

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Aug. 3. — The present drop in temperature almost gives a chill, after a month of excessive heat. The harvest has overtaken the haying in this section, and wet weather has again overtaken both. Henry Horan was up from Andover Monday to help Leo in the harvest field. Jim Gibbons is now working for Dan Appler, who says he is thru with the "farm bureau" product of hired men.

When Raymond Huggins was going to the condenser Saturday morning, with milk from the Tom McAndrew farm, the harness broke when going down hill. The horse became unmanageable throwing the boy and milk into the ditch where Com. Howland came upon him, and took him to an Andover physician, who found a dislocated shoulder and minor injuries. Considering the bad mix-up the boy had a lucky escape.

Lynch Bros. were greatly shocked on receiving a message Sunday morning of the very sudden death of their brother, James of Hornell. "Jimmie" was well known to our residents, as he grew to early manhood on the hill when he left the farm to "paddle his own canoe" in the business world, and by perseverance and natural ability was successful in so doing, having been a very competent real estate man for some years. He married a Hornell lady who died less than two years ago. Last Thursday he motored on the hill in company with Mr. and Mrs. M. Dougherty of Andover, for a visit at the farm home. Our people sympathize with the family in the loss of their older brother, who was the first one to be called from a family circle of eleven children.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McAndrew spent Monday and Tuesday on the farm. Frank Horan made a business trip on the hill Monday morning. Lynch Bros. attended the funeral of their brother, James, from St. Ann's Church, Hornell, on Wednesday.

Mrs. John Austin, of New York City, spent a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Leonard.

Mrs. Julia Willetts, Williams, of Philadelphia, who is spending a month on her farm near Belmont, spent last Friday with her college friend, Miss Carrie B. Leonard.

Mrs. W. B. Leonard and family with C. Lee Richardson motored on Sunday afternoon to the Belvidere Farms, where they visited the ancient historic Villa, the spacious grounds, beautiful gardens and the stock barns. Enroute they stopped to enjoy the magnificent grounds of the Willett estate at Belmont.

Mr. Depledge has gone to visit his home in Fredonia for a few days. Mrs. Wm. Wahl and Mrs. Leon Wahl were visitors at the Hinchey home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Morrison and daughter, of Wellsville, were callers at S. Hann's Sunday.

The Zig-Zag Follies of Andover passed thru this place going so fast they were taken for a band of travelers, but did not make a very good show.

Advertisements that reach your prospective customers is what you want as a most direct method of putting your products in the most effective manner before them.

Your local paper is the medium that puts your very words beneath the eyes of those who are looking for just the articles you may be marketing.

Do not hesitate. A minute lost in advertising is days lost in the rising to prominence of your merchandise.

We must show all people what we have to sell before they will buy.

The most practical way of showing them is to get them to the very spot.

And the way to get them there is to

Her home—her mirror beautiful

In her home a woman sees the reflection of herself! Each room becomes a vista of your charms if you select individual and distinctive pieces of furniture that express good taste and instinct for the beautiful.

Here is a touch of Fontainebleau in our ivory tinted bedroom set; there is a fleeting glimpse of Colonial ancestry in a gate leg table or Windsor chair, again you show your wit, grace—caprice, perhaps—in sun parlor or breakfast room.

Babcock's recommend Queen Anne for the Modern Dining Room

There is a certain quality possessed by some furniture periods which may be defined as charm. For dining rooms of today the reproductions and adaptations from the wonderful English Period of Queen Anne are most satisfactory and interesting. A visit to our collection of English inspired dining room furniture will reveal a highly interesting exhibit. We doubt if you are aware so many beautiful dining room suites may be seen in Hornell.
