

Thanksgiving, 1921

It has long been the custom of our people to turn to the thanksgiving season of autumn in praise and thanksgiving. In conformity to that custom, it is well that we should pause in our labors on next Thursday and in accordance with the President's Proclamation give thanks for the many blessings we have received during the year 1921.

VOL. XXV. HOW COUNTY STOOD

Report of County Weights and Measures

Allen W. Corwin, Co. Weights and Measures over Monday, and a 1 on the News. While an Andover man occupation has made it essential.

For eleven years Mr. Corwin has been working for the child in Alford, seeing that all the scales that are in circulation are correct.

In his report to the supervisors last week, Mr. Corwin stated that he had been working for the office that he is well known and understood. In the past he has made 7 months of over two and holidays not excluding these trips he has traveled 5,487 miles, or for every block he has had to travel over seven to the job.

It speaks well for the people that he has had to correct two of his laws. These are J. C. Presser of Hinesdale, N. Y. and J. C. Baker, of Alford, who had given him a short weighted scale of meat. He was fined $10 and the good the shortage.

The past year has been busy one for the number of new gasoline pumps, each having been tested. Mr. Corwin's gasoline pumps are with proper instructions give correct results.

Following is the list of number and kind of made and the results: Haypress scales, Wagon scales, Platform scales, Counter scales, Spring balances, Beam scales, Computing scales, Prescription scales, Miscellaneous Measures, Dry measure, Liquid measure, Oil pumps, Gasoline pumps, Counter tacks, Tapes, Weights, Avoidupois, Apothecary, Metric.

In his report Mr. Corwin stated that the Board of Supervisors resolution authorizing the 1922 meeting of the County Weights and Measures Association, the county last year of which $1,483.82 was to be paid. Allegany County having in this office his job seriously needed attention.

W. R. C. D. Mrs. Mae Clayton, partner in the Relief Corps, died Nov. 19th. A pension was enjoyed to the evening. Mrs. Clayton was her daughter, Mrs.
