Girock to and fro. Suddenly the enliously ill from the shock. Pingrey Hill and everything, blown all over the and shattered. All the way from the Charles place. Nelson Straight, who lives on At Belvidere the storm struck There are few stores and places askew. part of the village, and one-third Burdick farm up to the head of the the place, lost a $600 team of fine just north of the main Friendship of business on Main Street but P. C. Lynch and son had several of the shade trees were torn up by valley everything has been swept work horses when the barn came road.

highways and yards till, the whole seemed to have been picked for the A hole was blown in Elmer up of their shade trees. A year dows and glass fronts are gone. village looked more like a slashing greater suffering, for with the loss Caple's dwelling, but he has the dishence no one will ever know, that Floyd Vars' jewelry store was in a lumber camp than the beautiful of property came the loss of life. tinction of having about the only Belmont was hit at all, the storm not only blown in but blown out. Andover of former days. Scarcely Carl Will a young man, beloved by barn in the neighborhood standing. was north. house has escaped undamaged, every one, was caught in the debris barns, all badly wrecked and his tween Scio and Belmont, a mile foundation and separated it from by Attorney C. L. Earley has lost all from its mother's arms. the barns on his three large farms, the McTighe farm, the Corwin Exaggerated stories of how Science farm and the Cole farm. Some was blown entirely off the man were ripped off the foundation and reached Andover soon after the Mrs. C. W. Williams had the roof roof off; Michael Cannon, barn miles above Scie village, desolation took seven men to get the debris even that destroyed. He had acres storm ceased, even the all telegraph taken off from her feed warehouse blown down; James Hammond, barn is the only word, that comes any off from his lifeless body. The oth- of fine timber on the McTighe and land telephone wires were out of and plate glass front in the Main wrenched badly and roof off; Ernest Corwin farms that was ruined. Tom Swain was in his barn when ways gets a piece of every calamity The Brundage Drug Co's. plate Julia Lynch, chimney blown down. driven up this valley, only recently caught in the rubbish but was the the storm broke, and if it had not going it did not take much arguing glass front was broken, and much one of the most prosperous farming to get out with the assistance of the which kept the timbers from crush-without the customary pinch of salt. of wall paper on account of damage farm. The bark will be entirely crops is appalling. Household goods, were destroyed. The house was is he was seriously injured. On the J. D. Potter farm the big badly used, the roof damaged nearly as much to save it as it is Railroad Valley Harold Hardy lost two barns and roof taken away leaving the con- of drugs, books, papers and wall-pa- On Dyke Street D. M. Green's the valley, and the loss will run into had an oil lamp burning which set a large part of the roof to the large tents exposed to the rain. A brick per-- lars. At Robert Connell's farm two extricate themselves and that they Bines Brothers lost two barns store and the roof damaged; other her entire building was moved back. The Methodist and Seventh-day big barns and all small buildings would be burned alive, but another and their house was badly dam- buildings lost chimneys. At the up- from the street by the intense pres- Baptist Churches suffered from dam-Ford truck and an automobile, to- heavy timbers from them and they Will Dodge was nearly put out of of Marle Fuller, W. J. Flint and O. The roof was completely demol- James Burbanks lost all of his gether with all farm tools are escaped death. They were hurled business. His two barns were en- P. Clarke were struck by the lightn- ished from the J. E. -Cannon Co. fine apple orchard. smashed. The house was unroofed out of the debris into a ditch. Mrs. tirely destroyed and his house un-ing preceding the cyclone.

roofed, the water drenching his carried half way to the George south of the main course of the store.

now entirely spoiled by the drench-barn and silo and his house .dam-tent impossible to estimate. Shovel Hollow is a wreck, many houses and barns for a person to get thru the mass of from falling over,

In the County

James Dean loses two barns and tic, symmetrical elms, that Mother are all filled with Nature has been a century ; 14 down. the house blown apart sepa- beautiful maples that lined Maple work immediately. Most rating it entirely, windows smashed Avenue on either side, are prone had troubles of his own to solve be away, roof fore helping the village.

north of the main traveled road, the the sills so a man could walk in Henry Will had his barn un-tail of the cyclone dipped down thru the opening. The plate glass Horton, garage blown from founda-The roof is off the John Kemp young child of Lewis Bentley's is reported to have been killed, taken commission. But because Scio al- Street store broken.

red barn was torn in two and the and water soaked much of the stock worth. front was blown in at the Coyle Mrs. S. J. Fowler lost glass and roof tors off and goods soaked. per end of the village the properties sure of the cyclone.

work that their immense stock In the Village suffered. But Andover has emerged lar. from the awful disaster and terrible The Wilcox House had the great-property in the whole village that is where the large iron bridge is taken crop of new hay recently harvested roofed. William Pardon lost a big former self and damaged to an ex-reshingle after the storm.

The storm that hit us was the Main Street was used most roughly, been felled. first storm, coming at about 9:45 in One-half of the house was unroofed the house and the entire building Probably no better set of farm S. P. Taylor had his big barn un- the evening. It was accompanied and several of the beautiful large. It is simply out of the question to lifted off the foundation and care buildings existed in this section of roofed and his house damaged ser- not only by hail-stones as large as maple trees broken off and ruined. estimate the property loss caused hen's eggs, but by lightning bolts The furniture was water-soaked and by the cyclone. Any estimate would horse injured so that it had to be number of Andover people saw the nearly spoiled.

John Will had the roofs taken bottled up all the destruction that Horan Hardware till it presents the eral million dollars. The family from the barns and the shingles off was soon to descend upon us. It appearance of a speckled cat. rection from the outside of its cir ed it in its work of destruction. would dip up and down hitting here excepting Andover. It suffered from It is impossible in a single news-It is a sorry sight that you behold trees being blown down. The Drake paper article to tell the story, other branches of the fallen trees. Line done to the contents. men are still busy trying to straight. The large barn of A. C. Frisbey en out the entangled mess. They was unroofed with twelve tons of managed to get commercial lights hay exposed to the two foot of rain. to patrons in the center of the vil- that followed. lage Saturday night. But the street To show the terrible velocity

The beautiful Village Park that tance of over three hundred feet. Leon Wahi, who lives on the Geo. and blown off a brdge into the creek pointed to with much pride, with its The large livery barn of J. C blown to a wreck and part of the injuries. The roofs were blown gone, and gone forever. There isn't was blown cornerways and was al-John Baker lost his barn and the tions; the home of George Gigee is fifteen acres, and it is impossible placed on the east side -to keep-i

The Home Enterprise block es-The glass is nearly all broken caped with but little damage. The to the beauty of the village. Maies out of the Village Hall. The streets Sugar Bowl had a plate glass win-en and entire building wrenched show sears from the terriffic temp- plate glass windows smashed from Belmont escaped with a trimming est and cyclone. Plate glass win- their newly fitted sales rooms. On Barney Street Frank Ingraham had his windows blown in and a part of his barn roof taken of Warren Perry, house roof damaged:

The Geo. H. Beebe store, and H. On Water Street Alois Kennen-H. Williams' grocery were damaged ! by having glass broken. The tin off; Mrs. LaRue Crandall, glass roofing was ripped off the Beebe broken

The J. D. Cheesman store was ly demolished until it will be worth house was damaged, a piece of the lost and 75,000 feet of lumber sad-shoe store, and it was only by lively The Knox Miller barn was unof roofed and sadly damaged. The big cow barn of E. B. Rollins was blown several inches from ita nearly finished. It now lays flat. levery street in town looks like a The C. E. Brown residence on hugh slashing where timber had much damage done to carpets, bed- be inadequate. Conservative peo-Just before the storm broke a ding, and everything in the house ple have placed the loss to the village at $250,000, the Town of And-

> Lord Calvert COFFES