

Bulletin No. 3

About July 5th, we expect to publish Bulletin No. 3, listing thereon land, cattle, horses, hay, feed, grain, etc., that any farmer may wish to sell or buy.

This bulletin will be mailed to about 400 farmers in this vicinity and no charge is made for listing your "WANT" and "FOR SALE" items.

Send us the information as you wish it published and we will do the rest as a part of the service we wish to render in helping the farmers in the marketing of their products.

DICK HAMMOND NARROWLY ESCAPES INJURY

R. K. Hammond came near getting seriously injured Sunday evening, when his automobile ran away with him.

Dick was doing some work on the car in front of the Elm Street garage and in some way somebody put the machine in reverse.

During his repairing he wanted to test the pump, so instead of getting into the car to start the motor he stood on the ground and pushed the starter with his hand.

The engine started right off and the gasoline was turned on sufficiently to start the car moving backward across the pavement.

Thinking he could get it back into neutral Dick hung on to the car trying to pull the shifting lever.

The car went across the street and before he realized it had him caught between the car and the side of a house on the other side of the street.

He managed by quick action to get out of the predicament with a few scratches, but if it had not been for the warning given him by the men in front of the garage he undoubtedly would not have seen the situation quick enough to have saved himself from serious injuries.

The car backed into a nearby tree and stopped, doing little damage to the machine.

NOTICE! The meeting of the W. C. T. U. to have been held this afternoon with Mrs. Brewster, has been taken up.

Notice and date for the picnic will be given in the News later.

By order of the President.

There was an old geesee And he had a lot of sense, He started up a business On a dollar eighty cents.

The dollar for stock, And the eighty for an ad, Brought him three lovely dollars In a day, by dad!

Well, he bought more goods And a little more space, And he played that system With a smile on his face.

The customers flocked To his two-by-four And soon he had to hustle For a regular store;

Up on the square Where the people pass He gobbled up a corner That was all plate glass.

He fixed up the windows With the best that he had, And told them all about it In a half-page ad.

He soon had 'em coming And he never, never quit, And he wouldn't cut down On his ads, one jit.

And he's kept things humming In the town ever since, And everybody calls him The Merchant Prince.

Some say it's luck But that's all bunk — Why, he was doing business When times were punk.

People have to purchase And the geesee was wise — For he knew the way to get 'em Was to advertise. — Exchange.
