

SIGN-BOARDS ON THE UP-ROAD

Hamilton B. Williams.

Summer has been here and worked the magic of her smile . . . and the swift-flying winds . . .

There is no dying — only a shift of garments for the phases of the play. October's garlands shall make the space . . .

To lift a hand, to move, to think, to perform any function of life, or knock at the gates and ask Death permission . . .

The Italian peasants tell how the little Mass of Corruption prayed to be made beautiful for little children . . .

Our mortal house was not designated for permanency. To be so it would have to be as hard as granite . . .

From Carib Sea last May a blithe South wind Danced hither with a quickening wine . . .

And ancient bend — what booted striving? "Come, lady," grins Pharaoh saith, "Deck thyself with gold . . ."

To the lilt of a June-song "Old Mother, 'twill be dark ere long. Change-tuned, Sing other . . ."

And lads and lassies all Shall outward fare, yea, must — And Mountain, Mote and Man, . . .

All roads lead unto his gate.

dress; our spirits must wear a white robe in Faraway.

The processes of being perfected sadly near the house we live in, and only a little of the beauty of the spiritual gets out . . .

To be impure; to hate; to think evil render impossible the realization of the earth-life. But the good may not miss its glory . . .

Are they so brave who flip thumb at that of God and Hereafter? Not brave — only ignorant — fool-hardy . . .

stricken by loss, grayed by all sacrifices, their music jangled by toll and trouble, their plans foiled by mistakes . . .

God somewhere who weaves in dazzling light, with purpose, the threads we twist in our half-lighted days.

Exceptionally Good Coats A Special Purchase

Fifty Coats that have just come in — that we bought from an Eastern market through a special fortunate purchase. For it is a fortunate purchase, we feel. These Coats were secured at a very low price which enables us to mark them at these correspondingly low prices. But the best thing about them is they are such good Coats. They are good looking and are bound to be comfortable and to give good service. They are in Utility and Wrap styles in many varied ones — there are styles to become the large woman; who sometimes finds it difficult to purchase a becoming garment — and for the slender woman many that are bound to prove satisfying.

Fur Winsomely Trims Many Coats

Fur winsomely trims many of these Coats. Fabrics are soft supple Panvelaine, Bolivia, Marveña and Velour in soft brown shades, Sphinx, Sorrento, Volnay, navy and the very smart black. One of these Coats would make the coziest, nicest, smartest Christmas Gifts, imaginable.

Our Entire Stock of Beautiful SUITS

For Women and Misses at Sale Prices

Anyone of these Suits is one that a woman can put on with that keen sense of satisfaction which accompanies the knowledge that she is well-dressed. For these are splendidly tailored, stylish Suits that would ordinarily sell for a larger price. This Sale has been arranged to accommodate those women who want new Suits for Christmas occasions — yet do not want to pay big prices for them. They are in navy and black twill or in pile fabrics in navy, black, Volnay, Sorrento and brown.

ATTRACTIVE MISSES' SUITS

Misses' Suits that are just as good values as the Women's Suits selling at $60, but which have lines buoyantly expressive of those slim, svelte ones of the Miss herself. In pile and twill fabrics, some with opossum and nutria trimming. Priced $39.
