

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Feb. 2. — The football ground hog is out in front of his shadow. Friends and former South Hill neighbors of Mike Dougherty are pleased to see him in his condition at St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell.

Mrs. John Knoch, of Wellsville, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Appier and family, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, of Andover, were Sunday guests at the home of Jim Dean.

Louis Dean was a Wellsville visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Dan Appier and son, Richard, are spending a few days with Wellsville relatives.

Henry Moran was busy on the farm with Leo, a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Ella Casey returned last Thursday from Oil City, Pa.

Our roads are again passable for autos.

Advice is still on the free list and "you can take it or leave it" our farmers think, when they read such items as the following in their local papers. "A good time now to get ready spray outfits, and materials you are going to use." Mr. Farmer-man is "just now" too sore on the present price of the crop he sprayed last year, to work up any enthusiasm over sprayers, or sprays with top notch price attached.

Alfred

Alfred, Feb. 2. — Alfred's purple quint went down to defeat at the hands of the St. Lawrence in the St. Lawrence University gymnasium last Wednesday night, by a score of 34-15. The game was hard fought thru-out and at the middle of the opening half Alfred led by a score of 5-4. The narrow court proved the undoing of the purple players, however, and in the final five minutes of the first period St. Lawrence tallied freely. The score at half time was 18-5.

Entering the final period, Alfred put forth every endeavor to cut down the scarlet lead but managed to score ten points to 10 by their opponents. Both teams passed and guarded well but the St. Lawrence managed to find the net more easily. The purple men missed many comparatively easy shots for the basket while the home team made good on practically all their close-up tosses. The final score was 34-15.

St. Lawrence has thus far gone thru the season undefeated and they presented a strong line-up. Inability of Alfred's men to locate the basket at opportune times was the real cause of their defeat.

The line-up:

Alfred	St. Lawrence
Campbell	R. F. Barker
Bob Witter	L. F. Weller
Ray Witter	C. Sheard
Holley	R. G. Bird
	L. G. Alwood

Referee: Sisson, Darmouth
 Scores, Wesbecher
 Score, 34-15.

Y. W. C. A. Program for 1921.

"To live as a true follower of Christ" is the theme chosen by the Y. W. C. A. for the year 1921. The new programs are out and they promise some interesting meetings for the term. The girls meet at 7 o'clock, Sunday nights, in the Y. W. rooms in the Brick. A short song service is held and leaders present helpful messages. The topics and leaders for 1921 are as follows:

Jan. 9. "Beginning to Follow Him," Emma Schroeder, Audrey Haynes;
 Jan. 16. "The Guide Book for Finding the Way,"
 Louisa Ackerly, Elizabeth Ayars;
 Jan. 23. "Following Him as He Talked With God,"
 Ada Walsh, Dorothy Boyd;
 Jan. 30. "Following Him on the Campus,"
 Margaret Glaspey, Anna Crofoot;
 Feb. 6. "Following Him in the Industrial World,"
 Eloise Clarke, Joyce Baldwin;
 Feb. 13. "Following Him in Other Lands,"
 China Mrs. Holmes;
 Feb. 20. "Church Adventures,"
 Winifred and Gladys Greene;
 Feb. 27. "Following Him Thru Friendships,"
 Julia O'Brien, Fredericka Vossler;
 Mar. 6. "Following Him Thru Music,"
 Ruth Stillman;
 Mar. 13. Forum—
 "What is Living as a True Follower of the Lord Jesus Christ?"
 Sarah F. Randolph;
 Mar. 20. "A Caste Meeting,"
 World Fellowship Committee.

THE HAND OF THE CORPORATIONS

The corporation system that is now in control at Albany plainly shows its hand when they increased railroad fares sixty per cent and cut workmen's wages twenty-five per cent, all in the same twenty-four hours.
