WORLD WIDE GUILD

Meal to Honor the Founder of the Organization in Andover

A very pleasant celebration took place at the home of Mrs. Rosy Burrows, Friday evening. For forty years Mrs. Burrows has been working with young ladies in mission work. Thirty-five people gathered at her home to do honor to the one whom the girls have come to call mother. Poems were read. A song written by one of the girls was sung, and a yell to fit the occasion was given. But the evening was mostly spent in reminiscence of the earlier days, reading of letters from absent ones and getting acquainted.

A lunch was served consisting of salad, sandwiches, cocoa, ice cream and cake. The party did not break up until late, each thankful for the influence of the hostess' life and wishing that she may continue to do much for the girls and the mission cause.

A thank offering of thirty-five dollars was given to missions, and a beautiful salad dish was given by the younger members.

The World Wide Guild of the Baptist Church when first organized was called the Helping Hand Mission Band and later the Farther Lights, but when the World Wide Guild was formed it became a chapter of this organization. Mrs. Burrows organized it and it has been because of her untiring efforts that they have never missed a year in meeting to study and contributing to the missionary work.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Angie Brundage, of Hornell, Mrs. Hadsall, of Bradford, and Mrs. G. A. Orton, of Pavilion, N. Y.

THOSE AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

Do You Believe State Officials Should Have Their Salaries Doubled, When Things Are Going Down?

Albany, Oct. — Are you in favor of members of the New York State Legislature receiving double their present salary? Should all voters be able to read and write the English language? How do you stand towards extending a preference in employment and promotion under civil service to veterans of the Spanish and World Wars?

Every person who votes on November 8th will have a chance to express himself on these as well as four other proposed amendments to the New York State Constitution. Approved by the Attorney General, Secretary of State John J. Lyons has drafted an abstract of all seven proposed amendments, couched in easily understood language, and sent the same to the boards of election.

The other proposed amendments authorize the Legislature to establish children's courts and courts of domestic relations; the disposal of portions of the old Erie canal in the vicinity of Mohawk, while the last chiefly concerns Nassau and Westchester Counties, and which if passed will result in the establishment of a governing body in these counties in place of the board of supervisors.

The chief bone of contention appears to be over the extension of civil service preference to the veterans and the question of illiteracy in so far as voters are concerned. Since 1899, there have been thirty amendments to the Constitution.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the kind neighbors and friends for their help and kindness during the sickness and burial of our wife and mother.

Especially we are grateful to Rev. Smith for his comforting words, to those who gave flowers, the pall bearers and those who gave us the use of their automobiles at the funeral.
