THE U. S. WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

Latest Price Quotations Received From the U. S. Bureau of Markets Covering Produce and Feeds

(Washington, D. C., for the week ending May 28, 1921.)

HAY: Receipts exceedingly light in central west but demand equally limited. Prices steady. Trading very narrow. Eastern and Southern markets inactive. Quoted May 27. No. 1. Timothy, New York $29.50, Cincinnati $22, Atlanta $31; Memphis $26, Chicago $22; No. 1 alfalfa, Memphis $27, Atlanta $33; No. 1 prairie, Kansas City $15, Memphis $16.

FEED: Higher wheat prices caused increase in flour buying and trade looks for lower wheatfeed prices on prospects of increased milling. Feed market generally dull but not quotably lower. Cottonseed meal quoted lower in Cincinnati and few other markets as export demand dropped off; stocks in country dealers hands heavy. Linseed meal steady with buyers offering about 50c per ton under mill prices. Alfalfa meal neglected; offerings and demand light. Corn feeds in poor demand. Stocks of most feeds remain larger than usual for this season of year. Rain has improved pasturage in principal feeding sections and feed sales are light. Quoted bran $15.50, middlings $15, Minneapolis; No. 1 alfalfa meal $24 Chicago, $22 St. Louis; gluten feed $26.50 Chicago; white hominy feed $22 St. Louis, $24 Chicago; linseed meal $31.50 Chicago; 36 per cent. cottonseed meal $30 Atlanta, $32 Cincinnati.

GRAIN: Prices advanced sharply account bad crop reports and hot dry weather in winter wheat belt, but advance terminated on the 26th on much needed rains in Southwest. Export demand for wheat and corn good at times. On the 28th prices held with comparatively narrow limits on evening up for double holiday. Crop reports now are favorable. In Chicago cash market No. 2 red winter wheat $1.88; No. 2 hard $1.68; No. 3 mixed corn 64c; No. 3 yellow 64c; No. 2 white oats 39 1/2c. For the week Chicago May wheat up 4c at $1.69 1/2. ANNUAL ALLEGANY COUNTY HOME BUREAU SPRING RALLY

C. W. Whitney, of Cornell University, will lead the Community Singing, at the annual Allegany County Home Bureau Spring Rally to be held in Friendship, on June 16th. In the morning local speakers will describe what the Home Bureau has done for their community. Between the morning and afternoon sessions a picnic lunch will be served. The afternoon session will be taken up with addresses by Mr. C. W. Whitney, Mrs. A. E. Bridgen, president of the State Federation of Home Bureaus, and a director of the Monroe County Home Bureau.

C. W. Whitney is connected with the Department of Rural School Organization of Cornell University, and has charge of the recreational work throughout the state. Mr. Whitney will present the plan of developing local leaders in recreation, which includes community singing, games and stunts. Allegany County is among the three counties of the state which may secure Mr. Whitney for intensive work in recreation this fall. This opportunity is open to every one who is interested in the work.

Mrs. A. E. Bridgen is well known throughout New York State as a pleasing and forceful speaker. Mrs. A. E. Bridgen is a member of the committee of 21 and will be able to give first hand information about the work of this committee and its investigations in the Rural School situation.

Monroe County not including Rochester has secured a membership of over a $300. The Home Bureau directors of that county have made this large membership possible. One of the directors will be present at the Spring Rally to explain how the Membership Campaign was carried on.

The Mothers Club and the Business Men of Friendship have pledged their support in helping to make this Spring Rally successful. Women from all over the county are planning to attend this meeting and the Home Bureau manager is assured that every community in the county will be well represented.
