TO BE EXPECTED

TITHEN the people of the United States took advantage of the war situation to go into the profiteriag game they neglected to take one ald important precaution.

They failed to look beyond the golden hue of their own noses. As a result of this profiteering craze the cost of everything we produce is sky high, because all labor and materials used have been boosted to the limit of boostibility.

Here is the aftermath. American manufacturers want ship their goods abroad, but they find the foreign markets in many cases practically closed to them, bevause foreign made goods are sold forless than we can make them. Thus we are deprived of much of cor foreign trade, and factories are discharging thousands of their employees. Some are shutting down e

Then again, American manufacturers are up against the dumping of foreign made goods into this country for less than we can produce them here. If this condition, prevails in future to any considerable extent sireets in search of employment. So much for our era of assining profiteering and price boosting. But when we listen to the riner
