

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Oct. 27. — Potatoes have been stored away and plowed for their places, as the season's work of labor.

Louis Dean was a Wellsville visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Appier and little son were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Appier, of Greenwood Hill.

The family of Wm. Dean stopped to see Sunday when Mrs. Dean remained a couple of days as guest of relatives.

Steve Orway has moved his family from the Casey house into the Ed. Horan house.

Dan Lynch left Andover Sunday for a trip to New Mexico to visit his brother, Father John Lynch, who is located in that state.

Sisters from St. Francis Home, Buffalo, made their annual trip over the hill this week, with John P. Dean as chauffeur, soliciting aid in caring for their household of aged poor.

Lynch Bros. were doing business in Hornell last Friday and Saturday.

The railroad strike situation looks somewhat better, and it is earnestly hoped the calamity may be averted.

Speaking of "strikes" one was imminent in this vicinity recently, and the air was heavily surcharged for a short time, but it was "called off" for the time being.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dean were Hornell visitors Monday.

Elm Valley

There will be a social at the school house next Friday night, for the benefit of the school; price for supper 20 cents, children 10 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hagan accompanied Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jenks to Rushford Sunday.

Mrs. Anson Brewster, of Andover, has been passing a few days with her son, Herman Jackson and family.

The funeral of Mrs. Howden was held at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole, last Friday afternoon.

Those from away attending the funeral were Wm. Howden, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howden and Mr. Smith, of Richford; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howden, of Newark Valley, Howard Scott, Mrs. Maud Duell and Wesley Smith, of Canastota, and Mrs. Charles West, of New York.

When passing out little piece give it a call. It is a nice, clean and up-to-date place.

Mrs. Wm. Wahl has gone to Andover to look after her people, Mr. and Mrs. Stratton. We miss her from this locality.

"And It's Home Again, and It's Home Again, and It's Home Again for me!"

Then take the Home Town Paper.

Independence

Oct. 24. — Mr. and Mrs. Will Sawyer, of Wrights, Pa., were week-end guests of Mrs. S. G. Crandall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardy and son, Donald, of Auburn, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Livermore.

Miss Mary L. Green, of Alfred, was a guest of Elrene Crandall the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McGraw entertained Herman Walburn and family of West Union, Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Udyke has been spending a week with her son, Fred, at West Union.

Mrs. Comstock, of Andover, is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Potter.

Miss Elrene Crandall attended a convention at Alfred Station, Thursday.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

FABRICS

As Welcome as Indian Summer Days in Autumn

Just as summer's flowers are withering and summer wardrobes are becoming a little shabby—along come glorious autumn days with brilliant skies and gorgeous foliage and fabrics that embody all the smartness and breeziness of autumn itself.

One needs so many clothes for fall—sports clothes, street clothes, matinee frocks, evening frocks and ever so many more. The question is—how to make your clothes allowance cover everything you need.

Our marvelous collection of silks and dress goods—along with the wonderful new picture guide to home sewing—enclosed with every new designer pattern—enables you to have more clothes and smarter clothes for less money. And so we have planned a special exposition of the new autumn fabrics and all the other things necessary in dressmaking and call it—

COLORED SILKS

Rain Crepe—One of the king pins of the season, a wonderful protection, soft of beautiful draping quality, richly charming, 40 in. wide, Twenty-five shades and black in this line.
Satin Canton Crepe—A good relative of the popular Canton Crepe, but with a soft, wonderful, satiny face, heavy, lustrous and beautiful beyond words, 50 in. wide, brown, navy and black.

A marvelous crepe face so constructed that it will drap softly, yet have wonderful stamina in wear and service.

Tricotette—This fabric is having a revival of popularity due to its marvelous combination in use for blouses, skirts, sport coats, etc.
Coated Serges for dress wear—also very popular for home wear—designed to bring new life to a live wire in silk making.

A conservative fabric of great richness, strength and beauty.

Satin and Messaline—Rich line complete.
Check these out for while they are in season for quantity discounts and inseparable longwear and value.

TAILORED SUITINGS

We have always given special attention to these "manly" suits in our department and we are now offering a special price on our new line of suits.

For Skirts—Black Checks, Club Checks, Plaids, Stripes, Tweeds—every type of material for the odd skirt.

Manish Coatings—regular high class men's substance, wonderfully suitable for service, and good garments that will render wonderful service.
For Children and Women Coats—the bright new line, old rose, jade, etc., in Vicuna, Hilliard Cloth, Velours and others.

COATINGS

Practically every type of all-wool Coating are carried in this department, so beautiful and soft in texture, and in Cheviots, furrows and soft heavy and warm, need no being. However, whatever, woven of all the latest autumn, display a homogeneous whole of warm, soft Coatings yet suitable for all-wool work.
