Agrigraphs

Uncle Ab says: "Opportunity can't escape the fellow who watches for it and seeks it." Some farmers might increase the size of their farms by making the same land do double duty.

Homespun Yarn

Old Jack Sprat could eat no fat. His wife could eat no lean. So twist them both they drank some milk. And drained their glasses clean.

Service, Absolute Protection and Low Cost!

are the three prime factors that predominate in this exclusively New York State plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance.

We admit that this Hughes-Ketchum New York State plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance is in a class by itself, can't possibly deny it, and don't want to, instead, we glory in the fact of its existence.

The absolute truth about it, which must come out sooner or later, is the fact that this plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance is unique in character, being different from any other form of insurance known, and with which it is difficult to compare or associate other forms or plans of insurance.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the interest of policyholders are so securely guarded by law and State Supervision.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the expenses of management are limited by law.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the danger of conflagration hazard is eliminated by law.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the surplus accumulation is limited by law, resulting in compulsory dividends to policyholders.
