Each classification of the Want Ads has its own special readers—people to whom, on that particular day, the ads under that classification have especial ne people who are looking for work read nothing else in the paper with half of the interest and attention that they give to the "Help Wanted" ads.

The people who want to find places in which to live turn eagerly to the "For Rent" classification, and welcome the appearance of an ad that looks to be "worth investigating."

The people who are about ready to stop paying rent read the real estate ads with the purpose of finding the hoped-for home.

The employer, whose need of "help" is urgent, turns to the "Situation Wanted,' ads in the hope that the worker he needs has advertised.

With every classification it is the same. There is a changing "audience" every day, but a sure-to-beinterested one. Thus, when CLASSIFIED, your message goes DIRECTLY to all of the people in the d city who, on that day, have any interest in that sort of
