Rev. Frances E. Clarke of Boston Mass., was recently elected president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union.

Quite a number of Andover people were in attendance at the Barnum & Bailey & Ringling circus at Hornell, Tuesday.

The Sawyer General Store at Richburg has been purchased by I. C. Smyth of Leroy, N. Y., who will take immediate possession.

The school house at West Union was destroyed by fire July 4th. It is believed the building was set afire. The property carried a small insurance, not adequate for rebuilding.

Atty. C. L. Farley, George Calhoun and E. W. Sandberg made a trip thru Cattaraugus County recently in the interest of Andover Heading Company. This mill is developing into one of Andover's leading industries, giving employment to sixteen people. Since the cyclone last year they have done great work in getting out lumber and timber for use of the people in this vicinity in rebuilding.

ANOTHER CAR MAKES A LEAP OVER BRIDGE
Shortly before 3 o'clock Wednesday a big Chandler sedan running at high speed, missed the turn at Goff's bridge on the Almond road and leaped into the creek. The car turned turtle and was badly demolished.

Another car picked up a man and a woman and rushed them to the Bethesda Hospital, at Hornell, where it was learned that they are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gage, middle aged residents of Olean. They were starting out on a motoring trip. Mr. Gage is the most seriously hurt and may die. Mrs. Gage is painfully injured but her condition is not regarded as critical.

BEES HAVE BEEN HOUSEKEEPING TWO YEARS IN THE WALLS OF THE SPENCER M. E. CHURCH AT HORNELL. A bee expert, Mr. Moogan, of Canisteo, has been engaged to clear them from the building, which he expects to do by inserting up their entrances and inserting a large pipe in one leading to a large hive thru which he expects the bees to travel, removing the 500 pounds of honey, which Mr. Moogan estimates is stored in the church walls, thru the pipe into the new hive.

PATRIK DOHERTY, 60 YEARS OF AGE, OF DANVILLE, MET DEATH TUESDAY MORNING, IN A STRANGE MANNER. Mr. Doherty was driving his automobile near the village and was caught under the curb by a rope stretched across the road which was connected to a hay fork being used in unloading hay in a barn. The man was hurled from the car backward a distance of seventy feet. His neck was broken.

Reportorial

—The woodwork on the Atwood apartment is being re-painted this week.

The chimney which was blown down from the S. D. Baptist Church in the cyclone has been rebuilt.

Rev. Frances E. Clarke of Boston Mass., was recently elected president of the World's Christian Endeavor Union.

Quite a number of Andover people were in attendance at the Barnum & Bailey & Ringling circus at Hornell, Tuesday.

The Sawyer General Store at Richburg has been purchased by I. C. Smyth of Leroy, N. Y., who will take immediate possession.

Among the list of winners in the sports contest at Whitesville, the Fourth, we note the name "D. Baker, Andover" 2nd. for the broad jump.

Mrs. Will Bines is at the Bethesda Hospital, Hornell, where she underwent a surgical operation last Wednesday. At this writing her condition is reported favorable.

A bogus check writer has been reported as operating in Olean, Hinsdale, Cuba and Friendship, recently. The party, a woman, gave checks on the local banks in payment for purchases made at the stores.

The Ladies Aid Society of the S. D. Baptist Church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Edson Langworthy for a business and social meeting. There were fifteen present, a tureen supper served and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

Rev. D. M. Sutton, occupied the pulpit in the Seventh Day Baptist Church at Alfred Station, Saturday, during the absence of their pastor, Rev. W. M. Simpson, who was in attendance at the Christian Endeavor Convention held in New York City.

The News is indebted to J. D. Cheesman for a cartoon of Butter-Kist peanuts, fresh from his new peanut roaster. These peanuts were electrically roasted, the Butter-Kist way and had a delightful flavor unobtainable by the old-fashioned roaster way.

A six cylinder Oakland touring car, owned by Victor A. Borden, of Westfield, Pa., was stolen from the Fair grounds at Hornell, about 10:20 o'clock, last evening, and no trace of it has been found. The police believe a band of automobile thieves have been following the circus, as there have been cars stolen in nearly every town the circus has visited recently.

Bees have been housekeeping two years in the walls of the Spencer M. E. Church at Hornell. A bee expert, Mr. Moogan, of Canisteo, has been engaged to clear them from the building, which he expects to do by inserting up their entrances and inserting a large pipe in one leading to a large hive thru which he expects the bees to travel, removing the 500 pounds of honey, which Mr. Moogan estimates is stored in the church walls, thru the pipe into the new hive.

Patrick Doherty, 60 years of age, of Danville, met death Tuesday morning, in a strange manner. Mr. Doherty was driving his automobile near the village and was caught under the curb by a rope stretched across the road which was connected to a hay fork being used in unloading hay in a barn. The man was hurled from the car backward a distance of seventy feet. His neck was broken.
