DURWOOD JUMP

Alfred, N. Y., Feb. 11.—Durwood Jump, Ag. 22, the victim of a severe injury in the Thanksgiving day football game with Thiel College at Greenville, Pa., died last Friday morning, at Spencer Hospital, Meadville, Pa., after an almost superhuman struggle for life. His death comes after a seeming recovery, and has caused keen sorrow to his class-mates and friends here.

Durwood lacked just twelve days of being twenty-one years old. He was born in Fenfield, Monroe Co., January 16, 1900. Orphaned at the age of fourteen, he came to the home of his uncle, Frank Eaton, a prominent business man of Perry. Here Durwood spent the remainder of his life up to the time he entered Lawrenceville Academy. In the fall of 1920 he came to Alfred where he had earned the respect and love of all the students and faculty.

At the Alfred-Thiel game, Thanksgiving day Durwood was fatally injured and taken to Meadville where he remained in the Spencer Hospital over two months. Every medical aid was given him and the services of Dr. Gamble, one of the most skilled surgeons in Northern Pennsylvania, were secured.

On January 15th Durwood was pronounced well enough to return and resume routine to his friends in Meadville he went to the station.

On the way he dropped suddenly to unconsciousness and was taken back to the hospital. Blood poisoning spread rapidly thru his body and he died last Friday.

A delegation of about forty students attended the funeral of Durwood Jump, a student of the State Agricultural School who was fatally injured in the Alfred-Thiel football game, last Thanksgiving day, at Penfield, N. Y., yesterday afternoon. Services were held first in Perry, at the home of Durwood Jump's uncle, Frank Eaton, Dr. Graper of the First Baptist Church officiating. President Davis spoke a few words which however well that out could express but little of the deep appreciation and love that Alfred University feels for its former student and classmate. The body was later taken to Penfield where interment was made. The bearers were members of Alfred's football team: Arthur Fox, now of Rochester; John Seares, Ray Witter, J. McIntyre and C. Swanson.

Alfred University's second assembly dance was held in the Academy Thursday night from 8 until 12. It was presided over by an unusually large attendance and much enjoyment to all. There will dress suits and dresses were in evidence than usual in the grand march which began promptly at 10 and continued until midnight.

The class of '22 is hard at work on three new plays to be given in the coming year.

Following Christ on the Campus was the topic of Y. W. meeting at the Friday night taken by Elsie Clark and Joyce Baldwin. Mrs. Clark had given deep thought to her subject and stated very concisely and clearly the various points of lightening the burden of the student of today, and other forces which perpetuate the same.

February 1, 1922, 9:30 P. M. — Probably the biggest social ever given in the town of Alfred took place at the home of Mrs. C. S. Lusk Tuesday evening. The affair was a grand success and the attendance was very large. The program was well planned and the entertainment was of a high order. The dancing was particularly popular and the evening was a most enjoyable one.

COUNTY COURT IS HELD AT BELMONT

F. D. Muck of Wellsville Fined $50 for Selling Cigarettes to a Minor. Other Went Over

Belmont, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The February term of county court which convened in Belmont, Monday, was presided over by Justice Norton, of Wyoming County, owing to illness of Judge Elba Reynolds, says the Wellsville Reporter. The crisis to be ground out in the mill of justice was a light one outside of the seventeen indictments against Allegany County alleged violators of the law. The old saying that "the wheels of the gods grind slowly" may be true, but the wheels of the Allegany County court were running on high Monday, and the business before the court was run off in one day. The following indictments were presented and disposed of:

John Straka of Cuba, indicted for selling liquor without a license. Entered a plea of not guilty, thru his attorney, M. B. Jewell. Bail fixed at $1,000 and case went over term.

Joseph Hasciulawsky of Cuba, indicted for selling liquor without a license, also pleaded not guilty, gave

Frank Nigal of Wellsville, under indictment for selling liquor without a license, gave bail for $1,000 and case went over.

The case of the People vs. Joe Lowe of Cuba, burglary, third degree, went over. Lowe had no attorney and bail was fixed at $1,000.

John A. Gentry of Belfast, indicted for abandoning his child, the people acting as prosecutors, entered a plea of guilty, but on account of extenuating circumstances sentence was suspended, Gentry being required by the court to report at the October term.

Frank O'Connell, Theo. C. Kane, George DeBarbieri, Mary Congelli, all of Wellsville, each entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of selling cigarettes to minors, gave bail for $200 each and cases went over term.

James M. Hoover of Wellsville, indicted for maintaining a punch board, entered a plea of not guilty. Bail was fixed at $500 and case went over term.

F. D. Mucky of Wellsville, indicted for selling cigarettes to a minor, appeared in his own behalf. Mr. Mucky entered a plea of guilty and when questioned by the judge, acknowledged he had been convicted, or at least had been before the court in Allegany County before on a charge of law violation. When asked what fine was imposed for a previous violation, Mr. Mucky, as he remembered it, said the fine imposed and which he paid was $800. The justice was inclined to think that Mr. Mucky, having pled guilty to the indictment as charged should again pay a fine and stipulated that the fine in this instance would be $50 and a jail sentence of 60 days. The jail sentence was suspended and Mr. Mucky was told by Judge Norton, in words to the effect that hereafter he had bet-
