

BURROWS NATIONAL BANK ANDOVER, N. Y.

CONDENSED STATEMENT OF CONDITION TAKEN FROM REPORT TO THE COMPTROLLER SEPT. 6, 1921

Resources		Liabilities
Loans and Discounts	$307,780 83	Capital Stock	$25,000 00
Overdrafts	542 89	Surplus and Profits	39,234 88
U. S. Government Bonds to cure circulation	25,000 00	Circulation	24,700 00
Liberty Bonds owned	20,760 00	Interest collected but not earned (approximate)	608 62
War Saving Certificates	830 00	Dividends unpaid	135 50
Bonds, Securities, etc.	14,473 00	Deposits	342,395 52
Federal Reserve Bank Stock	1,500 00
Cash on hand and with Banks	50,660 50
Interest earned but not col- lected (approximate)	5,050 30
Banking House	3,200 00
Furniture and Fixtures	1,025 00
Redemption Fund	1,250 00
	$432,074 52		$432,074 52

MEMBER OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
NEW YORK STATE DEPOSITORY
INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

OFFICERS

JESSE S. PHILLIPS, President E. J. ATWOOD, Vice President
JOHN E. CANNON, Cashier R. E. TEMPLE, Asst. Cashier

DIRECTORS

E. J. Atwood, J. S. Phillips, J. E. Cannon, F. W. Burrows, E. D. Baker, J. C. Lever, P. C. Lynch

Foreign Advertising Representative
THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

MAILS CLOSE

East
26 2:00 P. M.
8 with office

West
Train No. 7 10:00 A. M.
..... with office
The Post Office closes at 7:30
Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays and 6 o'clock Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.
W. F. O'CONNELL, P. M.

Reportorial

—Emmett Dawson is clerking at the Trainor grocery.
—A. B. Cook has purchased a farm at Almond and moved thereto.
—Mrs. Nelson Straight is improving after an illness of several weeks.
—Miss Helen Folsing is enjoying a vacation from her duties in the J. P. Cannon shoe store.
—Bolivar has just concluded a series of eight pavement dances which have been well patronized.
—P. J. Lynch had the misfortune to fall on the cement floor of his barn breaking several ribs last week.
—The late Judge Warren J. Cheaney, of Steuben County, left an estate of only $7,000. His widow gets it.
—Miss Ruth Hann, of this village, and John Balwin, of Wellsville, were married at Wellsville, Wednesday, Sept. 10th.
—Mrs. Flora Bess is ill at the Wilcox home on Davis Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Wilcox, of this village, are caring for her.
—Milford Bassett, of Independence, has been appointed Justice of the Peace to succeed his father, the late H. K. Bassett.
—T. J. Gilbert, News foreman, is recovering from an attack of the epidemic from which several of our residents have been ill recently.
—A Maxwell car, owned by John W. Jones, of Wellsville, caught fire while he was driving it to his work on Voorhies Hill, and was destroyed.
—The Whitesville News says that several cows on the Wm. Teater Sr. farm, at that place, reacted to the tuberculin test and will be slaughtered by the state authorities.
—W. M. Woodruff has returned to Andover and resumed his cheese business with offices in the cold storage building, and with his family, will occupy the Hinchey home, on Pleasant Avenue.
—Mrs. Emma L. Prescott, of Wellsville, has been awarded $7,000 damages for the death of her husband who lost his life by coming in contact with an electric wire while repairing lines for the Bell Telephone Company last April.
—Dr. Virgil C. Kinney, of Wellsville, was elected president of the American Electrotherapeutic Association, at their convention held last week in Philadelphia. The election of Dr. Kinney to this office is a high compliment to his knowledge of the use of electricity in medical work.

—Mrs. Frank Houghtling is ill at her home on First Street.
—Leon Wahl is recovering from a severe attack of toxic neuritis.
—Mrs. Philetus Brewster suffered a shock of paralysis last week Thursday.
—Mrs. Ray McGill and son, Bruce, are ill with the cold epidemic prevalent in the village.
—The New York State Oil Producers Association will hold a meeting in Olean, Sept. 21st.
—J. P. Herrick, of Olean, has the rig up and will drill for oil on the Driscoll lease in Fulmer Valley.
—An exchange says the apple trees at least are observing the 18th amendment and the cider crop will be light this fall.
—Miss Marjorie McOmber, of Belmont, has been elected president of the county organization of the World Wide Guild.
—Monthly magazines are soon to be sent by mail again instead of freight, as has been the custom for a number of years.
—Two Bolivar men, namely, Harry Butler and Cecil Richardson, are in jail at Belmont charged with the theft of automobile tires in Allegany and Steuben Counties.
—Rain is greatly needed in this locality. The fine harvest weather is being utilized by our farmers who are hustling in their crops.
—The annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Rushford, Sept. 27th. Mrs. Fanny L. Cochran will give the address.
—The primaries passed off quietly in Andover Tuesday, as pre-arranged, Duke received a majority for assemblyman on the Republican ticket.
—Charles Graham committed suicide by shooting himself in the head with a shot gun. Sept. 11th. Mr. Graham lived alone on his farm north of Angelica village.
—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Baker, of Greenwood, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last Friday. Their son, Leslie Baker and wife, of Canisteo, entertained in their honor.
—Grape growers have suffered heavy losses by theft of their crops. Automobiles and trucks have been driven near the vineyards and filled with grapes. Many of the vineyards are now patrolled by armed guards.
—There were 61,859,900,000 cigarettes manufactured in the United States last year. The year's crop of tobacco is reported at 1,508,064,000 pounds, grown on 1,894,400 perfectly good acres of ground which might have been devoted to food crops.
—Edna Perry, 12 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry of Canaseraga, and Wm. Deiter, of Birdsall, were seriously injured in an auto accident, near Wayland, last week. The car was driven by Clarence Doolittle, of Birdsall, who lost control of the machine and it went into the ditch.
—Lester L. Drake, the piano tuner of Wellsville, was in Andover professionally Thursday. He announces that hereafter the greater part of his time is to be spent in Wellsville, Belmont, Andover and vicinity, rather than covering a greater territory. See his advertisement in another column of this issue. Mr. Drake studied the piano since construction with one of the largest factories in the world and is an expert in his line.

—J. D. Cheesman has exchanged his Ford Coupe for a Sedan.
—Miss Esther Baker is teaching the school at Arkport this year.
—The drought in this locality was broken by a light rain on Saturday night.
—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conrath, of Greenwood Hill, have a little daughter, born Sunday night.
—Cass Wilcox was taken to the State Hospital at Gowanda for medical treatment last Saturday.
—A severe rain storm swept over Hornell Saturday evening, filling the subway and doing much damage.
—Gertrude and Cecelia O'Connell entertained fourteen little friends Sept. 5th, in honor of their tenth birthday.
—Miss Lizzie Hyland had the misfortune to fall on the walk while going to church Sunday morning, breaking her wrist.
—Lewis Tucker, of the Vandermark, has a carload of prize sheep and cattle on exhibit at the State Fair at Syracuse.
—Miss Julia Chappel has been placed in a home at Hammondsport. Mrs. Roxanna Burrows accompanied her to the place last Friday.
—Ford C. Whitford, of Wellsville, recently sighted a fine buck deer on a farm which he recently purchased between Jasper and Woodhull.
—Miss Agnes Delaney is having a vacation from her duties as cashier at the J. E. Cannon department store and is visiting friends in Buffalo and Dansville.
—The remodeling of the Everett studio, on Greenwood Street, into a neat residence by Glenn Ruger, who recently purchased the property, is a great improvement.
—The Belmont Dispatch says that in modern divorce cases the wife asks for the Victrola, the husband asks for the keys to the cellar, and the county has to keep the children.
—The large barn of P. F. Whitcomb, on Trianna Street, Belmont, burned to the ground, together with all the contents, last week. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is estimated at $5,000, with no insurance.
—Hollis Brady, a Rushford farmer, was found in his barn last week, unconscious from the kick of a horse. His lower jaw was broken and nearly all of his teeth gone. He was taken to the Olean hospital where his injuries are pronounced as serious.
—Frank Fox, a well known resident of Canaseraga, is in St. James Mercy Hospital at Hornell, with his back broken. Fox was riding with a green automobile driver, and as they were attempting to cross the overhead bridge on the state highway, just this side of Canaseraga, suddenly the car got away from the driver and plunged thru the railing.
—A two-headed Holstein calf was born recently on the farm of Cornelius Eise, at Elma, and at this writing is hale and hearty. The calf has two tongues and two sets of teeth. The heads are grown together at the top, the noses extend apart at an angle. A throat leads from each mouth and joins in one at the neck. The calf has four eyes, but only two ears. It is believed she will grow four horns. She walks around independently and drinks from a pail without aid. Two strong voices enter a protest when her meals are a bit late.

—Regular meeting - Edw. Seaman Relief Corps Saturday night.
—Mrs. Addie Green is assisting at the home of Miss Mary Snyder.
—Baker Bros. & Boyd are repainting their ware house on Greenwood Street.
—Henry Clues, the great Wall Street firm says times are better and are still on the improve.
—Charles Robinson is harvesting his second crop of fine alfalfa at his farm home below the village.
—The state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Rochester, Oct. 6-10.
—The outlook for hunting this fall is good; game is reported as abundant, especially rabbits and pheasants.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Dolan have an eight and one-half pound son, born Sept. 13th, at St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell.
—The city fathers are improving the town hall by enlarging the entrance and part used for the storage of the fire apparatus.
—Wm. Corey suffered a stroke of apoplexy at his home on Water Street, last Sunday, and is now in a serious condition as a result.
—The weather man has it in for the straw hat now. His ugly promises of cold weather is calculated to write a final on the summer headgear.
—The S. D. Baptist Ladies Aid Society held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Emma Robbins, Tuesday afternoon. A thirteen luncheon was served.
—The Hornell police force has been equipped with a motorcycle with which to catch speed fan automobilists. The first one captured, Bernard Rees, was given a fine of $40.
—Rev. Wm. M. Simpson, of the Alfred Station S. D. Baptist Church, preached at the Andover Seventh-day Baptist Church last week, and at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning.
—The annual reunion of the 85th regiment New York Volunteers and Ex-prisoners of War was held at Portville, Sept. 7th. There were seventy veterans in attendance. Harry Holcomb, of Portville, gave the address.
—Michael Townsend, of Belvidere, was found in the road the morning of Sept. 5th, where he had been knocked down by a Ford car as he was riding his bicycle from the yard of his home into the state road. Mr. Townsend was critically hurt, suffering beside other injuries, a broken arm and collar bone. The driver of the Ford did not even halt to learn whether his victim was dead or alive. When the time arrives that auto license shall be taken away from these road-hogs the traveling public will again feel some degree of safety while on the public highways.

New Fall Arrivals

The last minute Fall Styles are arriving daily in

Fine Tailored Serge Dresses
Beautiful New Fall Hats
and Sweaters for the whole family, including Tuxedo Sweaters for Ladies.

ANDOVER BARGAIN STORE

Mrs. M. A. Fowler

THE AUDITORIUM

Paramount Pictures

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17th

COSMOPOLITAN PRODUCTION

"HUMORESQUE"

Featuring Alma Rubens

Roilin Comedy

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21st

CONSTANCE BINNEY

IN

"The Magic Cup"

A picture of happiness and sunshine that carries moments of appeal in its Cinderella and Prince Charming characterization

Sunshine Comedy

Beginning Saturday, Sept. 17th the first picture show will be at 7:30, the second will be at 9:00

Lester L. Drake

of Wellsville, N. Y.

Will be in Andover a portion of each month to tune and rebuild
PIANOS & PLAYERS
All Work Guaranteed
Leave orders with C. E. Brown

The Rest Room

OF THE

Swink Hotel

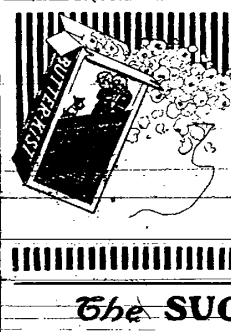

IS ALWAYS OPEN
Come in and wait for your husband, buss or train.

THE SWINK HOTEL
Meals and Lunches at All Hours

"CERTO"

Saves Time
Saves Worry
Saves Money
Ask About it

—AT—
TRAINOR'S

Saturday Special
This week for Saturday only we'll give a big family 35c carton of POPCORN for 25c.
Try some of our electrically toasted Peanuts put out by our Butter-Kist Machine.
Ice Cream, Cigars, Candies

F. L. BLOSS, Corner Grocery

PREMIER PRODUCTS
Everybody knows the quality of PREMIER SALAD DRESSING. All of the Premier products are of the same quality.
QUALITY GOODS FOR LESS MONEY

Come in and call for Premier Corn Flakes, Fancy Coffee, Lobster, Shrimp, Codfish, Clam Chowder, Salad Dressing and Pepper.

GRAPE SEASON ON
Phone 238
F. L. BLOSS

AUTO TRIMMING

TOPS RECOVERED
CURTAIN LIGHTS REPLACED
W. F. KANE
59 Brooklyn Ave. Wellsville, N. Y.

CRY a News "Want" or "For Sale" adv. and quick results.