

Of Interest to Farmers

Homespun Yarn

Have those back steps been made safe and comfortable for next winter?

The house is the first line of defense of the Republic; don't let the enemy take it.

One woman has found that sassafras bark kept in the package with dried fruit is effective in keeping away insects.

Don't burn up the soiled handkerchiefs if they are torn. Launder them and then cut them into strips and roll for bandages.

Some wall board and paint may be about all that's needed to transform a corner of the woodshed into a wash room and a laundry.

Cleanliness is of first importance in canning, according to a bulletin on food preservation just issued by the State College at Ithaca.

The children will have to be back in school before you know it. In planning the girls' clothes remember the girl who is simply dressed is well dressed.

Aunt Ada's Axioms: "Pay more attention to the kind of books your boys read and the kind of pictures they see and you won't have to worry so much about the kind of boys they play with."

THE U. S. WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

Latest Price Quotations Received From the U. S. Bureau of Markets Covering Produce and Feeds

(Washington, D. C., for the week ending August 1, 1921.)

Trading for the week was within narrow limits except for bulge on the 27th which was of short life. The unusually heavy receipts of wheat have been chief bearish influence.

Hay Receipts of hay generally light. Much only of fair quality. High grade timothy in good demand.

Receipts of hay generally light. Much only of fair quality. High grade timothy in good demand.

Mill feed situation in Northeast shade easier. Good demand in the northern section of Michigan.

Butter markets firm with price tendency upward. Hot weather has cut production and has made fancy grades scarce.

Agrigraphs

There is no time to lose in selecting and conditioning birds for the fall poultry show.

A sick tractor doesn't earn any money. The time to doctor it is before it absolutely refuses to go at all.

Don't let them bring up reserves reinforcements; kill the weeds in the garden before they can produce seed.

Isn't there a boy or girl in your family or neighborhood who needs encouragement, or even help, to go to college?

Hoofs as well as stomach benefit if the horse is allowed to run in the wet grass on rainy days during the hard work of harvest time.

If you win at the Fair, don't crow; if you lose, don't grouch. Spend your time learning why you lost or won; maybe the judge will tell you.

Uncle Ab says: "I've always noticed that the fellow who keeps business is the least affected by heat or cold, and by too much frivolity or grief."

Do you use milking machines? Are you considering getting them? Keeping them clean is a big factor in their success.

Early molters are not good layers.

Far and away the best prize that life offers is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.

Uncle Ab says: "The man who leaves the world no better than he found it is a worse parasite than dodger."

Lice and mites thrive only at the expense of the poultry; anybody can choose whether to raise vermin or chickens.

A silo is becoming a necessary part of every dairy farm and a bathroom is becoming a necessary part of every farm home.

A tireless worker is the tile drain. Day and night, while the ground is wet, it keeps at its job and asks no pay nor feed.

Whitewash has a natural affinity for hen coops, dairy stables, board fences, and they ought to be allowed to get together.

So popular is bulletin F-117 that another edition has just been printed for the State College of Agriculture at Ithaca.

Be afraid to advertise aggressively for one reason only - and that is that your store would not be able to make good.

A merchant who believes that the more people know about his store the more patrons he will have is sure to be an aggressive advertiser.

Don't stick with the prunes

MY DAD'S favorite yarn.

WAS THE one about

THE OLD storekeeper.

WHO WAS playing checkers.

IN THE back of the store.

AMONG THE coal-oil.

AND THE prunes.

WHEN THE sheriff.

WHO HAD just jumped his king.

SAID "st there's a customer.

WAITIN' OUT front."

AND I said "Sh-h-h!

IF YOU'LL keep quiet.

MEBBE HELL go away."

NOW HERE'S the big idea.

WHEN A good thing.

HAPPENS ALONG.

DON'T LEAVE it to Georgia.

TO GRAB the gravy.

FRINSTRANCE IF.

YOU HEAR of a smoke.

OR READ about a smoke.

THAT REALLY does more.

THAN PLEASE the taste.

THERE ARE no hooks on you.

THERE'S NO law against.

YOUR STEPPING UP.

WITH THE other live ones.

AND SAYING fight out.

IN A loud, clear voice.

"GIMME A pack of.

THOSE CIGARETTES.

THAT SATISFY."

YOU'LL say you never tasted such flavor, such mild but full-bodied tobacco goodness.

Have you seen the new AIR-TIGHT tins of 50?
