ROD AND GUN CLUB GETS TROUT

The Rod and Gun Club received 25,000 speckling brook trout from the state hatcheries at Bemus Point, Monday afternoon, on train 26.

The club placed the trout in the streams near here, namely Dykes Creek, the Spring Run, Indian Creek, Guile Hollow, Shovel Hollow and East Valley.

These streams are all good trout streams and by using a little care in the handling of the trout good fishing can be assured in this locality.

The state is perfectly willing to send these fish out where they are assured of good care.

ROAD TURNS OVER

While enroute to Alfred Wednesday to attend the field and track meet, Charles Clark, accompanied by the Misses Sylvia Reins and Loretta Harrington and Daniel Flynn, had a narrow escape from a serious accident.

As the party were going toward Alfred a large car came up behind them at a fast rate of speed and wanted all the road. Charles pulled out of the road quickly and when he went to get back into the road again a front wheel broke, throwing the Ford car he was driving over on its side.

The car was going slowly or it would have turned completely over.

The young people all escaped with minor bruises and cuts, Charles getting a bad cut on the wrist, Daniel Flynn a black eye and the young ladies badly shaken up and bruised.

LADIES ATTENTION!
