Thinking over the conversation he and his brother had had about this strange little girl who had brought from a thief's den the picture of his baby.

"How would you like to stay here a while with me?" he asked at length.

Her eyes widened to the fullest extent of fringed lids.

"Lorcy!" was all Tonnibel could say, as he glanced around.

"You might wait on me," explained the doctor, "and keep me company. I do get lonely sometimes. Would you like that? I know you like flowers."

"I love 'em," cried Tonnibel.

Fredeloven smiled into the shining eyes. He felt better already.

"I've such a lot of them all over this vine," he went on. "You might take care of them for me and—another thing."

Tony was almost bursting with joy. She had within her the greatest gift of God, supreme gratitude. To work for him would be bliss indeed. She didn't want to cry, so to keep from it, she bit down on her red underlip. He had said in positive tones that he wanted her. It did seem good to be wanted somewhere. What should she do?

Fredeloven remembered many a long day. She bent over and kissed his head. The warm red lips thrilled him as vibrant youth always thrills weakness.

"Can Gustie stay, too?" she pleaded presently. "She'd be without anybody if he didn't have me."

"Yes," said Pendelhaven, as his brother opened the door. "You can make her a nice home in my conservatory."

It took but a moment for the sick man to explain to Doctor John his arrangements with Tonnibel, and the girl's heart was not the only rejoicing one among the trio.

When Katherine Curtis came home late that afternoon she found her

"Mr. Heavens' Sake, What's the Matter?" Asked the Girl.

Doctor John's tower was surrounded by heavy strange looking boxes and papers.

ANDOVER LOST

Friendship Fans Talk Game From Last Five

The Andover High School basketball team journeyed to Friendship Friday, Jan. 7, 21, and there they met defeat.

The girls played first, and by the way it started in, it looked as if it would be one of the greatest games of the season. During the first quarter, Andover's right forward "Angie" was roughed by the Friendship guards and in one play her head hit against the wall, and time was called for "Angie" to recover from the shock. When time was up and play resumed it was noticed that Andover was a-fraid of the rough tactics of their opponents. Nevertheless, Andover finished the first quarter in great style, the score being 1-0 in their favor.

The second quarter had hardly begun when "Angie" was floored again and from the effects she had to be removed from the game. Because of this, the team had to be changed around. Rilma DeRemer, who was taking Genevieve Wright's place, was sent to forward in place of "Angie" and Loretta Harrington took Rilma's place at guard.

Once again play was resumed, and everyone noticed the quick change in Andover's team. With their captain sick in bed and their "big" right forward out of the game, the girls were handicapped; naturally any team would be with two of their main players out. But with all of this, Andover fought desperately to win and were doing nicely as the end of the first half showed, the score being 5-1 in Friendship's favor.

The second half began in great fashion, but in a few minutes everyone began to wonder if the Andover team had taken some stimulant between halves, they just seemed to be lost. The much crippled team was not able to get another point, and worst of all, they were unable to keep Friendship from scoring, because every time that Friendship got the ball, the loop just seemed to call to it, and it would go right thru. Friendship got 22 points the last half, the final score being 27-1 in Friendship's favor. Rose Harrington played a star game for Andover, and by doing so, she kept the rest of the team in a fighting spirit, till the last whistle. Veronica Conley, was the star for Friendship, she alone getting 25 of Friendship's 27 points.

The line-up as follows:

Friendship	Position	Andover
Verne Conley	R. F.	Edwards A.
		DeRemer R.
Veronica Conley	L. F.	Alvord
Dodson	C. Rose	Harrington
Reynolds	R. G.	Quigg
Rice	L. G.	DeRemer E.
		Harrington L.

Subs: Friendship, Hughitt, Dougherty. Andover, L. Harrington, Dasa DeRemer.

Scoring: Friendship field goals—Veronica Conley 12, Dodson 1, Fouls Veronica Farley 1.

Andover fouls: Rose Harrington 1. Referee: Miss Wood, Friendship. Umpire: E. J. Dawson, Andover. Timers: Scott, Friendship, Quigg Andover.

ANDOVER ROBBED OF VICTORY

Friendship Fans and Referee Win the Game

On Friday evening, Jan. 7, the Andover High School basketball team journeyed to Friendship, where they are going to play the third game of the series for the championship of Allegany County.

After the girls' game was finished, the boys took the floor and started their usual practice before a game. The "talented" young men of Friendship, who were occupying the sidelines tried their best to "kid" the Andover warriors, but anyone who is acquainted with these fellows know that "kidding" them is out of the question.

At last the referee's whistle blew and both teams took their positions on the court. The first rotten deal from the referee was called on Leahy. Leahy had a hand-ball with one of the Friendship players, and when the ball was tossed-up between them the referee called a foul on Leahy for not having his hand behind his back when he struck the floor with his feet coming down from the jump.
