A PLACE ON PROGRAM

Signed Community Newspaper Day Scheduled for Farmers' Week at Cornell, on February 17

The importance and value of the local weekly newspaper is again to be stressed at Farmers' Week, at Cornell, this year. Last year's "community newspaper day" proved so successful that another had been arranged for Thursday, February 17, the fourth day of Farmers' Week.
 The program is scheduled to begin at 10 A. M. with a talk on advertising for farmers by a member of the college staff. At 11, John Rodemeyer, a Connecticut country editor, will be heard on "The Place and Purpose of the Country Paper." At noon, Mabel G. Feint, a highly successful country correspondent of Dryden, will have as her subject, "The Country Correspondent." At 3 P. M. a member of the college staff will speak on "The Country Paper — the Best Farm Journal," and at 4 o'clock the round-table conference will be held.

Contest Main Feature

But the main feature of the day it is expected will be the four contests for which ribbon prizes will be awarded. First, second and third awards will be made for the best front page make-up, for the best make-up of inside pages, for the best editorial page, for the best local farm news.
 The college has asked the publishers of The Andover News to enter some or all of these contests.

JAMES CRAIG OF CANASERAGA DIES

James Craig, of Canaseraga, a pioneer resident of this section and for years a leading business man of that village, died yesterday in a Buffalo Hospital, at the age of 91. Mr. Craig had suffered from ill health for several weeks before his death.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Harry and Walter Craig, both of Canaseraga and Charlotte Craig, also of that village. The funeral will be held from Mr. Craig's late home on Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

PRICES ARE LOWER

The Toboggan works fine now at our store

As rapidly as possible we are reducing prices on all of our stock of dry goods and house furnishings. We are buying now only a sufficient quantity of each article to supply the immediate demand. In this way we take advantage of all reductions in the wholesale market as fast as they occur and make correspondingly lower prices to our own customers.
