South Hill

June 29.—Those recent fine showers were just the right thing in the right time.

A number of our residents were on Pingree Hill, Saturday afternoon, at a lawn raising for Jim Dean.

Miss Lenora Dean is home from Salamanca for the summer vacation.

Ray Hurlburt and family were Wellsville visitors Saturday.

Tom Dean, of Elmira, agent for the Conn. Life Insurance Com., was a brief visitor on the hill Friday.

The marriage of Rob. Dean, of our hill, and Miss Rosa Doran, of Andover was solemnized in Blessed Sacrament Church, Wednesday morning.

Their many South Hill friends unite in congratulations and good wishes for a prosperous and happy journey down the stream of life. The same felicitations are extended to James Lynch (a former South Hill resident) and bride, Miss Irene Dower, of Buffalo, who was also married Wednesday in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keough, of Wellsville, James Boyle and family, of Belfast, and the Misses Nora and Eva McAndrew, of Andover, enjoyed a motor trip on the hill Sunday, and dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Appier.

The families of P. A. and Jim Dean and the Misses Mary and Lenora Dean attended the Doran-Dean wedding in Andover Wednesday.

MAN HE WAS LOOKING FOR

Old Goldstein Bigpurse Had Good Job for Burglar Who Had Been Boyhood Chum.

"Who's there?"

This snappy question shot forth from the lips of Goldstein Bigpurse, owner of one of the finest offices near the Mansion house.

"Only me," came the answer, and the burglar turned his lantern upon himself at once and on each side of him to show that he was telling the truth.

"You're a multi-millionaire."

"You? Why, so it is! You—Bill Bluffem, my school chum, my faithful companion in all schoolboy pranks. Great Scott! And fallen to such depths!"

"Well!" exclaimed Burglar Bill. "If it ain't Goldie, me old pal! I know all about you. You're president of one of the largest financial kindicates in this country, and I ain't nothin' but a common, ordinary burglar. Boo-hoo! If you let me go this wunst, I promise never to let you catch me again! Will yer?"

"It has," laughed the financier. "Let you go? Well, I should say not! Never! For I'm going to make you a partner in the kindicate. For years I have been looking for a man with the proper training."

So saying, the two pals embraced each other fondly.—Houston Post.

SNAGS IN LIFE'S CURRENT

Are Something That It is the Part of Wisdom for All of Us to Avoid.

A young woman in a rage with her fiancé for some apparently inexcusable oversight, exclaimed: "I never can forgive him—never!" Her grandmother, sitting near, looked up from her knitting. "I felt the same way one day nearly 50 years ago," she said quietly. "Today I cannot recall what it was I could not forgive, but the emptiness of life that resulted is still in my mind. Don't get hung up on a snag in the stream, my dear. Snags alone are not so dangerous—it's the debris that clings to them that makes the trouble. Pull yourself loose and go on."

In our judgment we must first get rid of the "eternal self," we must learn to look at the fault wholly in its relation to the person to whom it belongs, not in its relation to ourselves. None of us is created perfect, and few—if any—attain perfection. The most we can attain is a perfect understanding of this fact, and a self-control that will enable us to pull loose from the snag and go on with the main stream of life which in other respects is in harmony with ours; not stay hung up, emphasizing the snag and giving it more weight than the stream itself. To be able to ignore it when the most striking of grace.—Anne Shannon Monroe in Good Housekeeping.

Nation Without Language.

One of the strangest things to be found among the nations of the world is the fact that Switzerland has no language of its own. The official languages of Switzerland are French, Italian and German, all three being recognized as the "mother tongue" of the majority of the inhabitants.

A majority of the people speak German, while the others use French and Italian, varying as a rule, according to the proximity of the people to each country whose tongue they speak.

Public documents and notices are printed in both the French and German languages.

In the Swiss national parliament the members speak their respective native language, and the members of the French and German delegations are familiar with two languages at the same time.

Statements from the President of Switzerland are furnished to the news papers in both languages.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bassett were in Alfred Saturday.

The church and parsonage have been treated to a new coat of paint which is a decided improvement.

Mrs. C. M. Crandall and children are spending a few days with her mother in Alfred.

The Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor Society will sell ice cream at the Parish House, Saturday evening, July 2nd.

"VERDICT BY JUDGE LYNCH"

Just Where That Famous Jurist First Held Court Has Long Been Matter of Dispute.

"Lynch law" is purely an Americanism. Its origin is somewhat in doubt. No such law is on the statute books, and the application of the expression today refers to outlaw or mob law which circumvents the written law, or inflicts a swift punishment before the legal authorities have had a chance to take action.

Figuratively speaking, such an act is called "a verdict by Judge Lynch." According to one authority, one Charles Lynch, a patriot of Virginia, conspired with Robert Adams and Thomas Callaway, to deal out relentlessly and unhesitatingly, punishment to all law breakers and Tories during the days of our Revolution.

However, this origin is disputed. Some say that there was a small body of water known as "Lynch creek" in North Carolina during the same period in our history, and that on its shores a court martial was held over the lifeless body of a Tory who had been hanged to prevent his rescue. Naturally, the verdict was death by hanging, and the judge did not have to bother about the execution of the sentence.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Efficient Spending.

The measure of real necessity is surprisingly small. When one finds the medium ground between prodigality and stinginess he will realize that he can live there, even though his income may be moderate. Greater moderation in many things would leave us a healthier and happier race, to say nothing of what it would do for our bank accounts. Certainly, before buying a thing one should honestly ask himself whether he needs it. He should, likewise, give himself an honest answer.

The second principle of efficient spending is that when one has honestly decided that he needs a thing he should buy the best he can get. If one buys at all, it pays to search the market for an article of high quality. Moreover, he is very apt not to find an article of high grade unless he does search the market rather carefully.

Ads That Will Add

to your sales is what you want—and what you will get if you advertise properly.

Advertisements that reach your prospective customers is what you want as a most direct method of putting your products in the most effective manner before them.

Your local paper is the medium that puts your very words beneath the eyes of those who are looking for just the articles you may be marketing.

Do not hesitate. A minute lost in advertising is days lost in the rising to prominence of your merchandise.

We must show all people what we have to sell before they will buy.

The most practical way of showing them is to get them to the very spot.

And the way to get them there is to
