SOME CUTTING REPLIES

An Irishman visiting a friend in hospital began to take an interest in the other patients.

"What are you in here for?" he asked one.

"I've got tonsillitis, and I've got to have my tonsils cut out," was the answer.

Pat appeared uneasy.

"And you?" he asked another.

"I had an ulcerated tooth they had to pull out, and then operate on the gum," the patient replied.

Again Pat was disturbed.

"And you?" he asked another.

"I've got blood poisoning in the arm, and they're going to cut it off," was the reply.

In horror Pat cried, "This ain't no place for me. I've got a cold in my head."

PICNICKED

The "Inasmuch" and W. F. M. S. societies of the M. E. Church dined together in picnic style at the beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert, last Saturday afternoon. Cars conveyed the party to the ideal spot, and as always, "the best time yet" was enjoyed, as the Eggerts never spare pains to entertain their guests.
