

WERE YOU IN ANDOVER IN 1934?

This was the year the Andover State Bank started to serve the people of this community.

For 27 years we have made our service and equipment useful to those associated with us. The results of our efforts are reflected in the growth of the Institution, the permanent success of our patrons, their good will and loyalty.

We have grown because we have helped our patrons to go forward from one success to another. From the start we have held rigidly to this as our part of our creed:

NEVER TO FORGET THAT OUR CUSTOMERS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR OUR SUCCESS

Andover State Bank

A. C. FRISBEY, Chairman; J. M. BRUNDAGE, Pres.; FRANK S. CLARK, Vice Pres.; A. D. FULLER, Cash.

JOIN THE HOME BUREAU

This is the last week of the membership campaign. Don't say you haven't been asked to join. Every woman is invited to join the Home Bureau. One dollar pays your membership to Dec. 31, 1934, also your subscription to the Farm and Home Bureau News. Your local chairman, Mrs. Hattie Conley, will willingly call at your home if you will only notify her by phone or some way that your dollar is ready for your membership. The Home Bureau manager mails to each member who pays her dues for 1934 a copy of the Home Bureau crest done in tones of brown. Andover has the largest membership of any community in the county. If you are a member, now renew your membership by paying the small sum of one dollar, or if not a member, join and help Andover increase her membership, at the same time helping thru better homes to make better communities and a better nation.

Service, Absolute Protection and Low Cost!

are the three prime factors that predominate in this exclusively New York State plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance.

We admit that this Hughes-Hotchkiss New York State plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance is in a class by itself, can't possibly deny it, and don't want to, instead, we glory in the fact of its exclusiveness.

The absolute truth about it, which must come out sooner or later, is the fact that this plan of Co-Operative Fire Insurance is unique in character, being different from any other form of insurance known, and with which it is difficult to compare or associate other forms or plans of insurance.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the interest of policyholders are so securely guarded by law and State Supervision.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the expenses of management are limited by law.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the dreaded conflagration hazard is eliminated by law.

IT IS DIFFERENT because there is no other system of fire insurance in which the surplus accumulation is limited by law, resulting in compulsory dividends to policyholders.
