WE HAVE AND WE NEED

The year of 1921 is before us. What we of Andover and this community accomplish in the next twelve months will depend mainly upon

There is no occasion for becoming alarmed over the present decline in commercial activity. The country is ergoing a period of readjustment, which is quite neces l sary and for the best, but the old ship is not going to hit the rocks, or even cruise in dangerous waters.

Europe charges us with being a nation of commercialists, and perhaps it is true—and to our credit. Como mercialists, are rather keen on annexing the coin of the republic and other countries and are not given to asking 5 other people to support them in idleness.

Thruout the coming year we should utilize our commercial instinct to the fullest extent.

Our fertile soil is full of wealth and all that is required is to reach down and dig it out.

Our factories, our mills and all of our varied yankee enterprises are capable of vast production of articles that are in demand the world over.

We have more money than ever before in our history and are able to finance any undertaking.
