

Albany Our Neighbors

South Hill

As is usual, the last of our January thaw has had a sudden and severe "freeze up," mercury below zero for three days in this locality.

Our mail carrier, Mr. Church, was a victim of the prevailing cold epidemic last week. His practice called as substitute one day on the route.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry mourn the loss of their babe born to them last week, at the home of John Ordway.

Mrs. Ella Casey was called to Oil City, Pa., last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Brown, of that city.

South Hill friends and former neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Horan sympathize with them in the death last week of their infant son.

Dr. Grenolds motored over the hill Tuesday on a professional visit.

D. J. Appier and family spent Sunday at the McAndrew home in Andover.

Mrs. Frank Holmes was on the hill Wednesday to spend the day with former neighbors.

Tip Top

About seventy-five of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick gathered at their home, Saturday evening, as a surprise. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

F. M. Lee accompanied his granddaughter, Miss Frances Williams of Andover, to New Rochelle, Friday, where she will enter school. He also visited relatives and friends in Plainfield and New Brunswick, New Jersey, returning home Tuesday.

Miss Kate McAndrew returned to Wellsville Tuesday to resume her work in the Erie depot, after a three week's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick spent Monday in East Valley, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Woodworth.

Mrs. W. E. Baker called on Mrs. LaRue Crandall in Andover, Saturday afternoon.

W. J. McAndrew was a Hornell visitor Wednesday.

Haskell DuBois, of Alfred University, called at T. G. Burdick's Saturday.

Mrs. F. M. Lee and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Williams, of Andover, were Hornell visitors Saturday.

Mrs. A. E. Baker is spending some time at the home of George McAndrew in Elm Valley.

E. V. Greene was an Almond visitor Wednesday.

Marjorie and Ralph Williams, of Andover, spent the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. F. M. Lee.

Roscoe Collins, of Belfast, spent Friday and Saturday at T. G. Burdick's.

Jerome Potter, Sr., spent the week-end with his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Sisson, at Alfred.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lanphear were guests of friends in Wellsville Wednesday.

F. M. Lee was a Hornell visitor Saturday.

Clifford Burdick and family, of Bess Hill were recent guests of L. C. Kenyon.

Several people from the Valley attended Grange in Alfred Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Chapman returned home Saturday after a week's visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Potter and son, of Five Corners, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baker were dinner guests at L. C. Kenyon's Sunday.

Miss Edna McAndrew returned to her school in Allegheny, Monday after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McAndrew.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burdick and son, Carol, were recent guests at T. G. Burdick's.

Jacob Farrel and sons of Cuba, who have been cutting logs in the valley for the past three months, have completed their work and returned home.

Miss Esthe Greene, of Alfred, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greene.

Elm Valley

The Ladies Aid took dinner with Mrs. Charles Cole this Thursday.

Preaching at the chapel Sunday at 3 P. M.; Sunday School at 2 P. M. Come and hear a good sermon from Rev. W. H. Smith of Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith of Andover were visiting at Sim Hann's Friday.

Mrs. Jonnie Howland was a week-end guest in Hornell.

Carrie B. Leonard has returned from the Wellville Sanitarium.

John Dodge had some ribs broken while working on the ice.

Mrs. Lottie Wahl passed last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. W. Stratton, at Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jenks and son, Jay, of Wellsville, Mrs. Jenks and Miss Grace Jenks, of Rushford, were visiting at Simeon Hann's Sunday.

Aunt Maggie Leonard passed the week with her nephew, W. L. Osborn.

Mrs. Chas. Dodge was shopping in Wellsville one day last week.

Mrs. Henry Wahl was visiting at Mrs. Wahl's one day last week.

Arthur Downer and Nellie Page are attending school at Andover.

Frank Mead was called to Andover by the sudden illness of his mother Sunday. She is no better at this writing.

Farmers are busy harvesting the ice crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dodge are enjoying the company of little Raymond who has come to make his home with them.

Sunny Side

Mrs. James Deery, who has been visiting Mrs. David Wagner, of Wellsville, returned home Sunday.

John Shea, who is in Rome finishing his education, writes quite often to relatives and friends. Those who are remembered by cards and tokens from that far off foreign city say that he is getting along nicely in his studies and likes it there.

A party of young folks called Sunday evening at Kathryn Ray's. Captain Burns and wife joined in the games and all had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Mary Hull spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Alex Bessetti, of Whitesville.

Several from here attended the Lyceum Photo Play at Wellsville Wednesday.

Miss Mary Brown was home for the week from her school duties, it being Regatta week.

Wilson Rockwell was a business caller in Wellsville Saturday.

Independence

Jan. 24.—A few days of real winter weather the last of the week.

Mrs. W. J. Potter is in Greenwood visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pease and family.

Miss Emma and Elsie Clarke were home from Alfred the last of the week.

Master John Jarvis Lewis is improving from a severe cold.

Mrs. Nora Burdick, of Alfred, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Grandall.

Jesse Grossman and Margaret are improving from their recent illness.

Mrs. M. A. Bassett was in Alfred Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Langworthy.

Mrs. Wye Ostrander returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Olean.

Lyle Nye is ill with grippe.

Regents this week so the students attending school at Whitesville, Andover and Wellsville were home a part of the week.

The Earnest Workers S. S. Class gave Miss Zereta Clarke a surprise Saturday evening.

Alfred

Jan. 18.—Prof. Isaac M. Wright of the department of Pedagogy at Tusculum College, Athens, Tenn., is to come to Alfred, N. Y., to give the Rayson Memorial Hall.

Dean Fitzworth, President Davis and Dean Main, together with Rev. A. Clyde Elyet were in Hornell Monday attending the meeting of the Hornell Ministers Association.

Last Tuesday at the faculty meeting Dr. Norwood spoke on "Being a Foreigner." Rev. and Mrs. Patterson Smith of Montreal, who were the guests of Mrs. Patterson's sister, Mrs. C. P. Bign, were guests at the meeting.

The preliminary contest for the Dr. Thomas World's Peace prize will be held the evening of Feb. 28th, and is open to all sophomores and juniors. This contest was established by Mrs. Vandella Varnum Thomas in honor of her husband and is an annual affair. The prizes are $50 and $25.

The orations are not over fifteen minutes in length and are required to be on some subject related to the continuance or furtherance of peace. Six contestants are selected from the preliminary contest for the final. The judges are President E. C. Davis and four teachers chosen by him. This test is private.

The final contest is in a public meeting, the three judges including one from another town and one a woman. This final is held April 7th.

President Davis and Dean Fitzworth returned Sunday evening from a trip to New York, Poughkeepsie and Yonkers. In New York both attended a meeting of the American colleges and were present in Yonkers at a meeting of the Church Board of Education.

Prof. Wingate announces that the Glee Club trips are coming on finely. On March 16th the club will go to New York City to attend the banquet of Alfred's New York Alumni. The club was unable to make the trip last year because of the weather. Preparations are now under way to go and the banquet has been postponed to a date convenient for the musicians.

Prof. Bign was in Albany this week and spoke before the business club on "The Spirit of The Potter."

Pres. and Mrs. Davis were called to Shiloh last week by the death of Mrs. Davis' father.

Director, Champlin of the Agricultural School is in Albany this week and Monday night attended a meeting of the Agricultural School directors of the state. President Davis joined him in Albany to-day and both attended a budget hearing for state schools.

About thirty young people of the town and college are planning to go to Alfred Station to-morrow night to hear Carlton Sherwood, state field director of Christian Endeavor work, who will speak there.

The Agricultural School Faculty Dams are having an informal supper at the school to-night in honor of Miss Angeline Wood, who leaves this week for New York where she is to take a course in Columbia University.

Alfred's basket ball quint left on the noon bus for a series of three games. They will meet Clarkson Tech., St. Lawrence University and Buffalo University before their return. The last game with Thield put the team in fair shape and showed what they could do, so we expect just one thing—that they will win.

Prof. Wingate, teacher of vocal in the university, has been appointed chairman of the examining committee in the Regents course in applied music for outside study in Hornell. He has also been requested to go to Painted Post next week for the purpose of leading in singing the Steuben County Teachers' Association.

Wellsville

Jan. 24.—A few days of real winter weather the last of the week.

Mrs. W. J. Potter is in Greenwood visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pease and family.

Miss Emma and Elsie Clarke were home from Alfred the last of the week.

Master John Jarvis Lewis is improving from a severe cold.

Mrs. Nora Burdick, of Alfred, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Grandall.

Jesse Grossman and Margaret are improving from their recent illness.

Mrs. M. A. Bassett was in Alfred Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Langworthy.

Mrs. Wye Ostrander returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Olean.

Lyle Nye is ill with grippe.

Regents this week so the students attending school at Whitesville, Andover and Wellsville were home a part of the week.

The Earnest Workers S. S. Class gave Miss Zereta Clarke a surprise Saturday evening.

Wellsville

Jan. 24.—A few days of real winter weather the last of the week.

Mrs. W. J. Potter is in Greenwood visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pease and family.

Miss Emma and Elsie Clarke were home from Alfred the last of the week.

Master John Jarvis Lewis is improving from a severe cold.

Mrs. Nora Burdick, of Alfred, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Grandall.

Jesse Grossman and Margaret are improving from their recent illness.

Mrs. M. A. Bassett was in Alfred Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Langworthy.

Mrs. Wye Ostrander returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Olean.

Lyle Nye is ill with grippe.

Regents this week so the students attending school at Whitesville, Andover and Wellsville were home a part of the week.

The Earnest Workers S. S. Class gave Miss Zereta Clarke a surprise Saturday evening.

Wellsville

Jan. 24.—A few days of real winter weather the last of the week.

Mrs. W. J. Potter is in Greenwood visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Pease and family.

Miss Emma and Elsie Clarke were home from Alfred the last of the week.

Master John Jarvis Lewis is improving from a severe cold.

Mrs. Nora Burdick, of Alfred, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Grandall.

Jesse Grossman and Margaret are improving from their recent illness.

Mrs. M. A. Bassett was in Alfred Saturday attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Langworthy.

Mrs. Wye Ostrander returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Olean.

Lyle Nye is ill with grippe.

Regents this week so the students attending school at Whitesville, Andover and Wellsville were home a part of the week.

The Earnest Workers S. S. Class gave Miss Zereta Clarke a surprise Saturday evening.

WHY PAY MORE?

When you can buy our Best, Extra Clear, RED CEDAR SHINGLES DELIVERED AT YOUR DOOR for $7.50 per square.

Hornell Lumber Company, Inc.

Call us up. HORNELL, N. Y.

Slip Your Foot Into a J & K Beauty and You'll Be Thrilled

The fit is perfect—the arch is snug—the style is seductive. The new

J & K Novelties

for Winter and Early Spring are the sensation of the entire country. You'll find the styles to be one hundred per cent perfect.

Our assortments substantiate our claim to being the most modern footwear store in Hornell.

See the new smart walking boots and try 'em on.

Burdette & McNamara

121 Main Street HORNELL, N. Y.

C. F. BABCOCK CO.

114-118 Main Street Hornell, New York

Our semi-annual sale was the greatest in years. Greatest because of conditions that permitted the values offered. Now comes the clean up preparatory to our annual inventory.

THESE VALUES AND PRICES WILL DO IT

Odds and Ends of Broken Lots of High Grade Merchandise

We find we have altogether too many short lengths of both materials—lengths that we do not wish to inventory. These Remnants, some of them dress patterns marked at sale prices, will be sold at 33 1-3 per cent from sale prices, which will make their prices at a fraction their present value. Many one-third original price. They will go rapidly. Shop early if you would profit by this.

REMNANTS OF PLAIDS REMNANTS OF PLAIN SILKS REMNANTS OF FANCY SILKS REMNANTS OF SILK AND COTTON	REMNANTS OF COATINGS REMNANTS OF SUITINGS REMNANTS OF DRESS GOODS REMNANTS OF SKIRTINGS
All colors left in 54-inch All Wool Velours. Values $5.00 to $5.75 $1.98 yard	One piece 40-inch high lustre, beautiful Black Dress Satin, pure dye. Just received Pre-inventory $2.75 yard

Balance of Winter Coats and Suits at Half Price

Lot fine soft finished Percales, shirting patterns. Value 29c yard To close 15c yard

Best grade Merrill's Full Fashioned Silk Hose $1.98 pair

Lot Women's Hose, Black and White, 25c grade. To close 13c pair

Lot of Braids and Dress Trimmings at Half price

Lot new models Kabo and Warner Corsets. Value $2.50 To close $1.50

Lot fine quality To close at 25 to 33 1-3 per cent discount