AUGUST MILK BRINGS GOOD PRICE

Dairymen's League Recommends Selling of August Milk From $2.90 for Class 1. Other Classes Lower

The Board of Directors of the Dairymen's League, meeting in New York City on July 20th and 21st, voted to recommend to sell League milk for the following prices for the month of August:

Milk in Class 1. will be sold for $2.90 per hundred; this is for all milk sold by the dealer in fluid form. Class 2. includes milk manufactured in several different forms, the chief of which is that made into cream, ice cream, and into cheeses of the soft cheese type; the price for all milk sold in this class will be $2.25. Class 3. includes sweetened condensed, and evaporated, and powdered whole milk, sold in cases. The price for milk sold in this class will be determined at the end of the month by adding 45c to the price of milk figured upon actual butter quotations. Class 4. includes all milk sold in the form of butter and American cheese, and the price is determined at the end of the month by the actual market quotations for those commodities.

The prices stated above are base prices and will, of course, vary according to the amount of butter fat which each farmer's milk contains, and the freight differentials determined by the distance which each farmer lives from the City of New York. These prices to farmers are a very decided advance upon those the farmers received for July. The price for Class 1. milk in July was $2.20; Class 2. $1.55; and Class 3. $1.60.

The reason for the good advance at which the Co-operative Association has been able to sell milk is the increased consumption of milk in New York City and especially the decreased consumption of milk in the rest of the State.

Added to these good prices for which August milk is sold is the fact that there will not be very much milk sold in May and June to be sold for the low prices in Classes 3 and 4, much more of it being utilized in Classes 1 and 2. This will have a tendency to bring up the pool price, in fact, dairymen may look forward to the pool price for July as being much better than the June price, and to the August pool price as being very satisfactory, better in fact than any other farm product is now selling for.

As the Co-operative Association has constantly the welfare of the consumer as well as the farmer in mind, it is a special satisfaction to know that the price to consumers in New York City for July was not raised at all, although it has been customary always to begin to do this in July in other years and also the August retail price will probably be raised only a few cents. This makes several times in the last few months that the Co-operative Association has been able to sell the milk of its members to the dealers in such a way as to reduce the spread between what the consumers pay and the farmers receive.

RUNABOUT BURNS

Ray Hammond's Oakland Backfire and is Destroyed

As Ray Hammond was on his way to Whitesville Monday, his auto caught fire while climbing the Hunt Hill, about one mile east of Andover, and was entirely destroyed, Mr. Hammond having to jump to save himself.

The car was an Oakland runabout. It seemed to be running along smoothly, when it backfired and a sudden flame enveloped in a sheet of flames. Mr. Hammond lost in addition to the car about fifty dollars worth of clothing.

The machine carried a small insurance.

FARMERS' PICNIC BELMONT, AUG. 11TH

Under Auspices of Allegany County Farm Bureau. Big Time is Assured—Games, Races and Fun

The promise to make this year picnic the best ever begins to show signs of fulfillment. Plans for a day filled with games, fun, music, races, and everything that goes to make up a picnic are rapidly pulling into shape. Sub-committees have been appointed to represent the three co-operating organizations, the Granges, Dairymen's League, and the Farm Bureau. Each committee has laid out its definite work and everybody is working hard to make the day a success.

S. L. Strivings, President of the New York State Federation of County Farm Bureaus, will be the speaker of the day. His address will be given at 11 a. m. Mr. S. F. Lester, County Secretary of the Y. ## THE INDEPENDENCE HEALTH CLASS

Hold Third Session at Parish House, Under Direction of Miss Neva Wood. Doing Fine Work

The third session of the Independence Health Class was held at the Parish House, at Independence, on Monday, July 25th, under the direction of Miss Neva Wood, Home Bureau Manager, and Miss Marie Goulet, executive secretary of the Tuberculosis Committee. This nutritional health class was started three weeks ago under the combined direction of the Home Bureau and the Tuberculosis Committee with the object of building up the health of the children of Independence. Children who are underweight are to be brought up to standard, and children who are apparently well will be taught how to keep well. The importance of a right diet was the chief topic under discussion, with further information on care of the teeth, cleanliness, and wholesome living.

The class was inaugurated by a group of Home Bureau women who aim to have their children as healthy as possible and keep them so. The Parish House in Independence was offered as a common meeting place. Dr. Probasco, of Whitesville, kindly donated his services as examining physician. The committee in charge is Mrs. Nye and Mrs. Spicer. This committee has an enthusiastic and interested group of mothers backing them up. Similar nutritional health clinics have been started by the Home Bureau at Whitesville and Alfred, and the Town of Independence with its scattered population is to be commended for getting into line with these other larger towns.

HOME BUREAU MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Home Bureau, Thursday afternoon, at 3 p. m., at the M. E. Church. Mrs. Place, the community nurse of Alfred, will be present and will give the meeting a very interesting and helpful address and first aid nursing until the doctor arrives.

LOST SATURDAY WON SUNDAY

Lost to Cuba at Cuba, Saturday, and Won From Fillmore, at Andover, Sunday

Give and take was the order of the day this week. The Ball Club gave one game to Cuba Saturday and took one from Fillmore Sunday.

Saturday's game was a walk away for Cuba, that team winning by a score of 12 to 2. The Cuba boys put the game on ice in the 3rd, when they bunched six of their eight hits and pushed across seven runs. Armstrong relieved Worrell in the 4th, and held his opponents to one hit during the remainder of the game.

Following is the score of Saturday's game:

Bloss had the visitors at his mercy at all times during the game, and let them down with scattered hits. Brigham, for the visitors, was hit freely for 13 safe ones.

Pan Williams was the sensation of the game, getting 4 safe hits out of 4 times at bat, and pulling off several phenomenal plays at short.

Lauterborn was on second again and played his usual snappy game. Lauty is there yet, even if the ground is rough around his territory.

BEAUTIFUL SCENES OF FAIRY SPLENDOR

"Zig-Zag Follies" Andover Auditorium, Aug. 1, and 2. Production Worth Attention of Whole County

That Erhart's comedy revue "Zig-Zag Follies" will prove the most spectacular and beautiful entertainment ever presented in this section is a fact that none who have received inside information can deny. The Rochester, N. Y. Times Union says of the production: "The smoothness with which the entertainment progressed, the elaborate costuming of the young women, the splendid scenic equipment and the adequate staging of the production revealed the hand of a master of stagecraft, and Mr. Erhart is deserving of unlimited credit and praise for producing what is easily the best amateur show that has ever been seen in this city."

The Syracuse Journal says, "The spectacle there was the irresistible appeal to the imagination. It took the charm of frolicking tykes to paint again the glamour of romance and mysticism in pictures which would not fade from the mind, from every angle the play sparkles, mounted on a lavish scale, the offering fairly scintillates, dazzling in its splendor, its pageantry will be difficult to surpass."

"Zig-Zag Follies" will appear at the Auditorium, Monday and Tuesday nights. It is unnecessary for us to remind you of the good work always done by an Andover cast, especially when it comes to such spectacular performances as the Follies presents.

Andover's best is drilling each night to make the show the best ever given in our local playhouse.

Tickets at Brundage Drug Co., at 9 o'clock this morning.

COMMUNITY DAY CELEBRATION

Belmont Odd Fellows Lodge Will Hold House Warming All Day and Evening, August 3rd.

Belmont is to have a big Community Day Celebration on Wednesday, August 3rd, under the auspices of Belmont Lodge of Odd Fellows, Number 381, to which all Belmont and the neighboring lodges of Odd Fellows and their friends are invited.

The celebration will be in the nature of a house-warming and lawn fete, ball game, other sports and dancing, with several other events and special attractions.

The occasion is for the purpose of opening the fine new home on Willets Avenue to entertain their friends and to commemorate the success of the youngest lodge in the county in establishing its fine home.

The Entertainment Committee guarantees that there will not be a dull moment from 11:00 a. m. until midnight.

A hot roast dinner will be served at noon and an excellent supper at night by the Rebekahs.

There will be a large list of amateur sports with prizes on the spacious grounds of the club house, and from about 2:30 until 4:30 everyone will adjourn to the base ball field to witness the third game between Belmont Athletics and the Angella team. The last game between these teams resulted in Angella's favor by a score of 2 to 1, and the teams are most evenly matched.

The committee has asked Attorney Dawson D. Dickson, of Wellsville, and Rev. C. M. for addresses.

All of the second story of the Club House has been made into one large room, re-decorated, and the finest floor possible is well waxed and ready for dancing in the evening.

The Odd Fellows, in purchasing the large McNutt house and estate and then putting it in fine shape, have done a great deal of credit to themselves and even greater credit to the village, and it is expected that the town people and friends from neighboring towns will turn out and make the day a big success.

Visitors lodges will send large delegations.

JOHNSON NOT A SLACKER

In the slacker list, released by officials for publication, appeared the name Oscar A. Johnson, R. F. D. 3, Wellsville. Mr. Johnson, who is now employed at the Wellsville Aluminum Works, enlisted at the age of 23 years, on Dec. 1917, and was discharged on Dec. 1918, and was honorably discharged from the Army, having served as corporal in the 36th Central Postal Directory.

It is a remarkable fact that similar names have been found in similar service lists.

THOSE FIREMAN PRIZES

The Wellsville Reporter says that the fire department of that village easily ran away with all of the prizes at the County Fireman's Convention, at Belmont, last week, even though they had as competitors the Andover Fire Department.

Is that so?

Then the Andover Fire Department must have stolen those prizes after the race from the Wellsville department, for they have been on display in the Vars Jewelry Store window as the prizes won by our department at Belmont.

The truth is that the Andover department beat the Wellsville bunch in the hose race, took first prize, and then the Reporter claims the prizes for their department.

The Andover boys also were second in another contest.

FARM BUREAU CONDUCTS HEARING

Co-operating With Joint Agricultural Commission of Congress. Business Men Make Statements

The Allegany County Farm Bureau has just conducted a form of hearing calling upon important business men in many lines for statements relative to the way that the agricultural conditions of the past year have effected their business and the general development of the community. Space does not permit even a fair report of the different conditions under which farmers are laboring this year.

Without an exception every person questioned on the financial status and prosperity of the farmers in their community stated that agriculture was certainly receiving the worst blow it had had in many years. In some cases, such as with hay, the market price was fairly satisfactory, but the cost of transportation and marketing was so high there was nothing left for the farmer. Dealers in farm implements and bankers stated that they had this year been called upon to extend more credit than they had ever before carried. Regardless of the trade or business represented all agreed that there was no correlation between the price received for such farm products as wool, hides, and potatoes, and the price that the consuming public is having to pay for most of the finished products made from these articles.

The hearings conducted in this county is only a sample of what the Farm Bureaus have done to assist the Agricultural Commission recently appointed by Congress to get the best possible first hand information in regard to the situation throughout the entire country. The Legislative Committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation of which Mr. Coverdale is chairman, states that a very valuable lot of information on statements of conditions has been collected and that they would bear weight with the commission.

FARMERS SAVE DEER FROM PACK OF DOGS

Olean, July 23. — Taking refuge in a barnyard in Red Branch, near here, a young fawn was saved by farmers from a pack of dogs pursuing her. The deer was driven out of the foothills by the dogs, it is believed.

Farmers left the hayfield and kept the canines at bay and they drove them away. The deer remained in a corner of the yard for a time and then ran for the hills.
