MARRIAGE ON THE YUKON

An Extract Taken From a Letter Received in Andover From a Friend in Alaska.

In Alaska cupid is somewhat handicapped, but the little love god gets in his work just the same. Clerks of courts are not numerous.

Ten miles from the Yukon, On the banks of this lake For a partner to the Yoyukuk McGillis I'll take.

I swear by my gee-pole, Under this tree, A faithful husband to Aggie I always will be.

For two dollars apiece In cheehee money I unite this couple In holy matrimony.

FISHING IN BOYHOOD DAYS

Glorious Time When Mother Kept Supper—and Prepared the Five Little Sunfish.

The city man who was the country boy of yesterday closes his eyes a few minutes and lives over again a summer afternoon of long ago.

No other grown person praised his catch. In all the world he and mother alone recognized how wonderful that she didn't ask him where the bass were.

The story here that draws you to the more will draw others — so don't delay the order of your going.
