

Neighbors

Tip Top
Nov. 14th to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Graves, of Shongon, a son, Sherman Lester.

Deaths

Nov. 16th to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cole of Rushford, a daughter, Daisy Beatrice.

Marriages

Miss Ida Beth Harris, of Olean, and Royal E. Luce, of Rushford, were married Nov. 15th.

Deaths

Mrs. Leo Woman, of Rushford, died at the Olean General Hospital, Nov. 7th, following an operation for appendicitis.

A repetition of your Want Ad may bring it to the notice of the person who overlooked it to-day.

Alfred University

Miss Elsie Binns is expected to be back from New York this week. Prof. and Mrs. Radasch start Wednesday on a motor trip to Springfield, Mass.

At the Student Senate meeting, last Tuesday evening, it was decided to invite the Student Life Committee to meet with the Senate and the underclass committees for the purpose of arranging a series of class contests to take the place of the former banquet contest.

Intense excitement prevailed Thursday afternoon, when Dean Titworth announced to his Journalism class that a murder had occurred in town.

Tip Top

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greengard and children spent Saturday evening at W. E. Baker's. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Collins were guests of their brother, Roscoe Collins' Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker were in Arkport, Friday. Misses Retta Greene and Dorothy Foster spent Saturday at M. H. Greene's.

After the assembly Wednesday morning Donald Burdick, president of the Y. M. C. A., called a meeting of the men of the student body to explain the financial drive to raise $258.

Tip Top

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greengard and children spent Saturday evening at W. E. Baker's. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Collins were guests of their brother, Roscoe Collins' Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker were in Arkport, Friday. Misses Retta Greene and Dorothy Foster spent Saturday at M. H. Greene's.

After the assembly Wednesday morning Donald Burdick, president of the Y. M. C. A., called a meeting of the men of the student body to explain the financial drive to raise $258.

Tip Top

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greengard and children spent Saturday evening at W. E. Baker's. Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Collins were guests of their brother, Roscoe Collins' Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker were in Arkport, Friday. Misses Retta Greene and Dorothy Foster spent Saturday at M. H. Greene's.

After the assembly Wednesday morning Donald Burdick, president of the Y. M. C. A., called a meeting of the men of the student body to explain the financial drive to raise $258.

There's Common Interest Between You and This Store
You want to get all the style, value and service in clothes that you can for the money you spend.

C. F. BABCOCK Co. Inc.
114-118 Main Street Hornell, New York
Long Winter Evenings and the Festive Occasions Beginning With Thanksgiving Emphasize The Charm of a Cozy Livable Room