Reportorial

—Mrs. Martha Bloss is clerking in the Andover Bargain Store.
—There are 45 inmates at the County Home, at Angelica, at present.
—The home of Mrs. Rose Horton, at Rushford, was badly damaged by fire Monday of last week.
—Clarence Cochrane has purchased a farm near Belmont, near the Frank Martin farm. He moved his family there this week.
—Mrs. Nettie Barney has had the side porch on her residence enclosed with wire netting and glass. Chas. Updyke did the work.
—Miss R. E. Amey, of 264 West Chemung Place, Elmira, a trained nurse, has been in Andover caring for Mrs. Estella Richardson in her last illness.
—Mrs. Cynthia Hadsell, of Angelica, was found dead May 4th, at her home, when her son came home from work at noon. Neighbors saw her in the yard at 11 o'clock.
—Belmont has now been officially designated as an outpost of the state police for Allegany County, and two troopers, Messrs. Ireland and Metler, will be stationed there.
—Mr. and Mrs. Claire S. Andrus, of Bolivar, received a telegram last week stating that the body of their son, Claire Kenyon Andrus, would arrive at Hoboken, N. J., on May 7th, and be brought to Bolivar for burial. Mr. Andrus died of influenza in France on October 5, 1918, on his 25th birthday. He was a member of Co. M, 118th regiment, and was a runner in the lines.

Window glass is quoted to have declined 21 per cent. in price.
—Allison Baker has moved his family into the Dougherty house, on Chestnut Street.
—Albion farmers have drawn out tons of cabbage and onions spreading them on the land as fertilizer.
—Harold Dawson was unable to attend his duties at the J. S. P. Cannon Store, the first of the week, on account of illness.
—The missionary meeting of the Presbyterian Church will be held with Mrs. Arling Baker, Tuesday afternoon, May 17th, at 3 o'clock.
—The New York Glee Club gave a pleasing entertainment Tuesday evening, at the Auditorium, the last number of the lecture course.
—Golf Cross Coffee enjoys the largest sale of any coffee sold in this section. As Post says, "There's a reason." Try it on our guarantee-of-satisfaction.
—Mrs. Ralph Temple received a message Thursday morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. Warren Gray of Hornell, whose death followed a surgical operation.
—A daughter was born last Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cleveland, at the home of Mrs. Cleveland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker. The little lady has been named, Mary Louise.
—Dr. J. N. Norwood, professor of Alfred University, has been engaged to deliver the Memorial address in Andover this year. Dr. Norwood is one of Allegany County's most able speakers, and all will enjoy his address.
—Receiving ten cents for every set of plates they hand out, county clerks will distribute next year's automobile license plates, except in Albany County and New York City, where the present automobile bureaus will be retained.
—A card from Dr. Grenolds at Cristobal, states that they are having fine June weather with all kinds of tropical fruits and "niggers." They expect to go to Costa Rica and Cuba before returning home.
—The building committee of the State Odd Fellows Home Association at Lockport announced having awarded to L. A. Willet of Buffalo a contract for building an addition to the home at his bid of $26,500. Twenty-four large sleeping rooms will be provided. The capacity of the home now is 66 rooms.

The Interscholastic Meet will be held at Alfred next Wednesday.
—The Library Institute of this district will be held this afternoon at the Andover Library.
—Two cans of pike-perch fry have been planted in the river near Belvidere by the Belmont Rod and Gun Club.
—The Baptist Ladies Missionary Society met with Mrs. L. M. Trowbridge, Tuesday, for their regular monthly meeting.
—A large congregation listened to the fine Mothers' Day sermon by Rev. Hamilton B. Williams, at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning.
—Undertaker C. E. Brown is building a sleeping porch and having other alterations made for his residence on Main Street. C. E. Hann is the carpenter in charge.
—The body of Captain Walton B. Clarke was brought to Alfred last Saturday for interment from Okmulgee, Okla., where his death occurred May 3rd from pneumonia.
—Mrs. Ralph Temple entertained the Entree Nous Club, at her home, on Pleasant Avenue, Monday evening. Mrs. Mark Sheppard, a former member of the club, was the guest of honor.
—Earl G. Kingsley, receiver for the Howden and Hardy Bank at Rushford, has received a letter dated Richmond, Va., April 29, 1921, enclosing a check for $500, and a letter from C. J. Howden in which he states it is his intention to send other checks and in time to pay in full his indebtedness to the firm.

—The S. D. Baptist Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. V. G. Graves Tuesday afternoon, for a business and social meeting.
—Atty. Wm. G. Kellogg, of Greenwood, has been appointed Highway Superintendent for Steuben County. The position carries a good salary.
—Mrs. Ray Collins was brought home Monday from the Wellsville Hospital, where she has been several weeks. Her friends are trusting she may gain rapidly.
—The auction sale of Garvin Bros. and Mullen, Tuesday, drew a good crowd. Their sixty cows were sold around $60 each, and other goods brought just a good average price.
—An automobile, driven by Stanley Mahoney, of Angelica, overturned May 1st, near Savona, when it was struck by a large touring car. Mrs. Schram, of Corning, were injured. Others of the party escaped with slight injuries.
—Newspapers in Arkansas have been warned to cease printing advertisements of oil companies for the sale of stock until the state banking department has investigated and given the companies a clean bill of health. This action is taken under the Blue Sky law.
—John W. Miller, of Wellsville, was in Andover Wednesday, in the interest of the Allegany County Bible School Convention, which is to be held in Andover, May 27-29. Mr. Miller says there will be 500 men in line in the parade Friday evening, May 27, 250 of whom will come from his town.
—An accident occurred last Sunday afternoon between Andover and Alfred, when Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hollowell and Miss Roxie Hollowell were on their way to Canisteo. Two cars were traveling so close together one going past the other, and Mr. Hollowell, seeing that he couldn't keep from getting run into, turned toward the ditch and struck a sluice turning the car over. It happened that no one was injured.
—Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Graves had a narrow escape from an auto accident last Saturday while driving their runabout near the cement bridge this side of Hornell. A high power car came so close to them that a quick turn of the wheel was all that saved the smaller machine, as it was the wheels were crumpled so that the front one were smashed.
